

Churches and Church Work.

Edited by Church Workers.

An exchange says that Miss Mae C. Phillips, an evangelist well known to many of our citizens, is conducting a revival in South Omaha.

A wonderful interest has been aroused where evangelist Enslow is holding meetings on Davis creek, there being conversions each night. And each night the church is full to overflowing. —North Loup Loyalist.

Lecky says that the simple record of three short years of Christ's active life has done more to soften and regenerate mankind than all the disquisitions of philosophers and all the exhortations of moralists. —Ord Journal

Fifty people added their names to the membership roll of the Methodist church Sunday and quite a number more will join next Sunday. All the churches also received large additions to their membership as a result of the recent revivals. —Ord Quizz.

Ord and Loup City have both experienced a series of revivals the past two months and reports from both towns are to the effect that a great deal of good has been done. From the best information we can gather, both towns needed it bad enough. —Arcadia Notes in Ord Journal.

METHODIST CHURCH NOTES
C. A. Clark of Ravenna, taught the advanced Bible class Sunday morning. The Sunday school is growing very nicely in all ways. There were 115 present and the collection amounted to $3.06.

A young converts' meeting is held at the church every Monday evening at 7:30, great interest is shown and much good is accomplished here.

The attendance Sunday morning was very good but in the evening the congregation was depleted somewhat because of the baptismal services at the Baptist church.

The Ladies' Aid society will hold its next meeting at the home of Mrs. T. L. Pilger on Wednesday, March 9th. All members are requested to attend these meetings whenever possible.

Miss Edna Minshall led the League Sunday evening instead of C. J. Tracy, who was unable to attend. The lesson on missions was much enjoyed. The next lesson is, "Christ stilling the storms of life" and will be led by Miss Cora Hollenbeck.

Rev. John Madely opened a series of revival meetings at the Wiggle creek school house Monday evening. His charge at that place has been asking for this for some time and although he has not recovered from the effects of the extra work caused by the meetings here, he has decided to grant their request.

The subject of Rev. Madely's sermon Sunday morning was, "Present Blessings," and the text was found in Ex. 4:2. We have heard several say that after hearing such a sermon they would be more careful and try and appreciate their blessings and opportunities more. His subject in the evening was, "Reconciliation," and it was indeed a beautiful word picture of the repentant sinner becoming reconciled to God.

"I am in favor of patronizing the home merchant," a farmer was heard to remark the other day. "He will take our produce and if we treat him right he will do as well by us as the mail order houses. We have one great advantage in dealing with the home merchant and that is, we can inspect his goods and groceries before we buy them and if they don't suit us we don't have to buy. I believe it is a good idea to see everything you buy before you take it, because the samples those big distant houses send out may not represent the bulk. Sometimes in sending off for goods, bungling mistakes are made and then you cannot help yourself. These men from the distant cities do not care: your money is what they are after whether you are satisfied or not. Trade with the home merchant and you will be better satisfied in the end with yourself and everything else." —Wolbach Advertiser.

LIQUID KOAL
THE GREAT GERM AND INSECT
DESTROYER FOR ALL

Germ Diseases Of Animals

Now used throughout the United States for the prevention and cure of hog cholera, swine plague, corn stalk disease, pink eye, foot and mouth diseases etc. A sure remover of worms in animals. The cheapest and best lice killer on the market.

National Medical Co.—Gentlemen: This is to certify that I have used Liquid Koal for Erysipelas in cattle and believe it to be a cure for this disease from the experiments I have made, but believe it ought to be used when the animal is first taken with the disease. And for a lice killer it can't be beat by anything I know of.
Yours respectfully,
W. L. LITTLE.

York, Neb., June 24, 1903.
Henry Scheele, Jr., lost four head of cattle. They had black leg. A calf that cost him $100 had it and the boy gave it up. We asked him to try Liquid Koal. He got a quart, gave three doses and the calf is well. That may sound fishy but it is worth investigating. Henry lives six miles west of York and you can talk to him. Liquid Koal is made by the National Medical Co., of York.—The Teller.

Your money refunded if not thoroughly satisfied with results.
