Peter Moritz is said to be losing ground very rapidly, and is now so enfeebled that he can no longer get out much. Since his return from New York a few weeks ago, the cancer in his mouth has been making very rapid progress.—Ravenna News.
A. P. Paulson gave us a pleasant call, Tuesday, and ordered his paper sent to his daughter, Miss Rosa Paulson, at Salinas, Calif. Mr. Paulson thinks his loss of small grain by late storms will be fully 90 per cent. But he takes his misfortune with philosophical fortitude.
Drs. Davis & Farnsworth of Grand Island, Neb., are prepared to treat all forms of chronic diseases, such as Rheumatism, Stomach disorders, Tumors, Cancer, Paralysis, Kidney diseases, etc. The doctors use, besides medicine and surgery, the x-ray, hot air baths, electricity and massage.
Flavel Wright, the irrepressible insurance agent, received a pressing invitation by mail, Monday. Not being a student of biblical lore, he couldn't construe it, till he appealed to Dr. Long and the newspaper man, who gave him the required information as to whom he was desired to meet.
C. H. Plambeck of Ashton was a pleasant caller, last Saturday, when in town on business. He is enthusiastic over the products of the Loup City flouring mill, and thinks the people ought to appreciate to a great extent that enterprise in this city. He says "the mill is what brings him to Loup City, more than any other cause."
Jim Dewey is a genius, when it comes to wood work, as well as in blacksmith line. Last week he did some artistic work on his turning lathe that was as near perfection as exact duplicate of the pattern before him as could be done anywhere. There is no use in going away from home for work as long as Jimmie is on earth and in Loup City.
St. Paul and Loup City played two dandy games of ball here last week. The first was on Friday afternoon, and was the best as well as the closest game played here so far this season, resulting in favor of the locals by a score of 5 to 1. Only three scores were made up to the 8th inning, 1 for St. Paul and 2 for Loup City, when the locals run in 3 more, making the score as above. Friday morning another game was played between the two clubs, which was a very interesting exhibition and gave the locals the game by a score of 10 to 3.

Prof. Mead had an argument with his milk dispensary, Sunday, when the bovine planted a remonstrance on the top of his right foot, which placed the professor hors du combat. He is now making haste slowly on a bunch of calves as propelling power.
E. J. Delaney writes us from Brooklyn, N. Y., enclosing the wherewithal for the paper for another year, and takes occasion to compliment the new management for the great improvement in its columns, typographically and editorially as well. It is such words of encouragement that cause greater endeavor to make the paper what it should be, an acceptable and needed adjunct to every household in Sherman county.
Joe Klein, state agent of the Equitable Life of New York has spent the week in town with his friend Flavel Wright, who is out in the interests of the same company. While here Mr. Klein paid the claim of Dr. Odendahl. We were interested to learn that this was the fourth claim paid out of five policies at about the same time. The other claims were those of Charles Waite, John Hawk and W. A. Wilson. The fifth is being carried by T. S. Nightingale of this city.
Loup George, a native of Syria living near Arcadia, and Miss Rose Moore were married by Rev. Forsyth Tuesday during the ball game. The groom who writes only in his native hand signed the marriage docket making the most remarkable signature that has appeared there so far. It is Syrian and of course in writing it he commenced at the right and wrote to the left.—Ord Quiz.
