Will play at Pilger's Opera House, Aug. 4, 5 and 6. Complete change of plays and specialties each evening. Reserved seats on sale at C. W. Conliser's.
 Loup City is fast putting on metropolitan airs. Last Sunday Messrs. Gus Lorentz and Oliver Mason received from Council Bluffs a fine double-seated automobile, which was used on our streets that day and a number of our people took fine rides thereon. Messrs. Lorentz and Mason are to be congratulated upon their enterprise in furnishing the first auto for Loup City. In the language of the Chinaman the auto has "No pashie, no pullee, go like hallee."
 Loup City has every reason to be proud of their ministerial gentlemen. Especially is this true of Rev. Madely, the Methodist pastor. And the NORTHWESTERN has no hesitancy in saying that the two sermons by that gentleman last Sunday were among the best we ever heard, and could not have been better or more Christ-like in their utterance and application. We are proud from a secular standpoint, that our Methodist friends have such an excellent, talented and God-like pastor.

Mrs. Jas. Burnett is on the sick list. W. P. Baird moved into his new home Monday.
 Have you had a ride on Lorentz and Mason's automobile?

 The next best thing to being a teacher is to marry one. In fact is better. We know.
 Miss Edna Daddow has been in the country for the past week cooking for her big brother.
 J. H. Parschall's father, two sisters and a brother are visiting him from Butte this state.
 S. F. Reynolds is enjoying a visit from his granddaughter, Miss Lavada Veeder of Sargent.
 After the Carnival, let us have electric lighted streets, stores and residences as a good topic for thought.
 We have ordered a 'phone placed in our residence, so you may catch the editor whether at the office or at home.
 Peter Moritz, who has been suffering from cancer, died last week Wednesday and was buried Thursday following.
 C. L. Drake from Indiana, formerly a resident of this county, is here on his way to Guernsey, Wyo., for his health.
 D. A. Johnson, of the firm of Johnson, Lorentz & Co., is up from Aurora to help Gus, through the Carnival trade.
 Sherman was one of the counties of the state that was O. K'd by the state board of equalization in the matter of assessment.
 If you have an item of news, phone it in, if you are afraid to meet the editor face to face, or find it easier to break it across the wire.
 Mrs. Guendel of Grand Island, who with her three children, have been visiting at the home of T. H. Elser, returned home last Saturday.
 Loup City is preparing for a big sporting carnival to be held in that town on the 4th, 5th and 6th of August. The Ord ball team and gun club are making preparations to be in attendance and participate in the contests.—Ord Quiz
 By the way, and we had nearly forgotten to mention it, when you come to the Carnival, if you are not already a reader of THE NORTHWESTERN, tickle the editor with a dollar and get the paper for a year. It will be worth a dollar to you many times over to hear him grin.
 Some fifty of the sweetest, prettiest and most charming school ma'ams in the world are in Loup City this week attending the normal, and if we were not married and desirous of retaining the few scattering hairs that still adorn our thinking cap, we—well, we have a son who is neither.
 The families of W. T. Gibson, S. E. Gallaway and G. H. Gibson met at the home of the former, last Sunday, and enjoyed a family picnic in honor of the visit of Mr. Marshall Ritchey of Altoona, Pa. Mr. Ritchey is a nephew of Mrs. W. T. Gibson and will spend his summer vacation in our midst.
 Loup City's popular butcher, S. F. Reynolds, he of the Pioneer Meat Market, is in fine shape to supply our people with the finest, juiciest meats for the Carnival trade, having made extra efforts to have a big supply of everything that can be wanted in the meat line for these days. You can count on Friend Reynolds never to be behind hand on anything.
 Are You Going to the State Fair? Make your arrangements to attend the Nebraska State Fair at Lincoln, August 29th to September 3d.
 As a state fair you will find it up-to-date in all particulars and in every department. Every class full and overflowing with exhibits.
 In agricultural products you can see the latest in varieties and the finest specimens.
 In live stock all the improved breeds will be represented and the opportunity to see the choicest and most valuable individual animals.
 In the fine art and textile departments the "old things" have been stricken out and the "new fancies" provided for.
 There will be acres of exhibits in farm implements, machinery, buggies, etc., and it will be the one opportunity of the year for intending purchasers to see, compare and then intelligently order or purchase.
 The speed program is the best provided for in the state, and as an extra inducement to lovers of the "fast horses" Dan Patch, the swiftest pacer in the world, will go against time on Tuesday, August 30th.
 As an outing a trip to the state fair is both pleasant, profitable and not expensive. A one-fare rate on all railroads.

HYMENEAL.
Czaplewski-Synak.
 On Tuesday morning of this week occurred the nuptials of our popular Polish merchant, John J. Czaplewski, and Miss Anastazia Synak, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Synak. The wedding took place in the Catholic church in this city, before a large assemblage of friends of the contracting parties. The ceremony was according to the Catholic rites and in the Polish language, of which we are not a very proficient scholar, hence will not attempt to put in English the sacred bans. Father Radka, the Polish priest of Ashton united the happy couple in the beautiful ceremonial of his faith, the bride being attended by Misses Mary Czaplewski and Mary Kaston, while Messrs. Joe Czaplewski and John Synak performed like service for the groom. The bride was tastefully attired in pale blue silk, with white shirred ribbon, and the groom was dressed in conventional black. Following the ceremony, the guests repaired to the home of the bride's parents, where a feast of good things had been prepared and the day and night were passed in banqueting and dancing. The groom is a well known and popular groceryman of this city, while the bride is an equally well known and popular Polish girl, and for a long time has been a clerk in the store of her husband. THE NORTHWESTERN wishes the couple a long and happy life.

During the Carnival the Model Restaurant will be open day and night. Meals at all hours and at regular prices.

Schaupp Siding.
 Harvest is about done around here. Stacking grain seems all the go now. Lewanduski began threshing Monday.
 We are in need of a blacksmith shop here.
 Lovd Bly is working on the new store.
 Ernest Rowe is shingling the Bly store.
 We are in need of a good watermelon patch.
 Lew Bechthold is buying hogs for E. G. Taylor.
 E. G. Taylor is building a barn for his manager.
 Isaac Sandburg is talking of buying a threshing machine this fall.
 There is a petition out for a postoffice at Schaupp Siding. Did you see it?
 William Wharton was working at Schaupp Siding this week, unloading stone.
 Miss Louisa Cording and Alva Engle Sundayed with Mr. and Mrs. Bechthold.
 Schaupp Siding's first dance was a success. There were about 400 people present.
 H. Smelser of Ashton was here figuring on a bill of lumber to build a barn and granary.

 We have quit yelling for public improvements since the editor of the Loup City Northwestern [called it roasting.—Arcadia Champion].

Correct as to Roosevelt Only.
 Republican editors are now doing their utmost to prevent fusion of democrats and populists. It won't work. The state of Nebraska will without doubt give Roosevelt a majority but the state will go fusion.—St. Paul Press (Pop.)
