Very good interest has been manifested in the revival meetings at the Baptist church in spite of the inclement weather. The people have turned out and have been very attentive to the Gospel. Several persons have professed conversion, and both pastor and people feel well repaid for their effort. The pastor has been ably assisted by his efficient corps of helpers. If faithfulness is the measure of true success the Baptist people have succeeded in large measure. Next Sabbath the pastor will preach on the following subjects: Morning: "Power from on High," evening: "No Admission." A hearty invitation is extended to you to attend.

Death of Grandpa Grow.

On Tuesday morning of this week occurred the death of Mr. Daniel Grow, at the home of his son, D. C. Grow, in this city, at the ripe old age of 86 years, 8 months and 10 days. The funeral services were held from the residence at 2 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, and the body laid to rest in our Silent City of the Sacred Dead. Grandpa Grow was one of nature's noblemen, and always had a kind word and welcome smile for all, and the writer especially will miss his oft repeated visits to our sanctum and his encouraging words and sunny presence. Grandpa Grow in politics as in religion was a man of strong and pronounced convictions, a great reader, and well versed on all the great issues of the day. It is well said that he lived not for himself alone, but his life was a blessing to all with whom he came in contact. He was a life long member of the Congregational church, and a republican from the birth of that party down to the day of his death. His illness was of several weeks duration, and his death was a peaceful and happy passing into the portals of the Great Beyond, where by faith he would be ushered into the abiding presence of his Lord and Master, whom he had so faithfully served.

OBITUARY.

Daniel Dryer Grow was born at Pennyan, N. Y., May 21, 1818, on September 27, 1838, he was joined in marriage to Miss Rhoda Brown, daughter of C. H. and Maribe Brown. To this union were born four children one dying in infancy and one, C. A. Grow, died near this city June 23, 1876. Two still remain, Mrs. J. J. De Golyer, of West Fort Ann, N. Y. and D. C. Grow of this city. On September 25, 1844, Mr. Grow and wife left Sodas Bay, N. Y., for the west going by water to Detroit then by mule team to Blackberry, Illinois, later they moved to Batavia and later to Chicago where he held a clerkship with the Chicago Shot Tower people until he came to Sherman county in the spring of 1876. They located on a farm three miles south of this village. Later they moved to this village where he entered politics and served two terms as county clerk. His good wife died at a hospital in Chicago, where she had been taken for treatment, December 22, 1886, her remains being buried by the side of her father at Batavia, Illinois. Since the death of his wife he has made his home with his son where he died.

We are indebted, the past few days, to the following good friends of this paper for favors: Messrs. T. S. Nightingale, J. A. Converse, W. H. Morris, Dr. Long, Chas. Reidel of Gold Hill, Oregon, Henry Capellan of Hazard, Gust. Curtis, Detlef Peterson, F. W. Fuller of Hazard,

A Few Words to Our Readers

This is the kind of letters we like to receive, and is from one of our good subscribers at a distance: "Enclosed find M. O. order for $—-. Sorry I am so far behind, but I am so forgetful. Please credit, and oblige." This is only one of possibly two or three hundred on our books that are several years in arrears, and all of them good capable minded men, who get behind just from sheer forgetfulness. We thank this good subscriber for his words, and suggest to our many readers, some of whom may be in arrears much farther than he, that they look at the date following their names, see how they stand, and do likewise. We do not like to send statements, nor do we like to mention such matters, but from the fact that our books show upwards of a thousand dollars in arrears on subscription to the paper, it does not seem fair that we should put out so much good money, which we have to carry from week to week, our bills being payable every thirty days, whether we receive any income from subscriptions or not. Will the readers please take up this matter and treat us as they would be treated?
