There is a bill in the legislature providing for biennial elections. If it becomes a law all present county officers will hold over another year. It is estimated the saving to counties the size of Sherman will be $500.

Representative Smelser had the pleasure of seeing his pet road bill pass its last gauntlet, the governor's signature attached and become a state law. Townships can now vote a levy for road purposes of 10 mills, which will give an opportunity to build roads. Mr. Smelser has worked hard to have this law passed and deserves considerable credit for the effort.

A few weeks since THE NORTHWESTERN called attention to a legislative grant of $3 per day given the speaker of the house and president pro tem of the senate, as presiding officers of those houses, claiming it to be unconstitutional. Marked copies of the paper were sent to Speaker Rouse, President Pro Tem Jennings, various senators, representatives, and to numerous employees of both houses. The matter was brought to the attention of State Auditor Searle, who asked Attorney General Brown for a decision. The attorney general promptly decided it to be unconstitutional and Auditor Searle thereupon declined to pay the warrants, and a saving to the state each session of the legislature of an item approximating $400 is thereby assured. Upon hearing of the attorney general's decision, W. H. Harrison of Grand Island, who two years ago was president pro tem of the senate, wrote the attorney general enclosing a draft for $219 received by him as presiding officer of the senate at that time, thus making a saving to the state of $600. But the funny side to Harrison's letter is his expression of mortification that he who has been a strenuous opposer of all sorts of legislative grants should himself be guilty. The humorous part lies in the fact that the writer of this, at that time an employee of the senate, went to State Auditor Weston in person and interposed objections to Harrison receiving his last twenty days' pay as presiding officer pro tem over the senate as clearly unconstitutional, whereas Mr. Harrison was very wroth at such unbecoming conduct from one of the hiring employees and his language was exceedingly vigorous. But it is really nice of him to pay it back, even at this late day. Now if ex-Speaker Willie G. Sears, and the other eleven ex-speakers and ex-presidents of the legislatures for the past twelve years can be persuaded to follow the excellent example of ex-President Pro Tem Harrison the doxology may be sung, the subject dismissed and the state be richer by some $2400 additional to the conscience fund.
