Get ahead of the flies by ordering your screen doors and window screens of LEININGER LUMBER CO.

We return thanks to our good friend W. J. Fisher, for a renewal of his subscription to this paper last week.

"Little Lord Fauntleroy," the beautiful 3-act comedy drama at opera house Friday evening, April 7th, 10-20-30c.

Word has been received here that a son was born to Rev. and Mrs. John Madley at Genoa on the 29th of March.

The Imperial Saxophone Quartette will be here Friday evening, April 14, instead of the 8th, as previously announced. Don't forget the postponement to the later date.

We received a pleasant call last Monday, from Messrs. Henry and Robert Hogz, of Ansley, who were on their way home from attending the obsequies of the wife of their close friend, Mr. Wm. Jeffrey, at Ashton.

Our friends are cordially invited to attend the services at the Baptist church next Sunday morning and evening. The communion service will be held in the morning. The ordinance of baptism will be administered immediately after the sermon.

H. S. WOLD, PASTOR.

Drs. Davis & Farnsworth of Grand Island, Neb., are prepared to treat all forms of chronic diseases, such as Rheumatism, Stomach disorders, Tumors, Cancers, Paralysis, Kidney diseases, etc. The doctors use, besides medicine and surgery, the x-ray, hot air baths, electricity and massage.

The English Shire stallion, formerly owned by Frank Otlewski, has been purchased by W. O. Brown, who will stand the horse at his farm, one and one-half miles south of Loup City, the coming season, at the following terms: $8 to insure with foal, and $10 to insure live colt. This horse is well known in this section and breeders will do well to see him before making other arrangements.

Earl W. Thompson, head clerk at Gasteyer's, went to Omaha last Friday to consult a specialist in regard to throat trouble with which he has been suffering for some time. Later, word was received from Mr. Thompson this week stating that he was under the care of Dr. Gifford and improving rapidly. His many friends will doubtless be pleased to learn that he will be back in his position again in about 10 days.

Carl de la Motte and son Will from Hazard, accompanied by Henry Haller, were Loup City visitors Monday.

Tuesday was city election. How did you vote on the licence question? Never mind; we don't expect you to tell.

The revival meetings closed last Sunday evening. The effort has been accompanied by much interest and success.

Our popular teacher in the city schools, Miss Nettie Conger, remembered the financial needs of the printer, Monday.

Wm. Young, one of the substantial farmers of Rockville township gave us a pleasant call last Thursday, while here on business.

We received a pleasant call last Saturday from one of our good readers, Mike Krolkowski, who changed the address of his paper to Ashton.

Ed Miner of Ravenna, last week bought four horses in Loup City, for which he paid the snug sum of $575. Say, horses are horses these days.

By eliminating the personality of the men voted for, we have a clear understanding of the sentiment of Loup City voters in regard to the saloon question.

George Peterson remembered us kindly this week. He changes the address of his paper to North Loup, as being more convenient for receiving his mail.

Chas. Kalka gave us a pleasant call last Monday. Mr. Kalka believes in good reading matter and plenty of it, hence is a good friend of the newspaper fraternity.

The Rae's are giving an excellent series of entertainments at Pilger's Opera House all this week. Change of program nightly. Nothing cheap but the price-10-20-30c.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Lee were called to St. Paul last Saturday by the illness of their sons, James and Marvin, each of whom have developed a case of measles and are very ill in consequence.

Dr. Maurice Schwartz, Kearney's leading optician, is in town for a few days and will make regular visits hereafter. He will be at the Wharton Hotel Saturday, April 8th, and will be pleased to examine eyes free of charge.

E. C. Thornton was another of our readers who remembered the editor Monday. He has recently been appointed supervisor in district No. 35, in Washington township, which insures good work in that territory.

There was a most enjoyable basket social at the Prairie Gem school house last Friday evening, at which the receipts were $21.49, which nearly completed the sum necessary to pay for their school library. An excellent program was given by the young people.

Loup City went "wet" on Tuesday by a very close shave, the vote being 79 to 71 in favor of irrigation. The temperance element made the fight of its life, and lost out by a very small margin. The result elects C. W. Conhiser and Sam Galloway for the long term, and P. O. Reed for the short term.

It's quite popular nowadays for the newspapers to reprint items of interest from their files of fifteen or twenty years ago. One of our exchanges reprinted an account of a party in honor of a certain damsel who had reached her twentieth milestone. Unfortunately the damsel is still single and has aspirations and the party was given twenty years ago. The editor has gone back east for a visit till matters quiet down.—Aurora Republican.

We received a pleasant call Tuesday from Mr. Louis Wolf of Hazard township, who was in the city accompanied by his good mother. Mr. Wolf informed us that Frank Haller, living near him, lost his house by fire last Saturday afternoon, about 1 o'clock, the house and contents, with the exception of a few articles, being destroyed. As Mr. Haller had no insurance, the loss falls heavy on him. Mr. Haller is a brother of Lewis Haller of this city.

We learn that the reception to the Balsa graduates at the residence of Wm. Landon, last Thursday evening, was a most enjoyable affair. There was only one drawback, however, and that was the inability of one of the graduates, Miss Eva Callen, to be present, owing to an injury received on her way home from the graduating exercises the evening previous, caused by the breaking of a wheel on the buggy in which she was riding, throwing her violently to the ground. We understand Miss Callen's injuries are not of a serious nature.

Ninth Annual tour of Mr. Sanford Dodge, coming Tuesday, April 11th. Louise Marshall, the Chicago favorite, will play Lady Macbeth in Sanford Dodge's production of that immortal tragedy, this season. Miss Marshall is very well fitted for this role, as her splendid stage presence, beautiful voice and superb figure make her one of the ideal heroines of Shakespeare. Do not fail to see this superb production. It will be worth ten times the cost of admission. Remember the date, April 11th, and get your seats early before they are all gone. Tickets on sale at C. W. Conhiser's.

Fred Schneiderei gave us a pleasant call Tuesday.

A phone has been placed in Geo. Leininger's residence.

G. A. Heikes, of Central City, deputy M. W. A., is in the city.

Millinery opening at Cooper's store this week Friday and Saturday.

Miss Katie McGrath of Grand Island is visiting Miss Rose Mullick, this week.

Don't forget Mrs. Cooper's millinery opening tomorrow and Saturday.

Stewart Conger attended the big K. of P. doings at Ravenna, last week, Wednesday evening.

John Dahl of Aurora was visiting friends here over Sunday, returning home Tuesday morning.

Mrs. Edgar Draper spent last Sunday with her husband, who is running his gallery at Arcadia, temporarily.

Miss Minnie Gilbert will finish two months' of a term of school in Valley county, near Arcadia, for a Mrs. Robinson.

F. H. Ahern of Greely, Nebr., is here at present in the First National bank, gaining desired information on banking matters, preparatory to taking a position in the new bank at Greely.

It seems we were in error last week in stating the militia boys went down to St. Paul to attend a military ball, but that they went to participate in military inspection instead.

The Paige brothers of Ashton were callers at these headquarters, last Saturday, renewing their subscription to this paper and also that of F. C. Judevine at Bellwood, Nebr.

Cooper has just received his fine new line of latest styles in men's, women's and children's shoes. Don't forget to go in and see them before selecting your footwear.

District Court convened here Tuesday morning, with Judge Hostetter presiding. It is thought the session will last nearly the entire week. At present they are grinding away on the Zelinski case.

The Twentieth Century Farmer last week contained a fine picture of W. R. Mellor, as president of the State Agricultural Society, with an accompanying write-up. Loup City is in evidence in Nebraska and contains some of the most prominent men of affairs.

Uncle George Ware and good wife were up from St. Paul over Sunday, Mr. Ware closing a deal whereby he has sold his farm to Luther B. Milligan of Litchfield. They were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Will Fisher and intended going to the country to visit Mrs. Ware's daughter, also, but were called home Monday.

Mr. Chas. C. Perry, the piano tuner, of Grand Island will be in Loup City April 12th to 15th. Mr. Perry has taken special instruction in tone and action regulating, in New England Conservatory, Boston, and his work is highly recommended by the leading musicians. Leave orders or write to Miss E. Odenhahl.

There were several changes in the U. P. time table, commencing last Sunday, as follows: No. 88 leaves at 12:20 on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays, instead of 12:35. No. 37 arrives Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays, at 7:50 p. m., instead of daily at 8:20 as formerly. No. 39 arrives Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays at 5:55, instead of 5:35. Keep tab on these changes.

On April 1st, Messrs. Jake Biemond and Sam Daddow closed a lease of the Reynolds meat market and are now in full charge. Jolly Jake Biemond although not gray with years is a veteran meat carver and with his long experience is well equipped for that work. Mr. Daddow is also a worthy second to Jake, and together these gentlemen will keep that popular market up to the standard attained, and by the twinkle in Jake's eye, we should judge they intend to see S. F. and go him one better. This is one of the cleanest markets in the west, and handles only the youngest, fattest and juiciest beefs, finest cured meats, sweetest lards, and everything of the best in their line. Give these gentlemen your patronage and they will give you the best of satisfaction, or we miss our guess.

S. F. Reynolds is now a gentleman of leisure, at least on April 1st he leased his meat shop to Jake Biemond and Sam Daddow for one year. Mr. Reynolds is entitled to a rest after his years of incessant labor to give the people an up-to-date and satisfactory market, and we believe one and all will agree with us in the fact that he has succeeded in the best possible manner, and meat eaters, while they congratulate him on earning a needed rest, will not be sorry when he again goes to carving the most desired and necessary of all food stuffs. We trust he may not conclude to go into the newspaper business, as if he should turn his attention to our line and succeed as well as he has in his old line of business, he would make us get a more energetic hustle on us than is conducive to our natural good health. But, laying all jokes aside, S. F. has proven a good man in his business and we hope he may enjoy himself in the meantime to the utmost.
