Miss Katie McGrath returned to her home at Grand Island last Saturday. Miss Rose Mnlck accompanied her.

W. H. Sestek of Ashton and Lewis Strankman of Grand Junction, Colo., are among those who remembered us last week.

Willie Odendahl, who has been attending commercial college at Des Moines for a number of months, returned home Tuesday evening.

Chris. Johansen is another of our citizens who propose building a residence in Loup City this season. He will build on his lots in the north part of town.

The Imperial Saxophone Quintette will be here Friday evening, April 14, instead of the 8th, as previously announced. Don't forget the postponement to the later date.

Next Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock, Pastor Wold will preach at the Baptist church in the Scandinavian language, to the Swedes and Danes in and around Loup City. All are cordially invited.

Bro. Brown is indignant because several empty beer bottles were strewn in front of his office one night not long since. And empty! We would not blame any editor for kicking at that.

Our good friend, A. J. Gray, who tickles the soil on a No. 1 farm south of town, was a pleasant caller last Saturday. He has been a reader of THE NORTHWESTERN for some fourteen years.

Earl Thompson returned from Omaha last Saturday, where he had been for medical treatment for his throat trouble, and we are pleased that he has assurances from the doctor of an early recovery.

Drs. Davis & Farnsworth of Grand Island, Neb., are prepared to treat all forms of chronic diseases, such as Rheumatism, Stomach disorders, Tumors, Cancers, Paralysis, Kidney diseases, etc. The doctors use, besides medicine and surgery, the x-ray, hot air baths, electricity and massage.

Last week twenty-two merchants of the Loup Valley met at Sargent, Neb., for the purpose of forming a Loup Valley Merchants and Business Men's Association. The Loup City merchants were represented by C. W. Conhiser, B. M. Gasteyer and O. F. Peterson, who report a very satisfactory meeting.

Herman Fiebig gave us a pleasant call last Saturday. Mr. Fiebig is an old veteran of the civil war and belonged to the 32nd Indiana, the only regiment from that state which was entirely made up of German-American citizens, commanded by German officers, and with all orders, commands and language entirely German. They did excellent service for Uncle Sam, and as every word spoken and command given was in German, they were able to non-plus the Johnny Reels in various ways.

New Milling and Lighting Co.

E. G. Barnum, vice president of the Bank of Boyd county, at Butte, Neb., was in our city last week and paid off all the indebtedness against the mill property, and he with other capitalists at Butte will incorporate what is known as the Loup City Milling and Lighting Co., and have secured the services of D. C. Grow of this city to take the management of the milling department. The mill will be put in operation just as soon as it can be done. Mr. Barnum states that as soon as the mill is in good running order, the matter of electric lights will receive proper attention. Workmen are now engaged in repairing the mill and race, wheat has been ordered and a first class miller engaged. The fact that the mill litigation has been settled, the matter amicably adjusted, a reliable company to incorporate, a first class mill to be operated, and one that will be a pride and great enterprise for Loup City, is due in no small measure to the efforts of Lawyer R. P. Starr of this city, who represented the parties having the largest interests involved, and who has used his good offices toward the easiest settlement of the litigation and the up-building of this important milling interest for Loup City and the surrounding country.

Mr. Clarence Totten of Cozad, was visiting his wife's parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. O. Slayter, over last Sunday.

Jake Biemond this week adds his name to our list of readers. Slowly, it may be, not the less surely, all the good people are becoming readers of this news emporium.

Miss Mary Gibson, who went to Grand Island last Thursday to have her eyes treated, writes home that she is improving rapidly. She will remain a couple of weeks longer.

Mrs. Latke, of Lexington, Grand Chief of Honor of the D. of H. in Nebraska, visited Friendship Lodge No. 9 last Saturday evening, when the following named persons were initiated: Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Conger, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Chase, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Truelsen, Miss Anna Younglund, Mrs. Ellen Chase, Mrs. A. M. Bennet, Mrs. Fred Bock, W. T. Gibson, W. S. Waite and E. A. Smith.

H. D. Miller and ex-State Representative Louis Smithberger of Stanton county last week purchased eight quarter sections of land in this county from Gunnerson & Zimmerman. These are two of the leading men of their county, the former son of the president of the leading bank at Stanton, and Mr. Smithberger, one of her leading public men and financiers, and their investing in Sherman county land is in itself a good advertisement for our county. Sherman county offers the best inducement for investors of any county in the state.

Our people were highly pleased over the production of "Macbeth" here on Tuesday evening, by Sanford Dodge and his excellent company. Considering the smallness of the stage and inferior accommodations for the production of a play of such magnitude as "Macbeth," the company far exceeded the most sanguine expectations. Sanford Dodge, who is always good, had splendid support from his company, especially Miss Marshall in the role of Lady Macbeth, who entirely captivated our lovers of Shakespeare by her superb interpretation of that difficult role, and Herbert de Guerre as "Macduff," who received most favorable comment from those who attended.

We understand Dr. and A. E. Chase were in Omaha last week and purchased the necessary apparatus and material for putting in their proposed acetylene gas plant. They will erect a cement block house south of the drug store for their generating and storage tanks. An expert has been engaged to put in the plant which will be done as soon as possible. They claim over three hundred lights have already been contracted for. Loup City will also soon have an electric lighting plant put in by the new milling company organized here as spoken of in another column, and that with new cement walks placed and being placed, and new business blocks and new residences by the scores, will mean that Loup City is bound to become one of the leading towns of this great state.

Bank at Boelus Robbed.

Sheriff Williams received word Tuesday morning that the Bank of Boelus had been robbed some time the night previous, the safe being blown to pieces, the building wrecked and some $2,300 in cash taken. The robbers stole a hand car, went some four miles out on Pleasanton branch, ditched the car and from that point all trace of them was lost. It is supposed they got to the B. & M. and caught a train, and the probabilities are that they will never be apprehended. Only one person heard anything unusual that night and he was sleeping in a building adjoining the bank. He was awakened by the sound of the explosion, but thinking it the sound of a gun, he rolled over and went to sleep without making any investigation. It is claimed there is absolutely no clue to the robbers.

Ed. Taylor was in Omaha Friday.

Dr. Long was called into the country, Sunday last, to consult with Dr. Bartoo of Arcadia about the child of Hans Johnson, which is seriously ill with pneumonia.

Dr. Main has the foundation started for his new home, east of J. S. Pedler's old residence property. The house will be two stories of eight rooms, with an L attachment.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the M. E. church will hold their annual Easter fair at Society Hall, Friday, April 21st and will serve their famous chicken pie supper in the evening.

Will de la Motte and Richard Bausch of Hazard were in Loup City last Saturday and purchased a fine Shorthorn bull of Truelsen & Johansen to take home with them. We acknowledge a pleasant call from the gentlemen.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. O'Bryan went to Omaha last Friday, Mr. O'Bryan returning Saturday, but Mrs. O'Bryan remained till Tuesday. Miss Gladys joined them at Columbus and accompanied them to Omaha.

Last Friday evening about sixty young people gave L. Binks Hale a genuine surprise party. Various games were played and an excellent lunch was served by the hostess. A most enjoyable time was had by all.

Baptismal service was observed at the Baptist church last Sunday evening. Miss Rosa Rowe and Lois McCombs were baptised and taken into the fellowship of the church. The pastor spoke to a packed house and a very good spirit pervaded the whole service.

Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Wold entertained their Sunday school classes last Friday evening. There was a house full of youngsters and they all seemed to have a royal good time. Mrs. Wold instituted a "peanut hunt" for them, which they all enjoyed hugely. Then followed games of various kinds, after which lunch was served. The last thing on the program was a talk by Mr. Wold on "Acres of Diamonds." Then the young people departed for their homes, and left behind them hearts that had been made happier by their presence. Let us have more of this sort of thing.

Last week we made a typographical error in the adv. of B. M. Gasteyer, for which we solemnly resolved to offer humble apologies in this issue. But about 4 o'clock on Sunday afternoon our good intentions were all spoiled by Mrs. Gasteyer, who called us up by phone and said: "Hello, Mr. Burleigh, I just thought I'd phone over and tell you that our last week's advertisement has been productive of good results. I now have all the 'leete peoples' I can manage. Bring Mrs. Burleigh with you and investigate." We accepted the invitation, and on our arrival at Mrs. Gasteyer's home we found a well-fledged party in progress, it being the occasion of little Miss Retta's ninth birthday, and such a troop of happy bright-eyed, laughing little darlings, to the number of nearly thirty, were present, as one seldom sees. And the way they were enjoying themselves, made even the staid, dignified old newspaper man wish himself young again, and even tempted to accept the numerous invitations to join them in their joyous games. Those present were: Florence and Mabel Depew, Lucille and Lizzie Erazim, Fay Galloway, Blanche Draper, Flossie and Fay Hiser, Marie Cooper, Orpha Outhouse, Bessie Owens, Blanche Fisher, Helma Jung, Marie Ohlsen, Ethel Smith, Orena Ohlsen, Eunice Chase, Lillie and Edith Brown, Flossie Hauck, Mamie Adamson, Mildred Culley, Roscoe and Katherine Owens and Lucille and Eugenia Patton.
