Republican County Convention.

LOUP CITY, Neb., July 17, 1905.
The Republican electors of Sherman county, Nebraska, are hereby requested to send delegates from their respective townships to meet in convention at Loup City, Nebraska, Monday, Aug. 28th, 1905, at 11 o'clock a. m. for the purpose of electing delegates to the Republican State convention for the year 1905, to elect a county central committee and the chairman thereof, and to place in nomination a candidate for county treasurer, county clerk, sheriff, judge, Superintendent, surveyor and coroner. Also to transact such other business as may properly come before said convention.
The several townships are entitled to representation as follows: the apportionment being based upon the vote cast at the last general election for President Roosevelt, giving each township one delegate for every ten votes or major fraction thereof and one delegate at large:
Oak Creek..... 3 Logan..... 6
Washington..... 7 Elm..... 4
Webster..... 6 Loup City..... 23
Ashton..... 8 Rockyville..... 6
Clay..... 6 Harrison..... 10
Hazard..... 6
Bristol..... 3
Total..... 84

It is recommended that no proxies be allowed, and that the delegates present from each of the respective townships be authorized to cast the full vote of their delegation and that the primaries be held at the usual voting place in each township on Saturday, August 30th, 1905.
By order of the Republican Central Committee,
W. R. MELLOR, Chairman.
R. P. STARR, Secretary.

Republican county convention next Monday. Let there be full delegations from every township.

And now we know John Wall is a candidate for governor, if we never knew it before. The Champion, his home paper, speaks of him as "Farmer Wall."

A. Sutton is a candidate for sheriff of Valley county, and it looks as if Mr. Sutton had a cinch on the Republican nomination, which would land him safely in the office.

Our populist friends held their county convention on Tuesday of this week, and placed the following ticket in the field: Clerk, C. F. Bouschusen; treasurer, R. M. Hiddleston; judge, J. A. Angier; superintendent, J. F. Nicolson; sheriff, John Thrallkill; surveyor, E. B. Corning, and coroner, Dr. J. W. Jones. The following were elected as delegates to the pop state convention: H. G. Patton, S. S. Polski, I. H. Winchell, L. P. Squires, E. B. Hickman, Edward Snyder, C. H. Winteer and E. A. Brown. To the judicial convention will go E. H. Kittell, H. G. Patton, John Minshull, John Boecking, Albert Dickinson, H. M. Mathew, Edward Snyder and F. Badura. H. M. Mathew was selected as state committeeman. T. S. Nightingale was chairman and S. S. Polski secretary of the convention. We understand resolutions tearing the Republican party into shreds were adopted. We have not the time nor space to comment on the convention's work this week, but will pay our respects later.

After this week, the political pot, which has been simmering for some time, will rapidly get to the boiling point. On Tuesday of this week the populists met in their county convention and as will be seen in another column, placed candidates in nomination for the various offices within the gift of the voters of Sherman county. The democrats, so far, have not called a county convention, and we doubt they will, preferring to act as a free lance, voting independently and as they choose for the nominees placed before the people by the other parties. The Republicans will hold their county convention next Monday and place a list of winners in the field for the various county offices. The Republican party is now in possession of a fair majority in Sherman county, and with good nominations and full party vote, cannot fail to win every office named. However, party lines sit lightly upon the average voter, and it behooves the Republicans of Sherman county to make the choicest selections possible and to avoid the least friction. They should meet in convention without discord and select nominees for the various places of trust upon whom all may heartily unite. No man should be nominated upon whom any feasible fight may be made, but rather those upon whom all can unite in hearty support. Among the list of those already spoken of for the various offices, are strong, good men, who can and will make a successful fight. Let these be chosen. Let the good of the party and success be the watchword and we can win hands down.

Don't Die Now.

While rooting around in the new session laws one day this week, Judge Howard Thompson ran across a law passed by the late lamented legislature, providing for a more thorough system of gathering statistics in the state concerning births and deaths and other happenings in which the health departments are interested. Under the terms of the law the state board of health is authorized to appoint a local statistician in each incorporated town and sub-statisticians for unincorporated communities. These officials are expected to keep track of all deaths and births and they are also required to issue a burial certificate to the undertaker in the case of every death. No officer have yet been appointed in this county, at least nobody appears to know if they have. So if you are planning on dying in the near future you had better put it off until the state board makes these appointments. Your demise might be illegal.—Central City Nonpareil.

Special Meeting County Board

LOUP CITY, Neb., Aug. 21, 1905.
County Board of Supervisors met in special session as per call of county clerk, for the purpose of taking what action seemed necessary as to the written request of J. S. Pedler, that he be authorized to accept service of the motion of W. R. Mellor in the supreme court, asking for a writ of peremptory mandamus to compel the county board to reconsider their action of June 14th, 1905, and to reinstate the levies as made in 1904, upon the real estate in Oak Creek, Ashton, Bristol and Scott townships: Present D. C. Grow, chairman, W. O. Brown, Geo. Brammer, R. M. Hiddleston, Henning Clawson, Ferdinand Schroll and Harve Chapman, supervisors, J. S. Pedler county attorney, and Geo. H. Gibson clerk, and after due and prolonged consideration of the matter it was, by motion, ordered that the names of the supervisors that had been placed upon said request be cancelled and the paper authorizing Mr. Pedler to accept said service be returned to J. S. Pedler.
A petition was then filed before said board, signed by ten freeholders requesting the county board to employ H. M. Mathew as associate counsel with the county attorney, and by motion the same was complied with and Mr. Mathew was employed. Fees fixed not to exceed $100.00.
Geo. H. Gibson, Clerk.

A ball game the front end of the week, between Loup City and Schupp Siding, on the grounds of the latter, resulted in a score of 27 to 16 in favor of the former.
