A great deal of talk has been indulged in of late in regard to an extra session of the Nebraska legislature. At this writing, Gov. Mickey seems of the opinion that he will not call an extra session. What's the use?

If the late Nebraska legislature would not do anything in the past, they would undoubtedly duplicate their action in case an extra session were called, so an extra session of the late lamented would be only extra cost without a fair equivalent. Don't call it, Bro. Mickey. What's the use?

By direction of the president, J. C. Pettijohn, register of the general land office at Valentine, Nebr., has been summarily dismissed on the charge of participating in questionable land deals. Also the receiver of the land office at that place, Albert L. Towle, has been dismissed. Well, well; to think of Jim Pettijohn and the old major getting in the grafter's column! Who next?

From the amount of graft being disclosed by official investigation of late, one not posted would be of the opinion that graft, stealings and general cussedness had entrenched itself firmly in governmental and public holdings, but not so. It is only of late that the public has become aroused over the matter and action taken. The matter is of long years' standing, but action only recently taken. Moral—Graft must go.

We understand that Chancellor Andrews of the State University has been offered a flattering position at the head of an Illinois educational institution. We would advise the regents of the Nebraska State University to make haste to accept any such possible resignation from the present chancellor, as any man who will become an apologist for Standard Oil Rockefeller is an unfit man for the head of the great Nebraska State University. Let him go; there are others.

Our subscribers at a distance will please take notice that on and after Jan. 1, next, subscriptions on our single list will have to be paid for in advance at the rate of $1.25 per year, or guaranteed, or their names will be stricken from the list. We have to settle our paper bill every thirty days with spot cash, and cannot carry scores of names on our books year after year at the subscribers' accommodation, per hap never to be paid for. Please bear this in mind and send us in the necessary for future visits of THE NORTHWESTERN, if you wish the paper, and if we do not receive remittance, don't think it strange if you do not receive the paper after Jan. 1st, next.

COUNTY LETTERS

Cleora Notes.
Mrs. Walt Fletcher, who has been quite sick, is better at present.
Mrs. R. Warrick's sister, Mrs. F. E. Buesing, of Denison, Iowa, has been visiting in this vicinity.
Don't forget the entertainment and basket social at the school house in the Dist. No. 35, Friday evening, Dec. 15th. Bring your basket and enjoy the fun.

Dry Creek Clippings.
Geo. Holmes' $1000 farm house is nearly completed.
Holmes Bros shelled corn Saturday for Lawrence Scott.
The dance at Mr. Fender's last Saturday evening was well attended.
S. W. Salyards has been suffering with a lame back, for the past ten days.
Corn husking has been stopped in this vicinity on account of the stormy weather.
School commenced last Monday in Dist. No. 48 after a five weeks' vacation for corn husking.
Mr. Joe Meyer, a gentleman living alone, was found Thanksgiving day in his cattle shed in a semi-conscious condition. Dr. Penn of Ravenna was summoned and pronounced his injuries not serious. Joe says he was trying to ride a broncho without saddle or bridle.

Ashton News.
Ashton will soon have another meat market.
Corn husking will soon be a thing of the past.
I. M. Polski has been sick for the past few days.
Little John Smith is sick with pneumonia.
Jas. Bartunek came up from St. Paul on busin's Monday.
V. Beza has accepted a position as assistant telegraph operator.
Mrs. Wanek returned Tuesday from a visit with her sister in the east.
Mrs. Seabeck, Sr., who has been sick for the past six weeks, is some better.
Mr and Mrs. C. F. Beushausen gave a farewell party last Wednesday evening.
Cards are out announcing the marriage of Miss Sofia Kneffel and Geo. Glensmen.
Joe Majewski is building a new residence for himself. All the carpenters will soon be moved to town.
R. A. Wilson bought a new corn sheller last week. He intends to make a few dollars during the cold winter months.
Three weddings in three days: Anna Smulinski and John Peters; Mary Peters and St. Pilkowski, and Helen Goreski and M. Hobeinski.
Last Saturday evening a surprise party was given Clyde Wilson, but owing to the muddy roads the crowd did not all turn out but nevertheless they all report a good time.

O. E. Nehler, successor to C. F. Beushausen is looking up a building location in Ashton. He has recently rented his farm to M. M. Grudzinski and will operate E. G. Taylor's elevator here.

Mr. Heller, a book agent, was in Ashton the first of last week, leaving on the Monday noon train. On the eve of the same day, D. Malchewski, of Milwaukee, Wis., came to Ashton and inquired for Mr. Heller. It seems that Mr. Heller had been private secretary for a Building and Loan Association in Milwaukee and had embezzled some $9,000 of the firm.
