Draper Bros. manufacture all their own harness and guarantee same to give satisfaction. The Keystone Lumber Co. sells Carbolinum, which is a world beater to preserve wood and to exterminate chicken lice. J. P. Leininger went to Omaha, Tuesday, to attend the lumbermen's convention. He was accompanied by Mrs. Leininger. The Mystic Legion basket social that was to have taken place last Monday evening, has been postponed until Monday, Feb. 19. We understand Miss Jennie Sutton of Ord will return to Loup City about the 15th of this month, her mother being much better. Misses Claussen and Leininger of Arcadia were visiting the Misses Leininger in this city last week, returning home Saturday. Rudolph Johns informs us that last week he sold to horse buyers the finest horse, with the best price attached, that has ever gone from the county. M. C. Muller, W. G. Odendahl, Art Elmer, George Truelsen and C. W. Coulisier left Tuesday morning for a trip to the Georgia gold fields. C. J. Johnson, wife and daughter, of Grand Island, arrived here Tuesday evening to attend the funeral of Mrs. Johnson's father, Mr. John Larson. K. A. Smith, living near Ashton, who is at the St. Joseph hospital at Omaha, has been successfully operated upon for a serious trouble and expects to return home at an early day. We received a pleasant call last Saturday from John Kontor of Ashton township. John is one of our most enterprising young Polish farmers, but has one serious fault—he is a confirmed bachelor. Persons interting with, tearing or taking down quarantine flags should remember there is a misdemeanor in this with a fine attached. A gentle hint in regard to the matter should be sufficient to stop any such work. We received a pleasant call Tuesday from our good friend, Jake Benschoter. Jake says it is a mistake that he is going to leave Sherman county. True, he did a few days ago go up into Custer county to look over some land, but will stay right here in Sherman. Last week something got wrong with the electric generator at the central and Mr. K. C. Beaver, an expert from St. Paul, was called to attend to the refractory piece of mechanism, and at present everything is again lovely at the telephone central office. Among the good readers of THE NORTHWESTERN who have remembered us the past week are W. J. Fisher, W. H. Bradshaw, H. C. Rawding, D. C. Grow, Andrew Jonassen, Frank Brewer for his father, E. Brewer, at Salt Lake City, Henry Capellan, Jake Benschoter, Walter E. Smith. Little Mary, Czarnek who was taken to the hospital at Lincoln to be operated on for hair-clip and cleft palate, contracted scarlet fever there, from which she died a few days since and was taken to Columbus for burial. We also understand the little girl's mother is very ill at Columbus. D. Webster Davis, the "Sky Pilot" will give one of his enjoyable readings and impersonations in the Lutheran church, Monday, Feb. 11. Mr. Davis was here about a month ago and those who heard him at that time were unanimous in the verdict that he is a master in his line. He will preach for the Presbyterians next Sunday morning at 10.30. Mrs. A. M. Bennet entertained the C. L. C. club on Monday evening of this week, in honor of her sister, Miss Ruby Chase. The evening was passed with games and music, followed by an elegant lunch, when after presenting the guest of honor with a handsome book all departed for their homes well pleased with the evening's entertainment. Those present were: Misses Sadie Swanson, Lela Chase, Mary Seybold, To-y Erasm, Edna Minshall, Jessie and Cora Leininger, and Messrs. Ed Janulewicz, Walter Wallace, Eugene Henry, Robt. Mathew and John Slayter.

Let C. E. Mellor fix your pump. A brother of Dug Bowen is here visiting him. See Will Zimmerman for real estate and insurance, second door east of St. Elmo hotel. I have a few tons of choice upland hay for sale at $4 per ton delivered. Phone Y 17. D. M. GEE. Mrs. J. F. Bock and daughter of Logan township left for Crete last Saturday for a short visit with Mrs. Bock's good mother. Fred Jones expects to return to Grand Junction, Colo., this week in time to reach home Sunday. Fred will visit at Grand Island a day enroute. Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Prettypap of Butte, this state, arrived here last Saturday on a visit to the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jonas Parrshall. On last Sunday Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Marcy entertained at dinner, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Tracy, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Hawk, and Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Burleigh. Quite a number of Loup City people have gone down to southwest Nebraska the past few days to look over the land in that section handled by Zimmerman & Brewer. In the evening we will celebrate Lincoln's birthday by a special sermon on Lincoln with patriotic music. You are earnestly invited to attend these services. W. I. COWEL, Pastor. Next Sabbath morning Pastor Wold will speak on the subject of "Difficulties, Their Use and Abuse." Evening sermon on some evangelical theme. Come and you will be helped. There will be a recognition service for Sunday School teachers at the Methodist church next Sunday morning, followed by an address to the parents and teachers by the pastor. Geo. Truelsen returned last Saturday evening from a few days' absence looking over the country in southwest Nebraska, which Will Zimmerman and Frank Brewer have in hand and likes the looks of the country immensely. Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Outhouse went to Omaha Monday, where Mr. Outhouse who is one of the official directors of the lumbermen's association, will be in attendance at the convention there. Walter Smith and family leave this noon on their Pacific Coast trip of several months. They go direct to Los Angeles and vicinity, where they have numerous friends and relatives, and later will go north into Oregon, Washington and Idaho. We wish them a safe, happy and prosperous journey and stay in the coast states, and while they may conclude to find a home out there somewhere, we trust they may again return to old Sherman to remain. Beef by the quarter 4 1-2c per pound at Biemond & Daddow's. The Loup City school board last week engaged another teacher to assist in taking some of the load off the shoulders of our overworked teachers. The name of the new teacher is Miss Aimee Whitman, daughter of our good friend, G. W. Whitman of Washington township and is a lady of good educational advantages, and has three sisters, each and all of whom are teachers of acknowledged ability. Miss Aimee Whitman has taught one year as principal of the Ord schools, if we have been informed correctly; has had charge of the Rockville schools in the past; only lacks one year of graduating from the State University, and will no doubt prove a valuable addition to the teaching force of our city schools. A good 400-acre farm, well improved, for sale by John W. Long, $25 per acre. Died, at the home of his son, Peter Larson, in Washington township, Monday, Feb. 5th, 1906, at 2 p. m., Mr. John Larson, aged 80 years and 6 months to a day. Such is the sad news sent us over the phone Monday evening. The funeral was to occur from the residence of Mr. Peter Larson on Wednesday (yesterday) at 11 a. m. Father Larson was an old resident of Sherman county and well and favorably known. He leaves three children to mourn his loss—Peter and Charles Larson, both living in Washington township, and one daughter, Mrs. Charles Johnson, living at Grand Island. The immediate cause of Father Larson's death was a severe cold which developed into pneumonia. THE NORTHWESTERN, with the many friends over Sherman county, deeply sympathize with the bereaved ones in their irreparable loss. Our people and Frank Hiser, U. P. agent at this place, in particular, were treated to a surprise party, Monday noon of this week, when an official of the Union Pacific arrived and relieved Mr. Hiser from his duties as station agent at this place, giving Mr. Hiser no explanation whatever, merely checking him out and placing a new man in charge. Mr. Hiser is in possession of no reason assigned for the change and is as much in the dark as the patrons of road at this place. So far as we can learn and judge, Mr. Hiser has been one of the hardest and most conscientious workers any road can wish, and the patrons of the road feel that he has been unfairly dealt with and to that end a paper is in circulation and being signed by all to whom present-day asking the road to reinstate him, or at least to give him a fair hearing.

Frank Dennis is here from St. Paul. Tom Lay of Rockville, visited friends in the city Monday. Loans on Real Estate, call on John W. Long. Our prices are as low as the lowest. Siepmann & Oltmann. Draper Bros. are headquarters for Hardware and Harness. Mrs. F. A. Pinckney returned from her visit to York last Saturday. The State Bank of Arcadia moved into its new building this week. Mr. John Barr of Lincoln is visiting his daughter, Mrs. H. B. Musser. Siepmann & Oltmann are in business to stay and will do what they say. P. O. Reed goes to Lincoln next Tuesday to attend the hardware convention. Mackerel, white fish, bloaters, herring and fresh fish at Siepmann & Oltmann's. New farm phones have been placed with Frank Topolski and Stanley Lewandowski. Homemade head-cheese 8c per pound, minced ham, 10c per pound at Siepmann & Oltmann's. The Model restaurant is moving into their new quarters in the old First National bank building. On Tuesday, Gus Oltmann sold his dray to Ed Oltmann, who will continue the business with Geo. Oltmann in charge. Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Forsell came up from Central City last Friday to attend the wedding of Mrs. Forsell's father, Mr. Frank Orlowski. Word from Miss Maude Gilbert at Kansas City announces the good news that her mother is convalescing from her recent illness and Miss Maude expects to return to Loup City in a week or two. Stewart Conger informs us that his father, W. H. Conger, at Edmouton, Canada, is recovering from a very severe illness, but that the good father kept his illness from his sons here till he was on the mend. Smoked. Meats smoked for anybody at Siepmann & Oltmann's. Union Pacific Low Rates. One-way Coastwise Excursion, special rates, tickets on sale Feb. 15 to April 7, 1906. F. H. HISER, Agent. Clear Creek Chat. Mrs. A. J. Wilson is here from the sand hills. Albert Mead is out west looking for a location. John Heapy is the proud possessor of a baby girl. Ned Harper has leased his farm to Fred Davenport. The U. B. church is holding series of meetings in Dist. No. 25, Rev. Croft conducting them. Mrs. Spahr has returned from Webster county, where she went to attend the funeral of her father. Ashton News. John Kettle came down from Broken Bow on a visit. Tom Kosmicki and Tresa Zochsia are to be united soon. John Rewolinski is building a large hotel on main street. A. Anderstrom went to Omaha to attend a convention, Monday. Miss Lucy Kodak of St. Paul came up Wednesday to visit friends and take in the dance. J. H. Sturdevant received the sad news of the death of his father at Franklin this state, Friday. Theo. Ojendyk was badly bruised Saturday afternoon by a large pile of lumber falling on him, but will be out again soon. Mr. Jazunka, who has been visiting friends and relatives here since his marriage, returned to South Omaha Saturday. Mrs. Susan Jolokowki and Frank Oltowski were married at Papillon on Tuesday in the presence of relatives and friends. Miss Ella Hansen of Dietz, Wyo., was entertained at a dance which was a grand success. Music was furnished by Miss Alma Ojendyk and Prof. Graf. Mrs. C. W. Kettle and a schoolmarm went to Grand Island Saturday morning, intending to come back the same evening, but missed the train at St. Paul and had to drive over. POSTOFFICE ROBBERY, NIT! Saturday night about 11 o'clock Abel Sac was walking around in his blacksmith shop with a lantern and would occasionally pass a window which would throw the light on the postoffice window. W. C. Dunker, the assistant postmaster, had had company and as they left his house he stepped out on the porch to bid them good-night when he saw light on the postoffice window and the door had been blown open by the wind. The first thing he did was to grab his gun and run, but he lost his courage before reaching the postoffice, which was now dark, but the open door told him that the burglars were in there yet, so he goes to the saloon and gets John Goc and Theo. Sekutera to help capture them. Dunker began to shoot from the back door of the saloon but the other two being braver walked out in front of the postoffice and fired about 35 shots into the window and then hid behind the shop. In a moment, Chas. Jamrog came along and they commanded him to light the crowd up his hands. He said, "Throw up your own hands," and pulled his gun which was empty but to his surprise two shots came from behind the blacksmith shop, and Chas. crawled away for a short distance and then broke into a run that wasn't slow. Goc and Sekutera went back to the saloon and told Dunker they had seen the burglar and shot at him twice, but he had got away. In a few minutes Chas. Jamrog came in with his gun loaded and in working condition and said "Come on boys, those burglars are behind Sac's shop, they shot at me twice, but my gun would not work. I had dead aim on them though." Next morning the postoffice was all there but three windows which had been used for a target. Everyone in town was called out by the shooting, which was all over when the crowd arrived, but just in time for refreshments on W. C.
