Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Condon of Denver, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Robbins over last Sunday, while on their way to Taylor, in Loup county, on a visit to Mrs. Condon's relatives. Mrs. Condon and Mrs. Robbins are cousins. Mr. Condon is foreman of a large upholstering firm at Denver. Last Saturday was the fiftieth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. B. T. Snyder, and on that evening they were surprised by the invasion of their home by a number of their close friends, who took possession, enjoyed themselves immensely and left many remembrances of the occasion, both useful and expensive, and wishing many more and happy years for the aged couple. Those present were, so far as we could learn: Messrs and Mesdames Converse, Criss, Lee, Reynolds, Gibson, Chase, Dubry, Kearns, Albert Snyder and Clark Altman (the latter two with their families from out of town); Mesdames W. S. and J. W. Waite, Angier, Bowman, Burns, Wall, Mead, Bechtold and Mr. M. H. Mead.

The youngest son of Bert Chase has been quite ill with lung fever the past few days, but is much better at present. I still have a few pair of skates, but do not care to sell them to you this winter any more as it is too slippery to use them. P. O. REED. C. C. Cooper went to Omaha on business Wednesday morning. He will visit Fort Dodge and Humbolt, Iowa, before return. My stock of guns, shells, cartridges, hunting coats, hats, leggings and duck calls is now complete. Come and see me for bargains. P. O. REED. A letter from Wilber Waite says that he and Carsten Truelsen arrived at their destination in old Mexico on the 3d instant, all safe, sound and happy, and enjoying themselves to the fullest extent. Aug. Jaeschke last week sold five and one-half acres of the Jaeschke addition to Ashton, and then turned round and bought six lots of West McCombs, adjoining the Catholic church in this city. The baby girl born last week to Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Mathews, as reported in THE NORTHWESTERN, died the following Friday, and was taken to Aurora for burial the following day. The bereaved parents have the deep sympathy of their large circle of friends. Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Taylor entertained a few friends at a 6:30 dinner Friday evening, in honor of Mrs. Eva Kendall of St. Paul, as follows: Messrs. and Mesdames W. Vervain, W. Marcy, F. M. Henry, C. F. Beushausen, C. C. Cooper, Mesdames Waite, W. L. Hawk, Miss Edith Smith and Mr. Lawrence Smith. Messrs. B. J. Flory and W. H. Bradshaw returned last Thursday evening from a ten days' trip to Nevada, Mo., where they went to look over the country. Mr. Flory, while there secured a lease of a fine eighty, some few miles out from Nevada, which has a fine orchard thereon, and under excellent cultivation, and will move within a week or so. Mr. Bradshaw did not secure any holdings there and did not know that he would. We would have been pleased to have kept both gentlemen and their worthy families as residents of Sherman county, but in any event wish them best of success wherever they may conclude to go. By a copy of the Winnipeg Daily Telegram, we see the Canadians are honoring our former townsman, ex-Senator W. H. Conger, by choosing him as one of the principal speakers at a big meeting of a manufacturing and industrial league held in that city. The Telegram has this to say in regard to Mr. Conger: "Ex-Senator W. H. Conger, one of the principal speakers at the banquet, is now in the city and is a guest at the Empire hotel. This gentleman is one of the many bright and progressive men from across the line who have lately settled in the Canadian west and have become citizens of the Dominion. He has resided in Edmonton during the last four years, prior to which time he was a member of the state senate of Nebraska, not of Wisconsin as has been erroneously stated."

The meeting called for last Saturday, looking to the building of a farmers' elevator in Loup City, was held at the court house and very well attended. The meeting was called to order and Charley Snyder made chairman. Mr. D. Phillips of Pleasanton, who was called here to give the farmers information along the proposed lines, gave an interesting and instructing talk. At the close of his remarks, several farmers, notably James McBeth, lately of Hamilton county, and a Mr. Boor, formerly of Albion, this state, where farmers' elevators are in operation, gave added information on the subject. A committee, composed of Chairman Snyder, Jas. McBeth, W. O. Brown, W. H. Hughes, Chris Zwink, a Mr. Mason of Oak Creek, John Fisher and John Hile, were then selected to look over the by-laws and constitutions of various organizations with a view of recommending a preferable constitution and by-laws and the kind of an organization our farmers might want, and report same to the next meeting, which was dated for Saturday, March 3rd, at the same place. A speaker to be secured for that time to give full information on the subject of farmers' elevators. Although not having been present at the meeting but a few minutes, we were fully persuaded of the earnestness and zeal of our farmer friends and of their full determination to perfect an organization and to give to Loup City a well equipped farmers' elevator at the earliest opportunity. Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Cooper on Tuesday evening of this week, in honor of Mrs. Eva Kendall of St. Paul, entertained a number of their friends at an elegantly appointed 6:30 o'clock dinner in four courses, at their comfortable home, followed by an enjoyable evening with vocal and instrumental music and progressive punch. Twenty-seven were present, a few being detained by sickness and other unavoidable causes. Mrs. G. S. Leininger and Miss Ernie Odendahl favored with choice instrumental solos, Mr. and Mrs. Leininger with a vocal duet, and Messrs. L. N. Smith and S. A. Allen with vocal solos, all enthusiastically received, and the evening closed with games of finch till the approach of the midnight hour when, after showering benedictions on the genial host and hostess, the guests departed feeling that it had been one of the pleasantest evenings of the season: Those present were: Messrs. and Mesdames A. S. Main, W. L. Marcy, R. J. Nightingale, G. S. Leininger, E. G. Taylor, H. M. Mathew, H. A. Sleeth, W. Ver Vain and J. W. Burleigh; Mesdames Viola Odendahl and Eva Kendall; Misses Ernie Odendahl Ella Long Edith Smith and Eva Moon; Messrs. S. A. Allen, L. N. Smith and C. C. Carlson.

A unique St. Valentine party was given at the home of Miss Ernestine Odendahl on the eve of Feb. 14th. Evidence of St. Valentine were many, fested by a beautiful display of hearts, the bric-a-brac and candelabra being exquisitely adorned and festooned with hearts of various sizes and colors. The evening's entertainment consisted of the game of progressive hearts, each guest having a score card in the form of a heart pinned on the left breast. The first prize, a beautiful valentine, was taken by Miss Sadie Swanson, and the booby laurels were awarded to Mr. Henry Elsner. Pretty Marie Cooper, dressed as Cupid in white profusely trimmed with gilded hearts, tapped the bell at the moving periods of the game. The climax of the evening was the luncheon, the prevailing idea showing itself in a further display of hearts in the sweets and meats, each delicacy being in the form of a heart. When the time came to depart, each guest gave many thanks to St. Valentine and their kind hostess, declaring it was an evening most joyfully spent. Those present were: Misses Aimee Whitman, Henry Young, Sadie Swanson, Tony Erazim, Elva Zimmerman, Lela Chase, Belle Mulick, Edna Minshall, Louise Zuelow, Messrs. C. C. Carlson, Walter Wallace, Newton Vance, Oscar Swanson, Willie Odendahl, Archie Zimmerman, Charles Minshall, Henry Elsner, Robt. Mathew and Dr. S. A. Allen. Mr. George Chapman and family left Tuesday for Gentry, Arkansas, their future home. Mr. Chapman, who has been a reader of THE NORTHWESTERN for 10, these many years, orders the paper to follow him to his new home. We wish for this estimable family success in their home. Two of the boys, Clifford and Fred, will, however, for the present remain in Sherman county, believing it for their best financial interests. If you want to buy or sell real estate, call on John W. Long.
