Two noted deaths in Nebraska the past few days—ex-Gov. Boyd at Omaha last Saturday, and Hon. Jack McCall at Lexington, Monday.

Reliable reports come to us that B. & M. surveyors are busy between Boelus and Cairo, and that work between those places will soon be begun.

It is said that the railroad hotel at Ravenna will not be rebuilt, and instead only a lunch counter eating house will be maintained in its place.

The Times last week brought out ex-Representative E. H. Kittell of Rockville as the coming candidate of the opposition for representative.

From the fact that reports from the Pacific Coast are to the effect that earthquake shocks are occurring daily at various points on the coast since the great upheaval on the 18th instant, timid people are insisting that it is almost like flying in the face of Providence to stay there or rebuild fortresses in that devastated country.

Attorney General Brown has sprung a new sensation the past week in having issued a temporary restraining order against the Nebraska Lumber Dealers' association, declaring said association to be a trust, etc.

Rockville Items.

Lots of rain in this vicinity. Rockville has only one saloon this year. Elmer Isaacson is suffering with the rheumatism.

Had It Been Your Baby?

Intense excitement was raised in the west part of the county last Thursday by the report that a little 3-year-old boy named Moreford, living a few miles northeast of Mason, had wandered away from home and was lost.

Claims Association Not Guilty of Charges Named in Petition

Last Wednesday, Judge Letton of the supreme court, acting upon a petition filed by Attorney General Brown, issued a temporary restraining order against the members of the Nebraska Lumber Dealers' association to prevent them from combining to prevent the sale or control prices and restrain trade or control prices and to prevent the officers from destroying any of the records of the association.

"If Mr. Brown was sincere in wanting to see that the laws of the state are not violated by this association, he had ample opportunity to do so without beginning this suit. The Secretary of the Nebraska Lumber Dealers' Association, some time ago, requested the Attorney General to investigate the Constitution and By-Laws of the Association. Also offered to show any and all of the correspondence that passed between the Secretary and its members.

"The object of this Association is and shall be to secure and disseminate to its members any and all legal and proper information which may be of interest or value to any member or members thereof in his or their business as retail lumber dealers. No rule, regulations or by-laws shall be adopted in any manner stifling competition, limiting production, restricting trade, regulating prices or pooling profits.

Fine Lecture Course.
