Announcements.

FOR COUNTY ATTORNEY.
I hereby announce myself as a candidate for the office of county attorney, subject to the approval of the Republican County Convention to be held at Loup City, Nebraska, June 25, 1906.
Dated this 25th day of June, 1906.
R. J. NIGHTINGALE.

To the Voters of Sherman County, Nebraska: I herein announce myself as a candidate for the nomination for County Attorney, subject to the will and wish of the Republican County Convention to be held June 25th, 1906.
ROBERT P. STARR.

We are credibly informed the democrats of Sherman county will soon announce the date of their coming county convention. And they propose the populist end of the opposition to republicanism shall give Dame Democracy her say on who shall be who.

It is whispered out loud that our populist friends have settled on Brer Brown, their editorial mouthpiece, to head their ticket for representative.
After sitting down on his nomination for the treasurer last fall, as they did, they should make some amending 10 cents messenger service. Any subscriber not having a county phone will be charged 15 cents toll service between here and Litchfield, and in addition to this any messenger service successful term of school in the Zimmerman district last Friday.

rents till Tuesday when she and her

Young Woman Fatally Burned.

Miss Gertrude Assendorp, daughter of Ed. Assendorp, 22 years old, living four miles northeast of Dannebrog, was fatally burned last Friday afternoon. While burning rubbish from a chicken-house, her dress caught fire and were burned entirely from her body.

Was It Suicide or Accident?

Hans Dietz received a telegram last Saturday afternoon from his brother, Carl Dietz, who lives in Stanton county, about three miles from Leigh, that their aged father was found hanging in a corn crib, dead, at Carl's just before noon of that day. Sunday's Bee gives a short account of the case, and doubt is expressed whether it is a case of suicide or accident. The family know no cause for suicide. He was aged 80 years, and formerly lived in this county, being a familiar figure on the streets of Loup City. He went to Stanton county with his son Carl about a year ago. Hans Dietz lives a few miles south of town.

The County Attorneyship.

ED. NORTHWESTERN: Inasmuch as there have been some misstatements as to what was said by Mr. Starr to me in his office in regard to the candidacy for county attorney, I have been requested to give the actual facts, which are as follows: A short time before I made a public announcement of my candidacy, I called at Mr. Starr's office on professional business. Mr. Starr somewhat angrily demanded of me whether I expected to be a candidate for the office of county attorney. I informed him that such was my expectation. He then said that I had no right to be a candidate, because the nomination had been promised to him by Mr. Pedler and Mr. Mellor. He also said that if he did not receive the nomination, there would be a split in the republican party in this county, and he named two of his particular friends who would not support me in case I received the nomination, Mr. A. L.
Zimmerman and Mr. Oliver Dubry, two gentlemen against whom I had been opposed in a professional way under employment by other persons.
I think Mr. Starr must be misstat-ing as to the attitude of Mr. Mellor and Mr. Pedler. I cannot believe that those gentlemen would assume the role of political bosses and dictate to the convention who their nominee should be, and I can hardly believe that Mr. Starr's boson friends can be such disloyal republicans as he represents them to be.

I wish emphatically to state that I will not be the candidate of any faction within the party, and if I cannot be the candidate of the whole party, I decline to be a candidate at all. It was an unfortunate thing for the republican party in this county that there was a split in the party last fall, and I will not be the instrument to perpetuate division in the ranks.
If there is to be any hard feeling between Mr. Starr's friends and mine, let the convention fix upon some third man upon whom all the party can harmonize. I confess that I did not regard Mr. Starr's attitude toward my candidacy as very becoming on his part. A man who had been a lawyer for only a few years, and who had not been diligently practicing his profession during those few years, had the right to challenge one who had been working hard at his profession for a quarter of a century. And a man who had lived in the county for only a few years, and who has not even a permanent home in the county could not with a good grace challenge one who has made his home here for more than 24 years. Mr.
Starr already holds the office of village attorney, and most men are content to hold one office.

I have never been a candidate for any county office during the 24 years I have resided in this county. Mr.
Starr has been a standing candidate for some office every year he has been in the county, and has actually received a nomination from the republican party for one office. I leave my fellow citizens to judge how modest his claims are.

I very much regret that Mr. Starr has seen fit to assume an attitude of personal hostility towards my candidacy. So far as I am concerned, my competition for the nomination will be conducted in a friendly spirit and in an open and straightforward way.
I am not a professional politician, nor versed in the art of pulling the wires. I believe in an open field and no favors. The people of this county have known my record for nearly a quarter of a century, and it would be useless for me to make any claims to which I am not entitled. If I have not deserved well at the hands of the people, they will have the right to turn me down. Respectfully submitted,
R. J. NIGHTINGALE.
