CONGRESS IS ROOSEVELTIAN

Sheldon Winner Nebraska Republican by 15,000

Legislature 88 Republican on Joint Ballot

Nebraska All Right

So far as county returns go, the Northwest does not feel especially elated, nor is the record of the same calculated to arouse enthusiasm from a republican standpoint, as will be seen by the vote given below. That Sherman is naturally a fusion county, there exists little doubt in our mind, but that it will remain a fusion county we believe next year's election will demonstrate to the contrary. But wait and see.

The writer is not provided with the gift of second sight nor with any miraculous powers, hence can not give the reasons for the vast difference in the votes recorded, nor will we undertake to try. Be it said that in regard to the county attorneyship, Mr. Starr had to bear unnumbered burdens not by right his own, and when we consider the work against him and the elements combined for his defeat, it is little wonder that his vote is as represented. But Robert P. Starr is a republican and will remain a republican under triumph or defeat, as he is built of that kind of material, and will arise out of the present like Ajax of old, strong for the fray, nor knows nor acknowledges such things as defeat or faint-heartedness, and no sore nor weak spots will be found in his armor.

In the race for representative, Carrie T. McKinnie has shown a strength that was not expected for the average voter, and considering that his opponent was one of the strongest men in the county, a resident for the greater part of his life in Sherman county, the editor of the fusion party organ and a man whom everybody knew well and favorably, and from the further fact that Mr. McKinnie had to bear the heavy burden of the support of a certain element detested by the great body of republicans of this county, which worked to the disadvantage of Mr. McKinnie's candidacy, the fact that Carrie T. McKinnie only fell seven votes behind that of Gov. Sheldon speaks volumes for the strength of our candidate for representative.

While we have lost out on representative in this county, we have won in this senatorial district, R. M. Thompson, rep., being elected by approximately 150 majority, according to returns received.

General Election News.

While Sherman county has given a little sprinkle of cold water upon local republican sentiment the news from the state at large and from the other state elections were of a most pleasing nature.

News by phone to the Northwest from W. R. Mellor at Lincoln last evening states that Sheldon and the entire republican state ticket has been elected by majorities ranging between 15,000 and 20,000. The legislature, also, will be republican by 88 on joint ballot. The only bad break in the congressional directory will be found in the election of Gilbert M. Hitchcock, editor of the Omaha World-Herald, in the 1st district, who is reported to have defeated Kennedy, the republican congressman, by the small figures of 250, but later figures may wipe that out and secure the return of Congressman Kennedy to the National lower house.

New York has gone republican by 60,000, and elects Hughes, rep., to the governorship. A splendid day's work when the people refuse to honor the castly demagogue, Hearst.

Cummins is elected in Iowa all right, but at reduced majorities, owing to the Perkins sorehead vote.

Wisconsin, New Hampshire, and Connecticut returns go to show republican victories in those states.

All in all, republicanism is triumphant everywhere except in the 22 states holding elections.

Michigan elects Warner, rep., for governor around the 100,000 mark.

Massachusetts republicans win in the election of Guild for governor.

Returns from Chicago indicate sweeping republican victories.

Minnesota makes a toboggan slide into the democratic camp.

Colorado has gone over to Republicanism in good shape.

The National house and senate is safely republican.

Indiana is republican by 35,000 to 40,000.

Ohio goes republican all right.

Advertise in Local Papers.

Gov. Folk in his address to the retail merchants of Missouri at their convention at Jefferson city gave the following valuable advice to the country merchants:

"We are proud of our splendid cities and we want them to increase in wealth and population, and we also want our country towns to grow. We wish the city merchants to build up, but we also desire the country merchants to prosper. I do not believe in the mail order citizen. If a place is good enough for a man to live in, it is good enough for him to spend his money in."

"No merchant can succeed without advertising in one way or another. Patronize your town papers, build them up, and they will build the town up and build you up an increased trade and greater opportunities. Do not be afraid that business is going to be hurt by the recent exposures of wrongdoing in the commercial world. No man who is doing an honest business can be injured by the light. All business will be better for the cleansing process it is going through and the stamping out of the evil."

He Was Very Bashful.

Theo. Widaman tells the following story on one of his brothers who was married a number of years ago.

STUDEBAKER

Wagons, Carriages, Harness.

You know that for fifty years most farmers have considered the Studebaker the best farm wagon on earth. You know that the Studebaker factory at South Bend is the largest wagon factory in the world. You know that more Studebaker wagons are sold every year than most manufacturers make in ten years. But did you ever stop to consider why? We couldn't sell the Studebaker in increasing numbers every year for fifty years if it did not "fill the bill"—full and running over. The truth is the Studebaker is a little the best farm wagon ever built. Because we are the largest manufacturers we get the cream of timber products and the first pick of materials; because we have the largest factory we can afford the best facilities and are able to build a better, stronger, lighter draft farm wagon than any other manufacturer can build. You don't buy a farm wagon very often; why not get the best while you are at it? A Studebaker will last you, perhaps as long as you live. It's nothing unusual for a Studebaker to run from 10 to 20 years without even resetting the tires. Studebaker Bros. Mfg. Co.

Hard or Soft Coal

Coal or wood; whatever fuel you use costs money. You have to pay so much for it, whether you get all the heat out of it or not. If a stove wastes the fuel and only a part of the heat is extracted, your fuel bills are higher than they should be. It is therefore profitable for you to get a stove that will get all the heat out of the fuel and not waste it. The Genuine

Round Oak

is the stove that will do it, even the smoke which it sends out of the chimney is clear, showing that the gases and soot have been burned and all the heat extracted. The comfort of a stove that is everything it ought to be, that gives heat, holds the fire, that lasts, always good and efficient is worth almost any cost. The Round Oak is a source of comfort in thousands of homes. It will prove the same in yours. Give us the opportunity to explain to you the reasons why it exceeds all other stoves. There are imitations—be sure and see the name

"Round Oak"

DON'T!

LOAD YOUR HORSES' NECKS!

We want to call the attention of our customers to the all-important question of how the team shall be hitched to the manure spreader. It is a momentous question and often not carefully considered—how to get free, flexible movement to the pole without loading the team unnecessarily.

When you examine the Litchfield Manure Spreader you will see what we mean. You will find that the hitch is low, and that the draft on the tugs practically takes all weight off from the necks of the horses. This is something that is impossible with those machines where the front axle is not braced to the Spreader and where the tongue is obliged to answer the purpose.

We cannot think that any sensible man will want to brace his front axle on his horses' necks, as it is necessary to do where the tongue is the only retaining brace or support for this front axle. Examine the Litchfield Spreader and see how our bolster is braced to the front of the frame and how the axle is connected by a high carbon steel brace, back under the body of the machine.

A thorough bracing of the front axle, so that that the wheels cannot be pulled out from under the machine or collapsed back under it when striking chuck-holes and other obstructions is absolutely necessary. Many manufacturers put this bracing strain on to the tongue and therefore on to the horses' necks, instead of confining this bracing to the machine itself.

The tongue on any vehicle should be merely a means of guiding the vehicle and should be hinged freely, so that no load up or down shall come against the horses. It is not wise to drag down on your horses' necks when pulling the machine through heavy ground or through bad chuck-holes; neither is it advisable to throw the point of the tongue in the air as high as the harness will permit it to go, when backing up in bad places. In other words, we say, hinge four tongue freely to the Spreader, or, if your team must carry part of the load, put it on to their backs, and not on to their necks.

Be sure to watch this space next week.
