Try the famous Rosenblatt Pure California Wine at Cords and Graefe's, the new saloon. It is a wine that will stand the pure-food law, made from the most select of California choice grapes and by one of the oldest and most reliable wineries.
Supervisor W. O. Brown last week remembered his republican brother, C. H. Brown at Batavia, Ill., with another year's reading of the Northwestern. The Brown boys are all right, even Ed., though the latter is a little warped politically.
Born, Monday morning of this week, to Rev. and Mrs. L. C. McEwen of the Presbyterian church, a bouncing baby boy who tips the scales at just 10 pounds. We congratulate the reverend and good wife over the joyful advent of the young minister.
The next number on the Slayton Lyceum Course will be Pitt Parker, the crayon artist and witty entertainer. He has many novel and extraordinary features in his entertainments and all should hear him at M. E. church Wednesday evening, Dec. 12th.
At opera house Saturday afternoon and evening, December 8th, Annual Fair and Chicken-Pie Supper. Sale of many useful articles to commence at two p. m., supper at five. Prices and goods for everyone. Comforts, aprons, dolls, handkerchiefs, pillows and many others.
Our old-time friends, Tom and Jerry, were extensively entertained by their chums here on Thanksgiving. Although we have graduated in a full course of instruction under these twins, and are not at present in active communication with them, yet 'tis difficult to remember with distaste all former acquaintance. See?
Pitt Parker, the humorist and crayon wonder, has been termed "Doctor of Merriment." His talk is good, his sketches admirable and his entertainment highly enjoyable. This is the third number of lecture course program. At M. E. church Wednesday evening, Dec. 12, Holders of tickets and public remember the date.
Mr. L. B. Milligan, who recently purchased the Geo. Ware farm eight miles northeast of town, coming here from Stanton county, was a pleasant caller at these newspaper headquarters last Saturday, enrolling himself as a reader of the ever best. Mr. Milligan believes he can thus best acquaint himself with county matters in his new home. He is a very pleasant and affable gentleman.
Quite a number of the subscribers to the telephone company here are being and have been connected with central by a single instead of party wires. Among these, so far as we have been able to learn are the Northwestern office and residence, C. C. Cooper's store and residence, Dr. J. H. Long's office and residence, Dr. A. J. Kearns' office and residence, Joe Siepmann's shop and residence, W. T. Chase's store, the B. & M. and U. P. depots, State Bank, etc.
To say the editor "was fuller'n a goose," on Thanksgiving would not be so correctly stated as to say he was "full of goose," which latter was admittedly so from the fact that the editorial family was the recipient of a big fat goose at the hands of that royal good fellow, Herman Johansen, whose big heart could not bear to see the Northwestern family famish while the rest of the human family was feasting on the fat of the land. Hence the why.
John M. Slayter and Miss Ruby Chase were married last Thursday evening about 9:30 at the residence of and by Judge Angier. Mr. and Mrs. Slayter will make their home at Cozad, in Dawson county, where John has a farm of 240 acres. The mother and bride of groom left Saturday morning for Cozad and John left the same afternoon for that place with a carload of horses. We wish for the newly made husband and wife a happy and prosperous future.
The Robinson hotel at Arcadia, the only hostelry in that town, was burned to the ground at 3 o'clock last Thursday morning. The guests of the house barely escaped with their lives, losing all their belongings. One traveling man was in Loup City the next day getting wearing apparel. He came near being incinerated, and was only hauled out of his room after he had become insensible from suffocation. The loss to the owner is said to be $4,500, with $3,500 insurance.

Phone A. T. Conger, 3 on 62, when in need of a drayman.
There will be German services at their church next Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock.
The Coffee Club surprised Mrs. M. C. Mulick at that lady's home last Tuesday afternoon.
Farmers, bring in your hogs for Siepmann to kill on Tuesday and Fridays of each week.
Reports from the bedside of Albert Anderson give most encouraging news of his condition.
C. F. Kauffman, the popular auctioneer, this week adds his name to our list of readers. Thanks.
Farmers take notice that Siepmann's hog butchering days will be Tuesdays and Fridays.
Andrew Pearson was down from Washington, Monday, and reports the crops all fine and everything in good shape.
Anyone desiring hats re-modeled can have the work tastily done by taking them to Miss Hattie Froehlich at the Froehlich store.
Jas. Rentfrow sold fifteen hogs, Tuesday, that brought him $220.85, averaging 262 pounds. He will have 55 more to turn off in another month.
The good father of Stanley Kroilowski of Ashton township gave us a pleasant call Tuesday and made the editor happy by sending the sons, name two years ahead on subscription. Thanks.
Thanksgiving services of the city churches were held at the M. E. church in the evening, the sermon being given by Pastor Wold of the Baptist church in his usual eloquent manner.
Preparations are being made in the Presbyterian Sunday-school for the rendition of the Christmas cantata, "The Story of the Star." The program will be given at the church on Christmas eve.
Siepmann, the butcher, desires the public to know there will be no more night deliveries from his shop. All deliveries will be made between 8 o'clock in the morning and 5 o'clock in the evening.
H. J. Johansen has three fall and five spring boars left that he will price right, if taken soon. Herman says his advertising has paid so well this fall that he is going to advertise the entire coming year.
We acknowledge a pleasant call yesterday from J. N. Fisher of Logan township, who of course left a quantity of the necessary with us. John has his corn all cared for and has a right to rest up a little.
There will be a special service for young people at the Baptist church next Sunday evening. Pastor Wold will give an address on the subject: "The Door that No Man Can Shut." Everybody is cordially invited.
Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Mellor returned home last Wednesday evening in time for Thanksgiving. Mr. Mellor left Monday morning again on a business trip to Chicago. Mrs. Mellor will remain at home for a few seasons.
Miss Nora Smith, formerly employed in the Northwestern office, but now an employe of Hayden Bros. in Omaha, left for the latter place Monday morning after a few days' visit with her parents near Ashton, and with friends in Loup City.
S. F. Reynolds, the butcher, desires to inform the public that there will be no more night deliveries made from his shop. All orders must be in so deliveries can be made between the hours of eight o'clock in the morning and five o'clock in the evening.
A brother of Gottlieb Laier arrived from Colorado last week Wednesday, called here by his brother's unfortunate death. Another brother arrived from British Columbia this week Monday evening, but left again for his home by way of Denver last evening. Just what they have determined in regard to the unfortunate death of their brother, we have been unable to learn.
The quarterly communion service will be held at the Presbyterian church next Sunday morning. The ordinance of baptism will be administered and the public inspection of new members will take place. It is earnestly desired that every member of the church be present on this occasion. The subject of the evening sermon is "A Large Room Wanted." The usual music—a cordial welcome especially to the stranger and people without a church home.
This week James Rentfrow sold a half dozen very fine corn-fed three-year-old heaves to Joe Siepmann, the butcher, for his home market, that averaged 1300 pounds. They were in the very pink of condition and Joe paid the top-notch price for them that he might give his customers some of the choicest of meats for the holidays. Joe says the best is none too good for his customers and proposes to see that his market has the very finest of everything in his line at all times.
On Tuesday of this week, Charley French received the sad news of the death of his brother, Reuben French, which occurred at Independence, Ore., on the 30th of last month. He was buried at Junction City, Ore., by the side of three children gone before. Mr. French leaves a wife, who is a daughter of Simpson Criss of this city, and also seven children, to mourn their loss. He was formerly a resident of Loup City and still a member of the A. O. U. W. order here. A large circle of friends and relatives here sympathize with the bereaved family.

PERFECTLY SATISFIED

PERFECT SATISFACTION is enjoyed at all THANKSGIVING DINNERS when the TURKEY is baked in a GREAT MAJESTIC RANGE. Call and we will show you why all who use a Majestic range are perfectly satisfied.

E. S. HAYHURST, Loup City, Neb.

Herman Johansen expects to have his big hog sale some time in February.
Mrs. Wm. Rowe left for Lincoln, Wednesday, where she will take treatment at a sanitarium.
Geo. Truelsen shied a couple of Uncle Sam's cartwheels at us Tuesday and we never dodged. George always does things right.
Judge J. A. Angier was called to Beardstown, Ills., last Friday, by the serious illness of his brother, Frank Angier, who is suffering from cancer of the stomach, and whose life hangs only by a thread, and death may be expected at any time.
Herbert Severson closed his Model restaurant last Wednesday, selling the stock and appurtenances to C. C. Cooper and Jas. Downs, and with his family returned to their former home at Ord. The illness of Mr. Severson, and the fact that Mrs. Severson's time is necessarily too much occupied with the angel that came to their household lately, and the difficulty in securing competent help, made their decision to cease business imperative. Mr. and Mrs. Severson have made a host of friends here socially and in a business way, who will regret their going away.
George and Carsten Truelsen, Will Zimmerman, Troy and L. Banks Hale, A. H. Hansel and Chas. Kalka returned Saturday evening from their two weeks' trip down into the Panhandle country. They had varied experiences, while absent, being snow-bound at El Reno four days and being in a wreck between Enid and El Reno, in which two cars left the track, rolling down an embankment, but fortunately without death or serious damage to any of the passengers. The boys liked the looks of the country very much, what they saw of it, but the weather being execrable did not see as much as desired. As a result of this trip, Chas. Kalka thinks of moving down there as soon as he can dispose of his property here. Geo. Truelsen may take another trip to the Panhandle the first of the year, he having bought two sections of land there in one of his trips south.

Notice of Bankruptcy.

In the District Court of the United States, for the District of Nebraska.

In the matter of Jason W. Davis, Debtor, and In Bankruptcy.

At Grand Island in said District, this 30th day of November 1906, before Bayard H. Payne, referee in bankruptcy.

Upon reading the bankrupt's petition, the adjudication and order of reference, I hereby fix Monday, December 17th, 1906, at 7:30 in the morning, at the law office of R. J. Nightingale in Loup City, Nebraska, as the time and place for the first meeting of creditors. At which time the creditors may present their claims for allowance, examine the claims filed, examine the bankrupt, select a trustee, and do such other business as may properly come before the first meeting of the creditors of a bankrupt.

It is further ordered that a copy of the foregoing order be published once in the Loup City Northwestern.

BAYARD H. PAYNE,
Referee in Bankruptcy.
