SHAW'S PLAN TO CHECK PANICS. His Report Recommends a Restricted Credit Currency.

Washington. - In his report .to congress, Leslie M. Shaw, secretary of the treasury, reiterates his recommendation of a restricted credit currency and suggests that if more power is granted the secretary panics can be prevented or their evil effects greatly reduced.

He points out the danger of the 'central bank" plan, and urges his own methods to increase circulation when there is a stringency in the money market, and to contract the currency when money is redundant.

A taxed credit currency he considers the best method, supplemented by power granted the secretary to handle a $100,000,000 reserve fund, sending it here Tuesday morning for the murder into the market when needed and of Willie and Carrie Carter in July, withdrawing it when not needed.

Woman Says Mr. Brown's Attentions Caused Her Husband to Get Divorce and that He Then Refused to Marry

WASHINGTON - Former United States Senator Arthur Brown of Utah tonight lies in a critical condition in Emergency hospital from a pistol shot wound in the abdomen, inflicted by Mrs. Anna M. Bradley of Salt Lake City, who arrived here Saturday from that city. The shooting occurred In Senator Brown's apartment in the Raleigh hotel, where Mrs. Bradley had registered under the name of "A. B. Brown." She was arrested.

Senator Brown was conveyed to the hospital, where he was immediately put on the operating table. Two shots were fired, one grazing his left hand and the other entering the abdomen and lodging in the pelvic cavity. After working over him for nearly two hours the surgeons decided that for the present at least they would make no further attempt to find the bullet. "I asked him if he was going to do the right thing by me," she said, maintaining a remarkable composure. "In reply he put on his overcoat and started to leave the room and I shot him. I abhor acts of this character, but in this case it was fully justified."

While expressing no sorrow for her act, she declared that she was glad to know that Senator Brown might re-"I was practically penniless when I
