P. E. O. Anniversary.

One of the most joyous occasions ever held in Loup City was that of the celebration of the first anniversary of the P. E. O. society here, which was held jointly, Tuesday evening of this week, at the residences of W. R. Mellor and J. W. Long, the reception being held at the first named home, and a delightful luncheon, accompanied by toasts, at the latter residence. The ladies of the society, numbering twelve in all, issued some fifty invitations to mutual friends, all of whom responded, and by 8:30 in the evening, the residence of Mr. Long was filled to overflowing with the guests of the occasion, who were welcomed as they arrived by the ladies of the P. E. O. in a receiving line, all dressed in pure white. Mrs. R. P. Starr giving sweet accompanying music the while at the piano. Later a unique selection of partners was made and all proceeded to the residence of Mr. Mellor, where luncheon was served and with Mrs. H. B. Musser as toastmistress, who in a very acceptable manner and with choicest words introduced those who were to give the toasts for the occasion. The evening was most pleasant, it passed till a late hour. Each of the sisters of the P. E. O. gave a choice selection for the occasion, which was followed with toasts most felicitously given by Rev. Wise, R. P. Starr and J. S. Pedler, all being well received, that of Mr. Starr, who by the way, being what was termed a E. I. L. to the P. E. O., came so dangerously near to giving away the innermost secrets that Starr chamber committee work was undoubtedly meted out to him later. During the evening some of the most classic music of ancient times was rendered by the entire company. The P. E. O. sisters and their husbands present were as follows: Messrs. and Mesdames R. J. Nightingale, J. T. Hale, R. L. Arthur, H. B. Musser, W. R. Mellor, C. E. Mellor, J. W. Long, C. C. Outhouse, R. P. Starr, H. A. Sleeth, W. F. Mason, A. J. Johnson. The invited guests were Messrs. and Mesdames W. R. Boyce, J. S. Pedler, C. W. Conhiser, J. I. Depew, J. P. Leininger, J. W. Burleigh, A. H. Hansel, A. B. Outhouse, C. J. Tracy, J. W. Jones, G. H. Wise, G. S. Leininger, H. J. Johannesen, C. F. Benschhausen, Mrs. Rawson and Mr. Bert McKinnie. The following were the young ladies who served refreshments with angelic grace: Misses Margaret Naumann, Meroy and Emma Outhouse, Addie Leininger and Esther Musser.

Loup City School Notes.

School commenced Monday after a two weeks' vacation for the holidays. Klea McNulty entered the tenth grade Monday.
Winnie and Retta Gasteyer have gone to the convent at Columbus.
Ray Bradley and Edwin Anderson are new members of the second intermediate.
Clara Synak re-entered the first primary this week.
Frank Bengnusk, Sadie Roberts, Clara Bell Parrshall and Charlie Roberts are new members of the first primary.
One effect of ex-Gov. Mickey's extensive pardon record may be the creation of a board of pardons. Let's have by all means.
As was generally expected, ex-Gov. Mickey pardoned Mrs. Lillie before walking out. His action meets all kinds of comment. What say you?
Representative Brown is on the printing, apportionment and engrossed and enrolled bills committees. Being on the minority side, he could not expect and did not get a chairmanship.
The county board was in session Tuesday and Wednesday and awarded the legal printing of the county for the ensuing year to the Northwestern and the bulk of the commercial work to the Times-Independent.
The Northwestern is frequently asked if a person is liable for payment of a newspaper if he has ordered it stopped, or if he never subscribed for it. These questions have been decided by the Supreme courts of the states of Iowa, New Hampshire, Delaware and Wisconsin, and the decision in each is practically the same. If a person continues to accept a paper sent him through the mail he is liable for the subscription price, regardless of the fact that he never subscribed for it. If a subscriber in arrears orders a paper discontinued and does not pay the arrearage, he is liable for it so long as it is sent to his address, until he pays the whole amount.

Tool Cost

The cost of a tool isn't settled at the time you buy it. Its real cost depends as much upon its length of service as upon its price.

are not the lowest priced but they're cheapest in the end because they last so much longer. Thirty-two years for a hatchet and twenty years for a saw are two Keen Kutter Records.
