J. W. BURLEIGH, Ed. and Pub.

The booze and anti-booze war at Ord seems to take precedence over every other question in that village.

Thos. A. Creigh of Omaha was last week elected commander of the Nebraska branch of the Grand Army of the Republic.

The Burlington road is again sending out passes to doctors over its territory, holding it is not a violation of the anti-pass law.

The Ord Quiz thinks State Supt.
McBrien has handed the town a lemon in the matter of securing one of the junior normals.

The Taft-Forker fight in Ohio is warming up in good shape, with Taft a few laps in the lead, but Forker not in the least winded.

Wheat is soaring skyward and it is expected to reach a $1.25 limit before it stops. The green bug and beastly weather so far is accountable for the bulge.

A. B. Allen, former Gov. Micky's private secretary, has been appointed state oil inspector, Good. Sheldon couldn't have made a better selection had he looked the state over.

Nearly a half million in India have succumbed to the dreaded plague in the past six weeks. There seems to be a race for death between the starvation in China and the plague in India.

While Omaha is trying to rid the municipality of undesirable citizens, why does it not include Tom Dennison and Pat Crowe on the list? They are about as undesirable as they ever heard of. But then Omaha seems stuck on that kind of people.

What do you think of this? Ex-Senator W. V. Allen is busy fighting the saloons at his home in Madison, this state. He tried to knock out whiskey for years by trying to drown all in sight, but evidently realizing the fruitlessness of this way, is evidently on the water wagon trying a new tack.

Hon. E. H. Conger, formerly U. S. minister to China, during the Boyer rebellion, died last Saturday at his home in Pasadena, Calif. He was one of nature's noblemen, and in his death this country loses one of its greatest men. Mr. Conger and the editor's father were warmest friends for years and now both of these grand good men have gone to their reward, after doing untold good during the long years of their lives.

Damage by Green Bug.

Forty grain men from Chicago, Milwaukee and Omaha visited the wheat fields in Southern Nebraska and Northern Kansas last week, returning to Omaha Monday of this week and their investigation do not inspire hope for even half an average crop in Kansas on account of the ravages made by the green bug.

W. C. Sunderland, of the Sunderland Grain Company, a member of the inspecting party; interviewed by an Omaha Bee reporter, said:

"We stopped as often as possible for examination of the fields in Southern Nebraska Saturday afternoon and found green bugs in every field, but they had not begun to damage the crop to any extent. We went through Sumner, Reno, Kiowa, Sedgwick, Pratt, Ford, McPherson, Republic, Washington, Clyde and Cloupe counties of Kansas Sunday and found that the damage by drouth and green bugs was extensive. The damage was particularly noticeable in Sumner, Sedgwick and Reno counties, but the Nebraska crops are practically uninjured as yet, although the result of the appearance of the green bugs in the Nebraska fields is still problematical.
If the bugs attack the wheat in the Nebraska fields as they did those in Kansas, the outlook for the crops in this state is very gloomy.

"The crop of oats in Kansas is practically ruined and the corn is in bad shape as that planted has not yet made its appearance above ground."

Prospects for a good crop in Nebraska appear to be good at the present time, according to the opinion of a majority of the grain men who went on the excursion. Green bugs were said to be in every wheat field in southern Nebraska, having come from the Kansas fields, but had inflicted no damage.

$50 Reward Offered.

The person or persons destroying my fences, gates and interfering with my windmill and water plant on my ranch near the cemetery must let my property alone or suffer the consequences. I hereby offer a reward of $50, same is now deposited in the First National Bank, to any one who will furnish me with the names and proof of the acts of such vandalism.

West of the 6th P. M., Sherman County, Ne-

It is therefore ordered that all persons interested in said estate appear before me at Nebraska, on the 23rd day of June, 1907, at the minor's interest in said real estate, same being a one half interest therein, to pay for said care, schooling and maintenance.

It is further ordered that a copy of this order be served upon all persons interested in

Death of Ella Kornrumpf.

On Sunday morning last occurred the death of Miss Ella Kornrumpf, in this city, aged 18 years, 9 months and 9 days. Her death was occasioned from measles, during which illness she caught a severe cold, culminating in her death as above mentioned. She leaves a mother, brother and four sisters, all of whom were present at the funeral which occurred from the Baptist church yesterday morning.
Pastor Guernsey of the Baptist congregation preaching the funeral discourse, and a large number of friends paying their last respects to the young lady who was a favorite in her circle of companions. Deceased was born at Rockville, this state, August 10, 1889, her death occurring on May 19th, 1907. The funeral ceremonies were conducted under the auspices of the Modern Brotherhood of America, of which deceased was a respected member, and in which she carried $1,000 insurance. The Northwestern, with the community at large, deeply sympathize with the bereaved family in the hour of their sorrow.

Another chapter has been added to the Yerkes-Mizner story. Mrs. Yerkes-Mizner has received a divorce from Mizner, with privilege of re-marrying some other guy when she gets ready, and she will find plenty with her command of the Yerkes millions.
