J. F. JEFFORDS.
The Misses Beth and Elva Zimmerman and Mr. Arthur Brown went to Boelus last Saturday to meet Prof. W. B. Owen, who will visit at the home of A. L. Zimmerman. The professor has been teaching at Holton, Kansas, and is on his way to his home in Iowa.

We received a pleasant call on Tuesday from Mr. Michael Buckley of Bristol township; one of the reliable old-time republicans of Sherman county, who was here doing business before the county board. Of course, friend Michael remembered the Northwestern in a comfortable financial manner.

Peter A. Larsen, one of the good farmers of Washington township, was a Loup City visitor Saturday last and gave the Northwestern a pleasant call. Mr. Larsen reports crops looking well in his township, with the exception of winter wheat, which appears rather weak and thin, but may come out all right.

We acknowledge a pleasant call Saturday from Mr. I. J. Coppersmith of the west side of the county, one of the jolly Coppersmith brothers. G. W. Marvel on Tuesday closed a deal whereby he disposes of a half section of his land to Mr. Jos. Rozniarek of the east side. Mr. Rozniarek will take possession of his new land next March.

Mrs. Frank Mercer of Aurora, accompanied by her children, arrived last Saturday, to be present at her sister's marriage and to visit her father, mother and numerous relatives and friends a few days.

Mesdames C. C. Outhouse and J. T. Hale will go to McCook next week to attend the grand session of the P. E. O.'s, and from there will go to Denver and Boulder, Col., for a visit with Mrs. Outhouse's mother at the latter place.

The quarterly communion service will be observed at the Presbyterian church next Sunday morning. All the members and friends especially invited. Sunday evening the pastor will speak on "Absalom," or "The Safe Young Man." You will always find a welcome and are cordially invited.

While Decoration Day has come and gone, it is not too late to speak for and of its interests. The L. of G. A. R. at their meeting last Saturday remembered all who so generously helped to execute the work by a vote of thanks. We are especially glad to note the growing interest in keeping the day a memorial one.

"Can We Master Our Environments?" This question will be discussed by the pastor of the M. E. church next Sunday morning. The theme of the evening service will be, "A Layman's Theology." We extend a hearty invitation to all to worship with us on that day. We will greet you in the spirit of the Master and make you feel a cordial welcome.

Loup City is in luck. Mr. J. F. Jeffords, the popular jeweler, so well known here, and who for a number of previous years has been in business at St. Paul and York, has concluded to locate in Loup City. Until he can secure a good business location, he may be found at Cooper & Rawding's general store, where he will be found busy at work, already with his hands full of repair work.

From the St. Paul Republican of last week, we see that our young friend, Clarence Mason Beard, engineer of the motor car running between this place and St. Paul on the Union Pacific, is to be married next Tuesday, the 18th instant, at high noon, to Miss Ivy Eugenia Raynor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Raynor of St. Paul. The Northwestern in advance tenders its choicest congratulations to the happy couple and wishes for them a long and prosperous union.

Grandma Gilbert came home from Lincoln last Saturday evening, the happiest person on earth, and why shouldn't she be. The treatment for her sight has been most successful and she can now see very plainly with one eye and no doubt is expressed that when she returns to Lincoln after the first of July for the final treatment of the other eye, she will have the use of both. Grandma Gilbert was in the Northwestern office on Monday to see what the editor looked like, as she desired to see the editor of her favorite paper. She says she can hardly comprehend the fact that her eyes have been restored after the long, dreary years of darkness. And we are glad for the kindly old lady, together with the multitude of other friends who will rejoice with her over her new-found happiness. Grandma Gilbert wishes the Northwestern to express for her heartfelt thanks to Mrs. Adam Schupp and daughter at Lincoln, whose kindly offices and friendship to her while

The telephone directory is now ready for distribution.

Mrs. L. C. Everest went to Burwell Monday for a few days' visit.

Miss Hazel Nute of Litchfield is a guest of Miss Maggie Minshull.

Dr. Longacre made a trip to Lincoln Tuesday, to return this evening.

The village board of Ashton Monday granted license to the third saloon.

Arcadia kids scooped the Loup City boys on the diamond here Tuesday afternoon by a score of 8 to 7.

The ladies of the Baptist Aid Society will give a supper in their church Friday evening, June 21st.

The unsightly awning over front of Mulick's saloon has been removed and Geo. Stork's paint brush has improved the looks of the building.

Miss Vera Schupp came up from Lincoln Monday evening to attend the Sweetland-Angier wedding and is the guest of Mrs. James Johansen.

R. D. Leonardson, a nephew of Wm. Larson, accompanied by his wife, were here from Aurora over last Sunday, returning home Monday.

The Industrial Society of the Presbyterian church meets with Mrs. Frank Robbins next Wednesday afternoon, the 19th. A cordial welcome to all the ladies.

J. S. Pedler was at Arcadia Tuesday evening installing the officers of the Masonic lodge at that place, and conferring the past master degree on the master of the lodge.

Miss Hazel Burligh, accompanied by the lesser lights of the editorial household, leave for Omaha and Iowa tomorrow morning for a few days' absence on business and pleasure.

A. L. Zimmerman and family leave next Tuesday for the Jamestown Exposition and to visit their son, Archie Zimmerman, and wife near there. They will be absent an indefinite time.

Frank Foster and wife, Miss Ella Foster and Ed Foster went to Arcadia last evening to attend the wedding of a cousin, Miss Ida Esterbrook to Mr. Chas. Smith, both of Valley county.

The teachers' institute in session this week is progressing finely. There are some thirty-six teachers in attendance and the birch-wielders are well pleased with the work of the institute. Further report will be given next week.

Don't forget the lecture-recital at the Presbyterian church this evening by Miss Grace Greves. Those who heard her during the teachers' institute last year were well pleased and we can assure our people they will miss an intellectual treat if they fail to hear her this evening.

The State Board of Assessment in this state has raised the assessed valuation on railroads in this state some five millions of dollars. This raise is distributed among the counties of the state having railroads, of which Sherman county gets the benefit of the difference between the old assessment of $350,812.63 and the proposed new assessment of $434,017.40.

The Northwestern during the absence of the editor this coming week will be under the competent supervision of our valued assistant, Miss Etta Lofholm. Will our readers make an extra effort to give her news items by phone, letter or personally. Help her make it the best paper yet issued, will you? Also, she will attend to all cash receipts, and be happy in giving proper credits.

Bro. Cooley of the Arcadia Champion is to be relieved of the strenuous duties as postmaster at that place, whereat he gives forth a dismal howl at Senator Norris Brown for being the prime cause of his ignominious removal. On the other hand, complaints at the department would indicate other good and sufficient causes. Bro. Cooley will now have more time to devote to brainless little squibs against Loup City, which to his puerile mind are very intelligent and enlightening.

The opening day at Jenners' Park last Tuesday was a grand success, hundreds from Loup City and outlying districts being present both day and evening, everybody enjoying the day to the fullest extent. Harry Jenner has made of the park a thing of beauty and a joy forever, and Loup City is proud of both park and owner. Nor would the park be complete without Bro. Bob Jenner, who is a good second to Harry, the two brothers being prince of entertainers and enterprising men.

The Presbyterian young people provided an evening's amusement of high order last evening in their "Trip Around the World." Starting at the home of Mr. Zimmerman, the travelers were conducted through Germany, France, Japan and Italy, thence home to America. The homes of Messrs. Zimmerman, Cooper, Culley and E. G. Taylor, respectively, being arranged to represent the different foreign countries, and the parlors of the church representing America. At each place visited, the party was refreshed with viands peculiar to the country and royally entertained by the natives. The costumes of the Japanese and Italian girls were especially appropriate and called forth much favorable comment while the enthusiasm which prevailed over the sight of the flag as the travelers reached home gave a touch of realism to the scene. The attendance was good, but was worthy of a larger patronage. The Endeavor Society will net about $25 from the entertainment.

HYMENEAL.

McKinnie-Farm Wedding.
Mr. B. P. McKinnie left Tuesday morning for Sault Ste Marie, in northern Michigan, where on the 19th instant he will be united in marriage to Miss Tekla Farm at high noon in the Swedish church in that city. They will return the last of the month and go to housekeeping on the McKinnie Bros.' Valley View farm in Washington township, which is being prepared for their reception. They will be "At Home" to the many friends after August 1st. The bride-elect, like Mr. McKinnie, is a most excellent operatic singer, the two having been engaged in the same company many seasons in high-class music, and our people will undoubtedly on their return be favored along musical lines by the talented couple at various times. Again, the Northwestern in advance tenders congratulations to Mr. McKinnie and his talented bride-elect.

Sweetland-Angier Nuptials.
The marriage of Miss Edith Angier, daughter of Judge and Mrs. Angier of this place to Mr. Clarence Sweetland, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. N. Sweetland of Loup City, took place at the home of the bride's parents, on June 11th, 1907, at 8:30 o'clock p. m. The ceremony was performed by the bride's father, Judge Angier, assisted by Rev. H. S. Wold, former pastor of the Baptist church of this place. Invitations had been sent out only to the immediate relatives of the families, with only one or two exceptions, and at the hour set for the ceremony about forty of the friends of the bride and groom were present. Miss Vera Schupp, an old schoolmate of the bride was present from Lincoln, this state, also Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Taylor of St. Paul, an old resident of Sherman county and old friends of the Judge's family.

As the time approached for the ceremony, a bridal march was executed by Miss Schupp, the bride and groom marched in, escorted by Miss Cora Leininger and a brother of the groom, Mr. Leslie Sweetland, who served as bride'smaid and groom'sman. The music was continued during the whole ceremony and added much to the general effect.

The presents were many and beautiful in the extreme, consisting of almost everything needed in a well ordered family from a tiny pair of shoes and stockings to a magnificent oak side-board, a present from Papa and Mama Sweetland. After the ceremony a bounteous supper was served, and all went away wishing much happiness to the newly married people. It is the intention of the young people to visit for about a month in this state and Iowa, when they will return and make their home with the bride's parents.

HALF A CENTURY OLD.
White Men First Located in Hall County in 1857.
On July 3, 1857, an emigrant train, which had trekked its weary way out across the plains from Davenport, Ia., came to a halt in the Platte valley, about a mile south of the present site of Grand Island. Its occupants decided that at least for the night they would halt there. They had come out with the purpose of locating in the Platte valley, in the central part of the state, and lay out a town, which it was hoped might some day become the capital of the United States—when bands of steel should have connected coast with coast.

On the next day, the morn of the nation's natal day, they decided to stay where they were. And stakes were placed and the first Fourth celebrated in a new home.

Of that colony the Messrs. Fred Hedde, Christian Menck, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Joenck, Wm. Hagge, Wm. Stolley, Mrs. John Thomssen, Sr., and Cay Ewoldt still remain as residents of Grand Island.

They have outlived prairie fires and their destructiveness, the fires being set by roving desperadoes, the Indian troubles during the time of the civil war, the grass hopper sieges, the droughts.

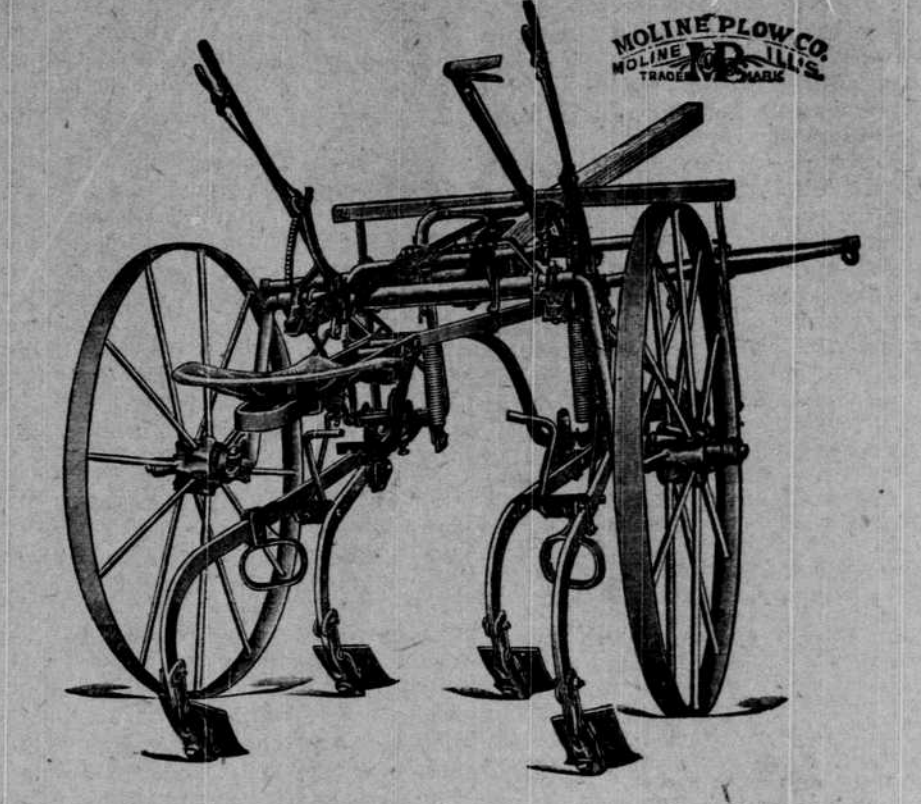

Shall wonder that Grand Island, on the Fourth, is arranging to celebrate the semi-centennial anniversary in a most elaborate manner.
