Announcement Notice.
I hereby announce myself as a candidate for the nomination of County Superintendent of Public Instruction, subject to the action of the People's Independent Party primaries, of Sherman county, Nebraska.
R. D. HENDRICKSON.

Reports from Iowa are to the effect that the state will fall one-third short in its corn crop.

Ross Hammond, the talented editor of the Fremont Tribune, is an aspirant for the position of Collector of Internal Revenue. Among those who would ably fill that position, we know of no one who is more worthy, nor any one who is as deserving as Bro.
Hammond. For years, in season and out of season, Ross Hammond through his most influential paper, and in a personal way has done as much as any man in the state to build up Nebraska, and never to our knowledge has he been recognized in a substantial political way, and as one of the great army of newspaper men in the great state of Nebraska, we are in favor of handing this official plum to him as a just recognition of the good work he has done for the upbuilding of this great commonwealth.
We trust our senators will see to it that Ross L. Hammond is recognized and appointed to the above named responsible place.

Petitions galore have been received here for the signatures of those who favor the re-nomination of Judge Sedgwick to the supreme bench and are being signed up. On the other hand, many of the papers of the state are calling for the nomination of Judge M. B. Moore to that important place, claiming he was turned down for a second term by the railroad influence in 1885, after he had held the supreme judgeship one term. Judge Sedgwick is said to have the favor of the old line politicians and the railroad forces, while Reese is backed by the reform element which had control of the last legislature and gave the railroads their pretty black eyes. Besides the above, people who have not forgotten the Bartley defalcation and the many unsavory matters connected therewith, especially the fact that the present supreme court, of which Sedgwick is a member, released the Bartley bondsmen from liability, are disposed to look with suspicion upon Sedgwick and his candidacy, and connect the judge very closely with that matter. All in all, there will be a pretty little fight between the Sedgwick and Reese elements. The Northwestern will be found firmest any candidate with the Bartley label on him, and it is up to the Sedgwick contingent to prove their man does not wear it.

Additional Local News.

The M. E. Sunday school picnicked on the river yesterday.
Mrs. Chas. Gibson arrived here last evening to join her husband.

temple with a ball while playing in a game at Wiggle Creek the Fourth, severely injuring him, but it is hoped no serious consequences will follow.
Dr. A. W. Pierce, skilled optician, of Omaha, will be at the St. Elmo tomorrow, July 12th, for one day only.
Come and see him and get your eyes corrected. Remember the date, tomorrow, Friday, July 12th.
The Northwestern gives place to the political announcement of R. D.
Hendrickson for the populist nomination for superintendent of schools. Of course, it does not carry with it our republican endorsement.
You are invited to attend the services at the Presbyterian church next Sunday morning. The subject for the sermon is "A Word to the Weary." There will be no evening service on account of the meeting on the courthouse square.
One of the pleasures of the reception tendered Tuesday evening to Mr. and Mrs. McKinnie, was the presence of Mr. C. M. Beard, our popular moterman, and his fair young bride, who had just returned from their trip to the Jamestown Exposition, and who were made to share in part the hospitality of the evening. It gave added interest and zest to the occasion.
A union meeting of the Baptist and Presbyterian churches will be held Sunday evening at 7:45 on the courthouse square. The members of these congregations and the public generally are cordially invited to attend these services. They will be short, bright, interesting.

is a good crop; oats the best crop in several years and corn is making a fine growth, some is already laid by.

A grand picnic was held in Baillie's grove, eight miles up the river, where all the farmers along the river took their families on the Fourth. They think they had the only time, as Mr. and Mrs. Baillie turned over the place to them. Mr. Baillie has the only fine grove for miles up or down the river.

Rockville Items.
Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Mead came down from Loup City and spent the 4th at Rockville, visiting the next day at E. H. Kittell's.
Mr. Cyrus Kittell is here visiting his brother and family.
The Fourth of July was celebrated at Rockville in great style. R. P.
Starr gave the address in his usual manner. The ball game was very one-sided, the score being 11 to 4 in favor of Austin. Everybody enjoyed themselves and are not yet over it, all being tired and sleepy.
Messrs. C. H. and Ed. Wintetzer visited at L. Scott's Sunday.
Mrs. H. Vanscoy and Miss Ethel drove to Austin last Sunday to visit relatives.
A number of people from Loup City, Austin and neighboring towns celebrated the glorious Fourth in Rockville.
Crops are looking fine now, but need rain.
The farmers are cutting wheat.
