District.
Which election will be open at twelve (12) o'clock P. M. of the same day.
Dated this 12th day of July, 1907.
C. F. BEUSHAUSEN, County Clerk.

Candidates' Cards.

SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS.
I hereby announce that I am a candidate for the nomination of County Superintendent of Public Instruction of Sherman county, subject to the action of the decision of the republican party at the primary election to be held on September 3rd, 1907. M. H. MEAD.

I hereby announce myself as a candidate for the nomination of County Superintendent of Public Instruction, subject to the action of the People's Independent Party primaries, of Sherman county, Nebraska.
R. D. HENDRICKSON.

I hereby announce that I am a candidate for the nomination of
struction, subject to the action of the People's Independent Party at the primary election to be held on September 3rd, 1907. L. H. CURRIER.

I hereby announce that I am a candidate for the nomination of County Superintendent of Public Instruction of Sherman County, subject to the decision of the People's Independent party at the primary election to be held on September 3rd, 1907.
J. F. NICOSON.

COUNTY TREASURER.
I hereby announce myself a candidate for nomination to the office of Treasurer of Sherman county, subject to the will of the People's Independent party at the primary election to be held on Tuesday, the 3rd day of September, 1907. R. M. HIDDLESON.

COUNTY JUDGE.
I hereby announce myself as a candidate for nomination to the office of County Judge, subject to the will of the People's Independent party voters of Sherman county at the primary election to be held on the 3rd of September, 1907. J. A. ANGEL.

COUNTY CLERK.
I hereby announce myself a candidate for nomination to the office of County Clerk of Sherman county, subject to the will of the People's Independent party at the primary election to be held on the 3rd of September, 1907.
C. F. BEUSHAUSEN.

SHERIFF.
I hereby announce myself a candidate for nomination to the office of sheriff of Sherman county, subject to the decision of the Republican party at the primary election to be held on September 3rd, 1907.
L. A. WILLIAMS.

COUNTY ASSESSOR.
I hereby announce my candidacy for the nomination of County Assessor, subject to the will of the Republican voters at the primary election to be held Sept. 3rd, 1907.
L. W. CALLEN.

Under the new exemption law in this state, a justice holds that creditors can't take any part of the wages of a man with less than $500 worth of property.

The supreme court of this state renders an opinion that a wife out-ranks a mother-in-law in the household. But where does the husband come in in official station.

Among the announcements this week will be found that of L. W. Callen of Washington township who desires the republican nomination for county assessor. Mr. Callen is an old resident of this county and well and favorably known.

This week will be found among the candidates' cards that of C. F. Beushausen for re-election as county clerk, with nomination at the hands of our populist neighbors, and the card of L. A. Williams for re-nomination and re-election to the office of sheriff, with nomination by the republican primary. We will be fair enough to say Mr. Beushausen has made a very credible county clerk and the main fault we have to find with him is the sad fact of his political affiliations.
As to Uncle Lou Williams, we wish we had as sure a cinch on a handsome fortune as he has on the office for another term and which duties he has so faithfully and efficiently performed.

The dangers from eating ice cream are not confined alone to a young man's pocketbook. The other day fourteen persons were poisoned in a Kentucky town from ice cream.

All doubts of Bryan's candidacy for the presidency may be laid at rest.
In a few days his boom will be formally launched at a big dinner, it is stated authentically. But that hardly insures his election.

A call has been issued for a state convention of prohibitionists to meet in Lincoln next Wednesday, 31st, to make arrangements for placing a state ticket in the field under the new primary law, and for the selection of a state central committee, etc.

A merry war is now on between the forces backing the candidacies of Sedgwick and Reese for the supreme judgship. It is generally conceded the winner at the fall election, the fusion opposition in the state not being able to combine or encompass defeat of any republican nominee, hence each side is straining every nerve to win out at the primaries.
Either one will honor the judicial ermine.

A fearful steamship disaster occurred last Saturday at midnight on the Pacific ocean between San Francisco and Portland, when the Columbia, carrying 249 passengers and crew was run into by the San Pedro, a freighter, and sunk within two minutes, at least 150 of those aboard going down with the ill-fated steamer.
Of over 100 women on board the Columbia only one or two is reported saved. You will find full particulars of the awful horror in next week's Northwestern.

Did You Ever Get Left?

Not long ago advertisements appeared of the John Quincy Company and the Louis Vehon Company of Chicago, offering great bargains in sewing machines. Among those who read this literature was Miss Emma Nording. She wanted a sewing machine and she sent $15.58 to the address of the advertisers. She waited long and anxiously for the sewing machine. She wrote, asking if the money had been received, but no answer came.

A short time ago she received a postal card which told the story briefly but plainly. It read as follows: Chicago, Ill., 8-9, 1900.

DEAR SUE:
I have been appointed receiver of the Louis Vehon Company and the John Quincy Company by the Judge of the U. S. D. C. The estate will be closed up as rapidly as possible and you will receive an official notice in due time. Respectfully, No. 18,448 $15.58. JOSEPH SEGEL.

It will be noticed that Miss Nord-ing's claim is 18,448, and if each number represents a claim of $15.58 for money sent in, the bankrupt firm must have at least $287,499.92 of the people's money. It is a slick way of gathering in the coin. Advertise something valuable for a small price and when the people have all bitten and begin to get uneasy hide your wealth and take the benefit of the bankrupt law.

Such fakes fatten upon the fatal propensity of people to go away from home to get something for nothing instead of patronizing the home business men who help make the town.
-Jamestown, (N. Y.) Daily Tribune.

Cleora Notes.

Mr. Chas. Sickles visited Sunday with S. Foss.

Mrs. John Warrick went to St.
Paul Saturday to visit over Sunday with an aunt whom she had not seen for many years.

Ed. Shipley's drove to Hazard Sunday to visit his sister.

May Bone entertained some young people at dinner Sunday. A pleasant time was had and an elaborate dinner was served.

Sabbath school at 10 o'clock and church at 11 o'clock next Sunday at Cleora.

A friend of Miss Fross' has applied for the Warrick school.

Miss Sina Ladegard visited last Friday with Miss Emma Bell.

Mr. Siepmann was out in our vicinity and butchered a beef and took it in for the town breakfast.

Some forty young people met last Friday evening at the home of F. O.
Johnson as invited guests of their daughter, Miss Ida, and spent the time in social games. Ice cream and cake was served on a table daintily covered with flowers and dillies. Some beautiful music was rendered by Miss Sina Ladegard of Litchfield.

Arrangements are being perfected for the dedication of the new church at Austin, to take place a week from next Sunday, at 3 o'clock in the afternoon. A complete program of the services will appear in next week's issue.

John Oltmann last week purchased the Lan Benshoter residence property, the consideration being $1050. We understand he will move to town and give his children the benefit of our schools.

The new city well now at a depth of 175 feet, has been tested and found to throw three quarts of water per stroke, eighteen strokes per minute.
