Geo. Lee left for Colorado Wednesday morning on a business trip.

The M. E. ladies' aid society will meet with Mrs. J. I. Depew next Wednesday afternoon.

Will Criss started out with his steam thrasher Monday, going down into the southwest part of the county.

A. L. Zimmerman and family are expected home this evening from their trip to the Jamestown Exposition.

C. C. Cooper is putting in cement walks around his new residence. He expects to move into the new home the first of next week.

Mrs. Easter and four children of Chapman, this state, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Chase. Mesdames Chase and Easter were school girl friends.

Mrs. A. Erasm, accompanied by a sister, Mrs. A. Kozel of Humboldt, this state, will arrive this evening from Ravenna to visit her daughter, Mrs. Gus. Lorentz.

Rev. Bantz, son-in-law of Wm. Aufrecht of Washington township, will preach for our Methodist friends next Sunday morning. A cordial invitation to all to attend.

For use on sewing machines, typewriters, bicycles and all purposes requiring a fine lubricant, the best is always the cheapest in the end. Genuine Singer oil can be obtained at the "Singer Store."

Mrs. Ward Ver Valin and Ray Kearns go to Kearney Friday morning as delegates from the C. E. society here to the District Convention which meets Friday and continues over Sunday.

C. W. Fletcher last week sold his residence property adjoining the M. E. parsonage to Uncle Bob Jackson. We understand Uncle Bob will engage in the fancy poultry business. Later, Mr. Fletcher bought Dick Baker's new house in the north part of town, trading that to Mr. Jackson and taking back the first named place.

Rev. A. L. Nordin of St. Paul, missionary of the American Sunday school association, will preach at the Ballie school house in Washington township next Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Mr. and Mrs. Bert McKinnis will sing at these services and a number of Loup City people will attend, if the weather is suitable.

M. L. Miller resigned his position in the First National bank and left this morning for Columbus and from there may possibly go to San Francisco. He went down to Omaha last Friday on a business trip, returning Tuesday evening, when he tendered his resignation. Mr. Miller said he had a much better position offered him, and goes to better himself. Good luck to him.

Lester, the 12-year-old son of Treasurer Hiddleston, fell from a tree at the home last evening about 6 o'clock, falling helplessly on his right side and rendering him unconscious. Up to this writing, while the boy is apparently better and perfectly conscious, he remembers nothing of his fall, nor the fact of being up in the tree, and fear is felt that he may be injured internally. We trust matters are not so serious as the fears expressed.

The union services of the Presbyterian and Baptist congregations in the public square last Sunday evening were quite well attended, the services short and effective, the sermon by Rev. McEwen being especially interesting and the music most pleasing. The chairs placed to accommodate those who were estimated to attend proved inadequate to seat all and the grassy plot seated large numbers beside.

There was a good attendance at the Mother's meeting held at Mrs. G. H. Gibson's. The article written by Mrs. J. P. Leininger will long be remembered as the subject was taken from the depths of nature, dwelling on how we should live with our children. Mrs. J. I. Depew gave an interesting article on "Obedience" and Mrs. E. L. Burns gave an impromptu address on "A Mother's Care of Her Boys and Girls," followed by a solo "Somebody's Child" by Mrs. Holcombe, and a piano solo by Mrs. Geo. Leininger.

An infantile party in honor of little Dolly Hilsabeck was given Monday afternoon by her aunt, Mrs. C. C. Outhouse, quite a number of the little household angels being present.

Expressman Lou Williams' team engaged for the 'steenth time, last Thursday evening, in their pleasant pastime. No damage of consequence. Lou's team is certainly the limit and breaks all records.

Gene Henry returned from Omaha last Friday evening, where he has been attending business college. He will do stenographic work for Lawyer Starr at least till that busy attorney catches up with his rush of business matters.

Mr. and Mrs. Gus Lorentz were called to Ravenna last Saturday evening to attend the funeral of Mrs. Lorentz' grandmother, who died at Humboldt, this state, the body being taken to Ravenna for burial. Deceased was Mrs. Erasm's mother.

Mesdames Angier and Callahan entertained the members of the Entre Nous club last Thursday afternoon at their camp on the river, the poorer half of each member being invited to come down to eat supper and spend the evening at the camp. A splendid time was reported.

Mrs. Dodds and Miss Hazel Bridgford, who are visiting their sister, Mrs. M'Bele Burleigh, will leave Saturday morning for Hooper, this state, to visit a brother for a day or two, thence to Jefferson, Iowa, where Mrs. Dodds' husband will join her later, and return here for further visit.

When in Grand Island last Thursday, we met L. C. Everest, who is up to his eyes in putting up brick buildings. He has charge of all the brick work under a leading contractor and showed us one building nearing completion and another, the foundation of which is completed ready to begin the mason work. He has charge of several other contracts and says there is no end of work in his line. We are glad he is doing well and trust he may never find an idle moment when he wants to work.

The camp life of A. E. Chase and family ended Monday morning and they are home again, regretful that the outing was not longer. Here are a few who enjoyed camp life with them a portion of the time: W. T. Chase and family, Will Hawk and family, Art. Bennett and family, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Foster, Mrs. Harry Easter and children of Chapman, W. S. Walte and family, Misses Jennie and Fannie Sutton and Mr. Carl Johnson of Ord, Bud O'Bryan, Otis Hils, H. B. Munger and son.

The editor returned from Omaha last Saturday evening, accompanied by his sister-in-law, Miss Hazel Bridgford of Jefferson, Iowa, who will visit here perhaps ten days. Miss Bridgford has accepted the position of manager of the millinery department of a large firm at Boone, Iowa, where she goes the first of August.

Last Saturday afternoon, Master Howard Starr celebrated his 8th birthday anniversary with a party of his little friends and a very joyful occasion resulted. Those present were: Misses Frances Sleeth, Dolly Hilsabeck, Lucille and Eugenia Patton, Haline Mellor and Hazel Burleigh and Masters Roscoe Owens, Arthur Truelsen, Clyde and Karl Rettenmayer, Earl Taylor, Walter Jones and Vernon Wise.

ABOVE EVERYTHING ELSE

The Studebaker Wagon stands for the qualities that make wagons desirable. Light-running and easy on the team, durable because the lumber is seasoned right before being finished. Made to stand up under heavy loads.

THE STUDEBAKER WAGON

is built from first-class material down to the minutest detail. The slow-growing, fine-grained, tough-fibered black birch from the rocky hills of New England is used in the hubs, select white oak is made into spokes and felloes and choice second growth, butt cut hickory is used for the axles. Every other part as carefully selected. The skeins, tough and hard, are forced into place on the axles under 100 tons pressure. Studebaker axles shoulder spokes are driven into the hub under the same tremendous pressure. Best and toughest iron and steel strongly reinforces every part where needed. The Studebaker is
