Will Hold a Carnival Here

Loup City is going to have a carnival again this year. A number of the merchants and business men met in the park on Tuesday evening, organized temporarily by selecting R. M. Hiddleston as chairman and W. F. Mason as secretary, and elected W. D. Zimmerman, R. H. Mathew and A. E. Chase as head push, with power to appoint all sub-committees and transact all business connected therewith, first by unanimous vote deciding to hold said carnival. The date for holding the carnival was left at the discretion of the committee. It was decided to hold it wholly within the city, with the exception of the ball games, and there will be no racing nor other portion of the amusements at the fair grounds. Further particulars will be given from time to time.

ABOVE EVERYTHING ELSE

The Studebaker Wagon stands for the qualities that make wagons desirable. Light-running and easy on the team, durable because the lumber is seasoned right before being finished. Made to stand up under heavy loads.

THE STUDEBAKER WAGON

is built from first-class material down to the minutest detail. The slow-growing, fine-grained, tough-fibered black birch from the rocky hills of New England is used in the hubs, select white oak is made into spokes and felloes and choice second growth, butt cut hickory is used for the axles. Every other part as carefully selected. The skeins, tough and hard, are forced into place on the axles under 100 tons pressure. Studebaker slope shoulder spokes are driven into the hub under the same tremendous pressure. Best and toughest iron and steel strongly reinforces every part where needed. The Studebaker is and we sell it because the name is the best guarantee we can give of its excellence. We keep them in stock, and if we haven't the kind you want, in size or style, we can get one for you in the shortest possible time. We shall be glad to talk wagon to you and if you will come in we will give you some interesting reading matter about wagons.

AS A MATTER OF GENERAL INFORMATION to parties thinking of buying wagons within the next twelve months, will say: that the stock now in the hands of most of the retail merchants has been bought prior to the two last advances in price, which took place on May and July 1st, of this year, and that until the retail man has to replenish his stock, at the prices now in force, will be Compelled to Pay at Least 10 per cent more for a wagon than he can buy the some wagon for now. BUY your wagon early.

The Party Who Delays Buying
