A marriage license was issued last Saturday to Fred Stine of Grand Island and Miss Annie Roth of Ravenna, by our accommodating county judge, in the person of the handsome county clerk.
We regret to record that in the great struggle last Friday on the diamond between the Fats and Leans, the beefy individuals actually sat down so hard on their skeletalized opponents that the tired feeling has not so far been relieved, and it may take still another tussle and consequent defeat of the corpulent contingent before the matter may be amicably disposed of. The Silvers Julius contend that it is one of the impossibilities for a lightweight to overcome a heavyweight when the umpire goes wrong, and they'll be everlastingly dodged if they can't just hop all over and around their big enemy in another battle, when they propose at the time to have a string on the "empire." P. S.—The game was seven innings; Fats 11, Leans 9.
The many friends of Dr. B. W. Boyd, our popular veterinarian, will be pleased to learn that he has received a government appointment as inspector of live stock in the bureau of animal industry, with headquarters at East St. Louis, at which place he has been ordered to report by the 15th of September. The doctor will leave here by the first, and his wife to visit a few days at Shelton, this state, and at Esther, Mo., en route to his new field of labor. While congratulating Dr. Boyd over his fine appointment, we, in common with the host of friends made by the doctor and his fair wife, will regret that they are not to make their permanent home here, where Dr. Boyd has built up for himself a very lucrative practice. Of course, the Northwestern will make regular visits to their new home, that they may not lose track of their Sherman county friends.
The Presbyterian people are getting ready to entertain Kearney Presbytery, which meets in the local church on Tuesday evening, Sept. 10. The opening sermon will be preached on that evening by Rev. McEwen, who is the retiring moderator. Business sessions will be held all day Wednesday and on Wednesday evening a special treat will be in store for the people of the community in the form of a lecture delivered by Dr. Wm. Geil, the celebrated traveler and lecturer. Dr. Geil is pronounced one of the greatest speakers in America today and the world's greatest traveler. Last fall he returned from a five years' sojourn in foreign lands and next month goes back to China to explore the country along the Great Wall and the great Gobi desert south of Siberia. Not to hear him is to miss one of the greatest opportunities that has come to Loup City for many a day. The full program of Presbytery and the Sunday School Institute proceedings it will appear in next issue.

the Studebaker Wagon stands for the qualities that make wagons desirable. Light-running and easy on the team, durable because the lumber is seasoned right before being finished. Made to stand up under heavy loads.

THE STUDEBAKER WAGON

is built from first-class material down to the minutest detail. The slow-growing, fine-grained, tough-fibred black birch from the rocky hills of New England is used in the hubs, select white oak is made into spokes and felloes and choice second growth, butt cut hickory is used for the axles. Every other part as carefully selected. The skains, tough and hard, are forced into place on the axles under 100 tons pressure. Studebaker slope shoulder spokes are driven into the hub under the same tremendous pressure. Best and toughest iron and steel strongly reinforces every part where needed. The Studebaker is and we sell it because the name is the best guarantee we can give of its excellence. We keep them in stock, and if we haven't the kind you want, in size or style, we can get one for you in the shortest possible time. We shall be glad to talk wagon to you and if you will come in we will give you some interesting reading matter about wagons.

AS A MATTER OF GENERAL INFORMATION to parties thinking of buying wagons within the next twelve months, will say: that the stock now in the hands of most of the retail merchants has been bought prior to the two last advances in price, which took place on May and July 1st, of this year, and that until the retail man has to replenish his stock, at the prices now in force, will be Compelled to Pay at Least 10 per cent more for a wagon than he can buy the same wagon for now. BUY your wagon early.
