Our public schools will re-open next Monday morning. An elegant line of souvenir spoons at Jeffords'. Get his prices.

Dentist Marcy and family left this morning on their extended visit east. Mr. Editor Cooley is in the city in the interest of his magazine and interviewing business men. From what we have learned of the enterprise it will be a splendid advertisement of Loup City, and her people and of a very profitable nature to all concerned.

Last Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Marvel, eight miles east of Loup City, delightfully entertained Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Pedler, Miss Sarah Pedler, Mrs. R. L. Arthur, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Burelgh and Miss Hazel Burelgh, in honor of their niece, Miss Rae Harris, who is soon to return to Oregon as a bride, the lucky man being a Mr. E. A. Searle of Wallawa, Oregon whose fortunes will be united on the 10th instant at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Marvel, particulars of which will be given our readers later. Mr. Marvel is the possessor of a comfortable home, a wife who knows how to make the plate with the best of grace in the world, as we know, is the lucky possessor of some 800 acres of rich Sherman county land, well stocked with cattle, hogs and horses, and is happy in the possession of a son who is the pride and an honor to the home.

Chief Game Warden George L. Carter has ordered 100 pairs of Hungarian partridges and will parcel them out over the state wherever money can be raised to pay for them. These birds are similar to the ordinary bobwhite quail, though the size. These birds will cost Mr. Carter $4.50 per pair and he will ship them for nothing. The people of Gordon have raised $150 to secure some of the birds and those of Merriam have subscribed $100 more. The State will keep four pairs on the State reservation at South Bend, where they will be thoroughly protected. These birds are nonmigratory and when placed in a community will make their home there for all time. They are hardy and prolific. Letters from the wardens of Illinois and Kansas indicate that these partridges have been placed there to great advantage. The State of Illinois secured 500 pairs last year and they have increased wonderfully. Another installment will be secured this year. Mr. Carter will receive the birds in December. He has more than half of them placed already and wants the names of other communities where the birds would be welcomed.

Clear Creek. Maggie Mead is home from Billings. Mrs. Vian has leased her farm to her son-in-law. Jerry Vian has sold his farm. Will Coly sold his farm and will move to Stanton. Mrs. Will Heapy commenced an eight months' term of school in Dist. No. 25.

Hazard Happenings. Mrs. T. A. Donahoe was a Ravena visitor Tuesday last week. Mrs. Rosch of Woodruff, was a guest of Mrs. T. A. Donahoe last week. H. H. Thompson made a business trip to Litchfield last Saturday. The arrest of a pick-pocket caused quite a little excitement in our quiet burg last Thursday. The pick-pocket, who gave his name as Ed Hill, took $55 from a man in Pleasanton and was followed here by Constable Grammar, who arrested him as he was about to catch the train for the east. John Philpot, who has been spending the past month on his ranch in the sand hills, arrived home Monday. Mrs. Caldwell went to Ravenna Monday to have an operation performed for blood poisoning. M. C. Wind was a Mason City visitor Saturday, returning Sunday. Elmer Adams is here this week putting the finishing touches to the new bank.

Miss Philpot who has been spending the past two months here, returned to Omaha last Thursday. A. L. Trester who has added an improvement to our town in the shape of a blacksmith shop, opened up ready for business Monday morning. The Norwegian minister is having a new barn built.

OBITUARY.

Grandma Anderson. On last Saturday morning, August 31, 1907, at 2 a. m., at her residence in northwest Loup City, occurred the death of Mrs. Andrew Anderson, of the age of 72 years and 29 days, the funeral services being held from the M. E. church on Sunday afternoon. Mrs. Anderson, whose maiden name was Katie Michaelson, was born in Sweden July 2, 1835. On the 5th of November, 1864, she was married to Andrew Anderson, to whom were born eight children, four of whom, with the husband, survive her. With her family, she came to America and Nebraska, in July, 1882, where they have since resided. The surviving children are Mrs. Chas. Larsen and Mrs. P. Larson of Washington township, and Albert and Carl Anderson of near town, who have the heartfelt sympathy of their many friends in their bereavement. The Northwestern is requested to return the sincere and heartfelt thanks of the sorrowing family to the friends who have been so kind in the sickness and subsequent death of the loved wife and mother.

Edgar Hawk. We regret this week to record the death of Edgar Hawk from typhoid fever, which occurred last Sunday evening, at 7:45 at the home of his sister, Mrs. C. F. Beushausen, in this city. Mr. Hawk was taken ill some two weeks since and about a week ago was taken to the home of his sister, where he continued to grow worse till death claimed its own. He was a son of Mrs. J. L. Hawk and is survived by two sisters and two brothers, Mrs. Etta Snyder of Buffalo county, Mrs. C. F. Beushausen, Will Hawk and a twin brother, Edwin Hawk, all of whom are in the city in the absence of his mother on a visit east and whose whereabouts cannot be ascertained. His brother, Will, was present when death called, as was also his sister, Nellie, the other sister and twin brother not arriving here till late in the evening. He was a resident of Loup City. No announcement of the time of the funeral has been made, awaiting if possible the arrival of the mother, who it is thought may arrive this evening, as work has been sent her at several points where she may be found. The bereaved relatives have the sincere and heartfelt sympathy of the Northwestern and the entire community in their sorrow.

Miss Florence Criss, a former well known Loup City girl, and granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Criss, was married in Missouri on the 28th of last month, the lucky fellow being a Mr. Chas. Graham.

Dr. Geil who speaks on "Cannibals, Before and After," at the Presbyterian church next Wednesday evening, is neither a minister nor a missionary, but a traveler, explorer and author. Not to hear him is to miss an opportunity that does not come often. Mr. and Mrs. P. McKinnie will add to the pleasure of this occasion by rendering a duet.

The school board met in adjourned session on Monday evening of this week, with four members present. E. G. Taylor was given the contract for furnishing coal for the school during the coming year. Miss Nettie Conger was given a raise of $5 per month on her salary. Miss Blanche Bennett tendered her resignation as teacher, which was accepted and Mr. A. M. Young elected in her place. The balance of the work of the board was the usual routine duties.

The Northwestern is pleased to note the coming year, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Young, a live stock auctioneer of merit, from Creston, Iowa, has come to Loup City with the intention of making it his home. While a comparatively young man, Col. Beaumont has had five years' experience in the business, associated with Col. John F. Carter, one of the best noted men in Iowa's great stock business, and who has great faith in the future of Col. Beaumont. While Col. Beaumont makes a specialty of live stock sales, he will cry sales of all kinds and guarantee to give satisfaction in every instance. Although he has only been here a few days, he has in that time secured several live stock sales, at which we have no doubt he will demonstrate splendid ability as an auctioneer and pave for himself a leading place among men of his class. Knowing Col. Russell as we do by reputation and by reading his notices, we cry some of the biggest fine horse and cattle sales in Iowa, we feel assured that Col. Beaumont, as a protégé of his, and associated with him as he has been, must be of superior merit in that line of business, and feel confident in recommending him to the readers of the Northwestern who may be contemplating public sales of live stock or anything in the sale line. Orders left at either of the Loup City banks, or with the Northwestern, may secure the services the gentleman, if being authorized to make dates for him.

Hon. Thos. Darnall, the noted prohibitionist lawyer and orator, was here last Sunday, speaking in the afternoon at the Baptist church, and in the evening to a union meeting at the Presbyterian church. In the afternoon an anti-saloon league was organized with A. L. Zimmerman as president, C. B. Sweetland as secretary, and E. A. Brown, treasurer. A committee to enforce the provisions of the Slocum law was elected, as follows: Jno. W. Long, E. G. Taylor, W. S. Walste and G. S. Lellingner. We understand it is the intention of the league to enforce all the provisions of the liquor law, that the committee will report on such matters to the league, and President Zimmerman will see that the officers do their duty along the lines of rigorous enforcement. By a law passed by the legislature in the last legislature, if complaint is made to the proper officers of violation of any law and said officers do not take active methods to see the law enforced they may be cited to appear before the higher tribunal and show sufficient cause for non-prosecution or be deposed from office. It is claimed even by the saloon interests that an observance of the Slocum law to the letter would make it impossible for any saloon to exist in Nebraska. If that be the case and the anti-saloon league does business, it could seem as though a merry way is in prospect. But then, when did any anti-saloon organization do more than "Resolve, etc."
