Judgment Against Railroad.

For the third time the supreme court has handed down an opinion in the case of John F. This action was based upon a contract entered into in 1892 under the terms of which Parkins was to furnish to the deefndant 50,000 cubic yards of gravel for ballast purposes, the same to be loaded on the cars at Springfield and approved by the defendant's superintendent.

The court holds that a new trial will not be granted upon the ground of newly discovered evidence where such evidence is merely cumulative and would not in all probability affect the result if a new trial were granted. It is also held that the defendant is not entitled to a new trial upon the ground of surprise, as the testimony complained of as surprising could have been brought out by cross-examination at any of the previous trials.

Report on the Weather.

October, according to the record of the United States department of agrieral of the larger towns to work up culture, kept in Lincoln for twentyfour years, has a mean temperature of 55 degrees. The warmest month was in 1883 with an average of 63 degrees, the coldest that of 1885 with an cution under the child labor law average of 46. The highest temperashould be granted the packers and ture was 92 degrees on the 12th, 1899, other large manufacturers in Omaha. the lowest was 15 degrees on the 29th, 1895. The greatest monthly precipitation was 6:03 inches in 1883 and the least .01 inches in 1893. On the 17th, 1898, 4.7 inches of snow fell.

Big Railroad Business.

Reports of the Burlington, the Northwestern and the Union Pacific railroads for the month of July, which to take the place vacated by Judge have been received by the state railway commission, indicate an immense business in both freight and passenger departments. The state business in freight forwarded amounts to more than half of the interstate business, while it is less than one-third of the Fawcett of Omaha has been offered interstate business in the amount of freight received durnig the month.

A Ventilation Test.

It is very hard to make an impression on those people who defend their possessions on all occasions. A lady was explaining to a visitor the many advantages of concrete hollow-block construction, of which the walls of her new home were built.

"The air spaces in the walls afford insulation against heat in summer and cold in winter," she explained. "Besides, such walls afford ventilation and insure a more healthful house." The visitor reflected a moment, and replied:

"Our frame house must be quite as well built. Every night we lock the cat in the cellar, and have to let her out of the attic in the morning."-Youth's Companion.

Mary's Important Testimony.

Justice Brewer, of the United States supreme court is said to be the author of this story: A witness testified in a certain case that a person named Mary was present when a particular conversation took place and the question was asked: "What did Mary say?" This was objected to and after some discussion the judge ruled out the question. An exception to this decision was immediately taken and At the second trial the same inquiry was propounded and elicited the information that "Mary said nothing."

Remarkable Photography. Photography has caught the fastest express train in motion by means of the cinematograph, and it also shows the growth of a flower. A bud which bursts into bloom in, say, 16 days, is exposed to a camera every 15 minutes during the 16 days, and when the pictures developed from the films are assembled in order in the moving picture machine, the observer may see, to his delight, all in a minute or two, the gradual breaking of the bud-the blossoms open, close by night and reopen in the morning, the leaves grow under the eye, the stamens peep from cover, and, finally, the full-blown flower.

Known by His Friends.

A forlorn looking man was brought before a magistrate for drunkenness and disorderly conduct. When asked what he had to say for himself, he gazed pensively at the judge, smoothed down a remnant of gray hair, and said:

"Your honor, 'Man's inhumanity to man makes countless thousands mourn.' I'm not as debased as Swift. as profligate as Byron, as dissipated as Poe, or as debauched as-"

"That will do," thundered the magistrate. "Thirty days! And, officer, take a list of those names and run 'em in. They're as bad a lot as he is."-Lippincott's Magazine.

Beecher Scored Point.

Justin McCarthy tells a story of the late Henry Ward Beecher. Mr. Beecher entered Plymouth church one Sunday and found several letters awaiting him. He opened one and found it contained the single word "Fool." Quietly and with becoming seriousness he announced to the congregation the fact in these words: "I have known many an instance of a man writing a letter and forgetting to sign his name, but this is the only instance I have ever known of a man signing his name and forgetting to write the letter."

TRANSFORMATIONS.

Curious Results When Coffee Drinking Is Abandoned.

It is almost as hard for an old coffee toper to quit the use of coffee as it is for a whisky or tobacco fiend to break off, except that the coffee user can quit coffee and take up Postum without any feeling of a loss of the morning beverage, for when Postum is well boiled and served with cream, it is really better in point of flavor than most of the coffee served nowadays, and to the taste of the connoisseur it is like the flavor of fine, mild Java. A great transformation takes place in the body within ten days or two weeks after coffee is left off and Postum used, for the reason that the poison to the nerves—caffeine—has been discontinued, and in its place is taken a liquid food that contains the most powerful elements of nourish-

Happy marriages are surely possible even in these unpoetic, hard-hearted times.
