J., where he attended the meeting of the American Bankers' association as a delegate from the Nebraska Bankers' association. He reports that the Nebraska delegation was one of the largest in attendance and that the delegates from the west were conspicuous in all of the deliberations of the convention. A shipper who sent a carload of stock beyond Alliance reports that he was charged by the Burlington 60 cents a bushel for corn for feeding at Aurora, and that whn Alliance was reached $1.80 a hundred was charged. As this is almost more than 40 cents a bushel more at Alliance than at Aurora, and as the Aurora charge was held by him to be a rather stiff price, he has made a roar.

Will the price of land adapted to the raising of corn advance to $150 to $200 an acre within the next ten. years? That is the prediction of John P. Thiesen, representative from the Fairbury district, and one of the most conservative farmers in Nebraska. Mr. Thiesen does not marvel at the price people are paying for corn land today, and he looks upon $100 an acre as nothing out of the way. A sad sight took place in David City when the family of John Weber was separated. Mr. Weber was unable to support his wife and three children. The mother, not being able either, was taken to the county farm, and the three children were taken in charge by Miss Louise Rankin, representing the Home of Homeless Children. Miss Rankin took the two boys and little girl to Omaha; where she will enleavor to find homes for them.

An immense amount of apples have been shipped from Tekamah this fall. Buyers from Sioux City and Kansas City have canvassed the county and purchased the apples for so much a bushel on the trees

The new freight depot of the Northwestern at Fremont is about finished and will be ready for use by Nov. 1. The Commercial club will celebrate its opening by a banquet in the large central room on the first floor. The building is conceded to be the largest and best of its kind outside of Omaha only in the entire state.

William Van Debergh, who is one of the pioneers of Talmage, caused considerable excitement in the village, as he threatened to shoot two of his relatives. He has been sent twice to Lincoln to cure him of the drinking habit, but the cure has been a failure.

Food Commissioner Johnson has written a letter to the county attorney of Douglas county ordering him to begin prosecuting the packing houses. The prosecution will be based on a failure on the part of the managers of these corporations to mark the correct weight on packages.

SAYS MINES WERE SALTED

Investors Not to Lose-Prime Movers in Organization Will Redeem All Stock.

Helena, Mont.-The Record publishes a story to the effect that numerous Montana and Washington investors have been mulcted to the extent of more than a third of a million dollars through the discovery that certain placer mines near Lender, Wyo., had been salted and that the property in question is worthless.

Thomas L. Greenough, of Missoula, and J. F. Greenough, of Spokane, who were the prime movers in the organization, have notified all investors that they will redeem all stock at the price paid, thus assuming the loss.

The discovery that the property was salted was due to an independent examination conducted by Speaker E W. King, of the Montana legislature, and J. R. Neill, of Spokane, heavy prospective investors, who found after removing a few inches of the shaft walls, that the ground was value less, as were the tailings, although all previous experiments showed values ranging from 20 cents to nine dollars a yard.
