J. W. BURLEIGH, Ed. and Pub.

There were thirty-one women elected county superintendents of schools in Nebraska at the late election.

President Roosevelt signed the papers on Monday admitting Oklahoma as the forty-sixth state in the Union.

The gasoline motor car put on the Northwestern road between Fremont and York has been pulled off. Didn't prove a financial success.

It is claimed that within the past twenty years one million three hundred thousand divorces have been granted in the United States.

An alleged swindler, selling a wire stretcher, is working Nebraska. The note for $3 which the farmer signs turns up a short time later calling for $300.

W. J. Bryan in his last week's Commoner breaks the silence and says what everybody already knows, that he is a candidate for Roosevelt's presidential shoes.

Charles T. Barney, president of the late defunct Knickerbocker Trust Co. of New York, committed suicide last Friday. It is said matters will come to light which makes it not strange he did so.

A fine of $330,000 has been imposed upon the Santa Fe road for rebalancing. Yes, and twenty-nine millions of dollars of a fine upon the Standard Oil plutocrats. But has any one heard of, or expected either to be paid?

There is quite a howl about nepotism in the state offices at Lincoln. The land commissioner has his wife hired as a clerk. The state superintendent of instruction has had his wife hired as a clerk in his office, but has read the handwriting on the wall and discharged her. The secretary of state's office is said to be somewhat similarly situated, while nepotism is said to exist even in the governor's office. Perhaps they go under the Bible injunction that "A man who provideth not for his own is worse than an infidel," or words to that effect. But seriously, it would seem that it is not the intent of the voters to provide work and salaries for the entire families in the election of the heads of official position. Such kind of report will not go a great ways in returning those heads of departments to their several places of official honor.

Along R. R. No. 1.

Ira Coppersmith died suddenly last (Wednesday) evening of heart failure. We have no particulars, the sad news coming at too late an hour to ascertain them for this week. He was one of the jolly Coppersmith brothers, so popular on the route, and his death will be sincerely regretted by all who have known him.

Mrs. F. A. Pinckney received the sad news Friday morning that her father had been killed by a train at Brady Island, Neb., Thursday, Nov. 14th, but in some way the message was delayed until Friday, when she took the 3 o'clock train. The carrier as well as all the patrons along the route sympathize with Mrs. Pinckney in her deep sorrow.

J. A. Converse has painted his barn the past week.

Frank Grow took supper and breakfast at H. S. Conger's Sunday.

Charley Larson is building a new barn.

Frank Weedin took a trip east on the train last week.

Mrs. W. O. Brown has had a very sick spell, but is better at this writing.

Christ Zwink took a load of hogs to Loup City, Monday.

H. L. Bell was an early caller at Loup City Monday.

Dar Grow went out to the west bridge Monday morning.

Ray McFadden and wife spent Sunday at H. S. Conger's.

F. O. Johnson's boy was helping J. A. Arnett shell corn last week.

Roy Eaton threshed his alfalfa last week and got 11 bushels.

Anton Dymac took a load of corn to market Monday.

The river was pretty high Sunday.

One of Christ Sinner's little children has the scarlet fever.

Velva Fross was very sick last week, which kept her from school several days.
