Republican County Convention

At a meeting of the Republican County Central Committee in and for Sherman county, Nebraska, held at the office of Aaron Wall, Chairman in Loup City, among other things the following business was transacted, to-wit: Ordered that the next Republican County Convention to be held in said county for the purpose of selecting and electing five (5) delegates to the State Republican Convention and five (5) delegates to the Congressional Convention, Sixth District, to be held respectively at Omaha, Nebraska, on the 12th day of March, 1908, be held at Loup City on the 6th day of March, 1908, at 11 o'clock in the forenoon and that the respective townships of said county will be entitled to the following representation in said County Convention as follows:

- One delegate for each twenty (20) votes cast for the Hon. H. T. Clarke, Commissioner, at the general election in Nebraska for the year 1907, and one delegate for each major fraction thereof and one delegate at large for each precinct of said county; upon said basis of representation the following named precincts will be entitled to delegates in said convention as follows:
- Ashton..... 5 Loup City..... 13
- Bristol..... 2 Oak Creek..... 2
- Clay..... 3 Rockville..... 2
- Ellis..... 2 Scott..... 2
- Harrison..... 2 Washington..... 4
- Hazard..... 4 Webster..... 3
- Logan..... 2

It is further recommended by said committee that the various precincts hold their respective primaries on the 28th day of February, 1908.
AARON WALL,
Chairman County Central Committee.
Attest: R. P. STARR, Sec.

Additional Locals.

Attorney Starr drove to Ashton on business Tuesday afternoon.
The Loup City Mercantile Co. can save you money on a tailor made suit.
C. C. Cooper has sold an interest in his Austin store to Edgar Daddow, who now has charge of the same.

Word comes from Mrs. J. P. Leininger at Omaha that her daughter, Miss Adeline, is improving nicely from her operation for appendicitis and it is thought will be able to be brought home inside of another week.

The musical recital given last Friday evening by Mr. and Mrs. B. P.
McKinnie, assisted by Mrs. R. P.
Starr as accompanist, was conceded by all present to have been the finest musical treat ever heard in our city.
The church edifice was filled with the very cream of our intelligent and music loving people, each number heartily applauded and the encores most frequent, the recalls being received with even more enthusiasm than the original numbers. It was estimated that fully 400 people were present, indeed only standing room left. The well known reputation of Mr. McKinnie as one of the best baritones on the American stage, and Mrs. McKinnie being a prima donna whose superb voice has been heard in grand opera, as Miss Tekla Farm, with the Savage Grand Opera and with Mme. Schumann-Heink, and our people having heard them both in solos and duets at various entertainments given here, prepared our people to hear what proved to be the best and most artistic musical recital ever given in Loup City. Mr. McKinnie has one of the most perfect baritone voices ever given the public, and the fact that he has become a prime favorite personally with all, made the occasions given him natural and expected. Mrs. McKinnie, who has a wonderful voice and in superb control, delivered magnificent and personality on the stage or off it, of the whole-souled, cheerful, unaffected kind which wins people, gained the hearts of her hearers and with her husband equally received the plaudits of the vast audience present. Mrs. Starr, not only as accompanist, but in rendering her instrumental solos, highly pleased those present and gave evidence of superior musical merit. All in all, the recital was of an exceedingly high musical order and received the unstinted approbation of each and every one.

"Monte Cristo"

That stirring romantic melodrama, "Monte Cristo," will be presented at opera house, Loup City, Nebr., Saturday, February 22nd. To all who love a production that is full of spirit and comedy, and that eventually brings the hero off with flying colors, while the villain gets his just deserts, should not fail to see this, as a dramatic feast is said to be in store for the theatre loving public of this city. It is said the play is most effectively staged, the scenery being appropriate, some of it approaching the magnificent.

It certainly pays for the farmer to kill his own porkers for home use. A fortnight since, H. B. Musser killed three of his fat hogs, securing enough lard from the same at the market price to bring to his exchequer as large an amount as he would have received had he sold them to shippers, leaving over and above all the balance of the product as profit.

THEATRE TALK NO. 4.

People who want to improve the theatre should go to the theatre. THE DEMAND CREATES THE SUPPLY, but no amount of supply will create a demand. THERE WILL BE GOOD PLAYS AND BAD PLAYS ACCORDING TO AUDIENCES ATTENDING.
YOU'LL ENJOY MONTE CRISTO

The play should teach the ethics of life by example. IT CAN AND IT DOES. It appeals to our better instincts and our ideals.
The cry today is that the play is not what it should be. Just how great it shall be rests primarily with the public that can come or stay away. IF IT ALLOWS THE STAGE TO BE RULED BY THE VULGAR AND THE LICENTIOUS IT WILL GET THAT KIND OF PLAYS. There's no need to say much about "Monte Cristo" which will be presented here soon.

The Dumas play has been before the public for over seventy years. Its admirers will flock to the theatre just as they have always done in the past. And with good reason, for "Monte Cristo" is one of the "bully" good plays.

In the presentation in this city of "Monte Cristo" every department as it will be presented here will be completely handled.
LADIES AND GENTLEMEN OF KNOWN ABILITY WILL COMPOSE THE CAST. The atmosphere of the play will be set to magnificent

THE HONOR OF A SAILOR OF FRANCE.

scenery. Let us in passing, however, say a few words regarding the manner of production as the management have been to considerable expense in the elaboration of the mounting. THE FIRST ACT SHOWS THE PORT OF MARSEILLES. The second act displays the Chateau d'If; the fortress prison on the sea's edge. The third act is the storm scene and it is made impressively attractive. THE FOURTH ACT IS THE HOTEL DE' MORCERF, consisting of the ball room and conservatory, which embodies an artistic combination of beautiful colors. The last act is a glade in the Forest of Fontain-bleau in which the famous duel occurs. These scenes are carried and used in every town and city.

No matter what may be your taste for the drama you will enjoy seeing "Monte Cristo." IF YOU CARE FOR A GOOD PLAY PRESENTED WITH ALL THE PROPER ACCESSORIES and so admirably played that it will give you an evening of thorough enjoyment, you'll not be disappointed in the production by this company. USUAL PRICES WILL PREVAIL. "YOUR MONEY'S WORTH OR YOUR MONEY BACK."
