Word to the Wise About CLOTHING

We are headquarters for Tailor-Made Suits. We have about 1200 new Spring Samples to select from. Some of the most reasonable priced and Leading Tailors of the United States. We can sell a made-to-order suit from $12 up and guarantee a fit. We are not new in this business, as we have had years of experience in this line. You know that most any one can take a measure, but to get a fit a man must have experience.

Call in and look our line over and let us show you what we can do.

Suicide or Otherwise?

Nearly Lost an Eye.

While assisting at the Dinsdale yards yesterday in dipping cattle, Lou Winklemann came within an ace of losing an eye. While prodding cattle, one of the animals lunged against the end of the prod jamming the other end into Lou's forehead just above the eyeball, requiring four stitches to sew up the wound made.

Anti-Saloon Man Egged.

A nasty report comes from Ashton to the effect that while Rev. Carnes, superintendent of the state anti-saloon league, was delivering a lecture there Monday evening, four men, whose names are now in possession of the county attorney, did the hoodlum act in the meeting, disturbing it by loud talk, nagging the speaker, throwing peanut shells, flashing a quart bottle of whiskey and drinking from the same publicly, and nearly breaking up the meeting by their acts, and at the close, when the speaker was going home with Mr. and Mrs. Dunker, these same men threw hen fruit of unknown age at them. The names of these men have been handed the Northwestern, but we prefer not disclosing same till we learn what action, if any, may be taken in the matter. The facts above, if true, make the occurrence an everlasting disgrace to the name and fame of our fair little village on the eastern slope of the county.
