IMEDIATELY after Tib's ncounter with Chuck Me-Burr we started on our long trip to the land of graft and graciousness, and after a long, tedious jaunt caught the homebound steamer, skirted Labrador and finally sneaked through the Strait of Belle Isle and reached the blessed St. Lawrence Now for sweet rest and the inno were left alone.

cent spectacle of a cow chewing her cud in some Vermont vale,' I sighed, luxuriously, when we'd been in Montreal for a day.

"Telegram for you, sir,' said the portly crook who mismanaged our ho tel.

"The boss says we are to catch the Saucy Liz, sealer, at Vancouver, and take a mild little run north to Kinack, on the tip of Point Barrow, peptics. mused Tib, eying me furtively.

'Not to win several bets,' I protested indignantly. 'Ill wire him a refusal,' he declared stoutly. "Inside of two hours he was back, smiling genially. Pay Monsieur Garcon Whang-Bang and pack up, he cried joyously.

"And, to abbreviate, that night found us on the C. P., booming, so far as I was concerned, very disconsolately westward.

"The captain of the sealer, we quickly discovered, was an old employe of the circus, and had often collected odd chunks of Arctic life for the big shows. We had been with him once on an Iceland trip. His quest now was a mighty one, being nothing less than a whole village of tame polar bears. Needless to say, he was playing second fiddle to my patron when it came to annexing such important brutes, and even I began to lose my melancholy frown when I appreciated the fat bonus awaiting a successful outcome of the venture. So gradually waxing almost human in my deportment to Tib, we sailed away from the realm of the open work sock.

"You should know, sir, that there is no better card for a menagerie than the Ursus maritimus; and despite his tamed and is unusually acute of per cention. All the up-to-date animal shows have poiars that will do all sorts of tricks and never growl. But as it costs like sin to get them, and as it takes time to make out their naturalization papers, an opportunity to pilfer a whole bevy of the deep-coated entertainers is a chance no quadruped king can allow to die of neglect.

"The four-footed treasure-trove was the property of one Olfen, an aged missionary, said the sealer. The old man had been deserted by his innuit charges and had filled in his time snaring and domesticating the varmints. The Saucy Liz was the first heat in two years to obtrude on his privacy, and as he was short of fodder the intrusion was very welcome. He had accepted the sealer's proposal that he come to the States and live in comfort at the expense of the circus, while his pets earned his ease by traveling in the menagerie.

"ifp to the north we climbed the coast growing ever more bleak and desolate-past Nome and its goldsanded shores, stopping at Chuck Cape just long enough to pick up some native hunters, and ultimately rounding the shoulder of Alaska, where the full force of the cold-storage zephyrs caused our stanch little craft to growl

TIBERIUS SMITH His Grizzlies' Football Team Makes Good

By HUGH PENDEXTER ---

(Copyright, by Joseph B. Bowles.)

door caused me to open it, and there | crouched in line, easerly awaiting the | was a nine-foot, sixteen-hundred-pound signals. And after they got so they toy sitting on his haunches and polite- | could perform each hurricane dash ly salaaming. Tib said the old boy without a flaw, Tim and I fell on each with Tib and me at quarter and half- they got an inkling when a rash tackle the faithful, shattered squad. The six was hungry and, finding a stock of other's necks and shed tears of disdried fish, we led the seven into their tilled joy.

rock corral behind the hut-and say, "'They are so blessed human, Billy," for endurance in gastronomic stunts he sobbed, in apology for his emotion. those fairies had all the old Roman And he gave each champion a fish. gluttons reduced to light-weight dys-"Then came a dampener to our spirits that caused us to forget the "Just as we had cemented the engridiron for the nonce. I had gone to tente cordiale by the simple donation the heach at the first intimation of a cloud of snow capered over the hut clearing weather, but instead of sightand the captain gained the open in ing the sealer I beheld four big oomithree jumps. 'An inshore wind,' he acs, well filled with jovial murderers. cried in explanation 'I've got to It required no second glance to see save Liz. Stay here and I'll beat back that they were our late neighbors, and at the first let-up.' And his lank form in the bows of each ferry stood a spear was lost in a swirl of feathers and we or harpoon-brandishing midget, inth mating with easy grace that I was

"We built a rousing fire, for despite next. These simple gesticulations the month the ground was covered alone evinced that they were in rare with cotton batting and the raw fettle for acting rogaish and Paule Rebreezes owned the beach. We were vere would have been distanced. pleased to note the Innuits had disap-"Tib stood in the doorway as I blew peared from the map when the storm within his ken, and he had already broke loose. Olfen's letter was not very reassuring, you know. After we had fixed up the hut we paid another visit to the bears. Tib's control over them was something uncanny. They seemed to dope out everything he said, and on the first day he taught them to form pyramids and do several stereotyped tricks.

"What an elegant football squad they'd make,' I carelessly observed on cated a large bottle, affectionately any one play. And, of course, Tib and and every bear knew it, and Maude the third morning, as he dealt out the fish.

"Tib stood transfixed for a minute, and then cut a pigeon-wing of un. obvious they had procured the fire-Billy!' he cried, and straightway be- tain was ashore with us. gan planning for a Polar Bear eleven.

natural ferocity and the fact that he He said he would borrow the four trappings of war, but could find noth-

"Of course we searched the hut for seemingly oblivious to fear.

pected the bears, and, being used to germs he turned in the middle of a that kind of trouble, were loaded with growl and seemed to apologize to Min- Tib, wiping the blood from his eyes. an antidote in the shape of bone nie for his rudeness. tipped spears. And yet the shaggy, orderly array puzzled them and beggar, and only Tib's shrick of apwarned that we were there for no proval kept him from chasing his man. parlor pastime. Seeing us come to a And I jumped four feet on high just prostrate guard. halt they foolishly assumed a massed to pat his head. Then, perfectly reasformation, like a revolving wedge, and sured, he made a scythelike sweep and gantic, white sillies as they tossed brusquely advanced to try us out. knocked a midget out of sight.

"We had now gained 20 yards, and "'Minnie!' cried Tib, and that blithesome lass began to make a detour to still retained the ball. 'Play a saloon the right, with the others ambling game,' begged Tib, prancing up and joyfully along behind. Well, sir, it down behind Rudolph and studying the simply swept the gang off its feet. It field.

"The visitors, still failing to apprewas all done so quickly and neatly ciate that they had been working the that we'd flanked them before they saw a light. Then Minnie halted and wrong combination, now drew back waited for us to form the line. long enough to tess up a few orisons

"Then the chief took a sip from his to their tribal deity, and then came flagon and coughed out a signal, and smash against our center before we detected the menace. He dragged me the beggars speedily presented a new could budge. Dear, dear! how foolish inside and closed the portal, just as front and again prepared to rush. You of them, sir, when they could have the amiable rattlesnakes beached their see, we had an elegant chance to cut run the ends!

boats and set up a song of rancor. for the beach after the first end-play, "'Boom-a-lacka! hoom-a-lacka!' Then they did a little green-corn dance but our players had been trained in the howled, recalling a fragment of the old and set our football stars to growling corral, where they were forced to halt yell, while Tib spoiled an off-side play with a cloud of spears and arrows. 1 after making 30 feet. So the benight- with his club and called on the left was puzzled to know what had surfeit- ed romps had absorbed the impres- end again to lead off. ed them with courage until Tib indi- sion that ten yards was their limit on "But it was Rudolph's turn to score, clasped to the bosom of the chief. I did not care to wander about on the wouldnt stir a peg. But they fought Then we detected in the middle dis- beach alone while waiting for the where they were just the same, and as tance a sinister-looking keg. It was sealer to arrive, each bear was now heavily laden with

"What are we tarrying for now?" I venomous activity, there was enough adulterated ecstasy. 'An inspiration, water from the sealer while the cap- cried, as the other line again ap- heathen fur clothing spoiled to keep a proached, this time more rapidly, and city's worthy poor as warm as toast all winter Inside of six seconds twice as many of the foe were sent ricochet-"'Minnie wont' work twice in sucis the greatest meat-cater among his brutes already with the show to make ing more offensive than some stout cession.' yelled Tib. 'Maude must ing in a variety of directions; and in back the challenge in six growls; and to Turtle Lake yesterday where there furry fellows, the big beast can be up the squad, adorn them all with big clubs. 'I'm afraid it's all up if they come next, or they won't play. We 60 seconds we were pushing the whole powerful paw to dig us out of the debris. "When once on our bewildered feet we saw that one end-rush had cost us dear. Our right guard would never play again. For the life of me, sir, could not help but pause and rub his head as he tried to rise and take his old position. He closed one eve in passing out, as if saying: 'Great footwork, ch?' And there was a blur in with its silvery-white companion. But my lamps as I dragged myself behind brances. But to collect the invaders you would have needed a large quantity of the best blotting paper. It required just two sweeps of Gertrude's

"'Line up for the last half!' wheezed 'The sealer's in and dropping boats. "But the jab had puzzled the poor One more scamper and we'll be clear. "'Nenook! Nenook!' horsely yowled the beggars, pointing exultantly at our

"And say, I actually loved those gi-

CLIMATE IS IDEAL

GREAT WEALTH ACQUIRED IN GROWING GRAIN.

Writing from Saskatoon, Saskatchewan, Canada, W. H. Ellwanger, who was formerly a resident of Green Mountain, Iowa, says: "The climate in summer is ideal for growing grain. Long, clear days of sunshine, no bad storms. We never need to guard against cyclones: I never saw a better climate in my life. We made more money during the season of 1906-than any previous five years in central lowa-one of the best districts in the state." But Mr. Ellwanger was a resident of the town, and it might be more interesting to read what a farmer has to say about Western Canada. From hundreds of letters all filled with words of praise, recounting success in Western Canada there has been one selected. It is as follows:

Paynton, Sask., Canada, Dec. 19th, 1907.

his turn, got it through his thick his foolish head to catch Tib's signal. min in his generous arms, and with a might o-o-o-of of satisfaction strained the collection to his bosom. When he resistible back, discarded them over our heads they "The exchamps, however, catching longer tried to run the ends, but to 'Great game!' I panted, in the breathing space allowed by the Kinack- squaare in one last, tremendous effort. As they closed in we enjoyed the worst beckoning energetically with their boys indulged in many a hearty nip man that has a little muscle and a steel arms for their rivals to mix it and rake, they handed it back right little brains. Three cheers for Canaup again, instead of waiting for our smart. Why, even in that last mo- da! signals. You see, sir, we were in a ment they gave every promise of lug-tight place-we didn't dare leave our | ging home the cup. breastworks, and the squad was un- "For the first few yards we tore wieldy to handle. The game, too, was down the shingle briskly and simply vastly different from the merry prac- waded through the heavy underbrush tice in the corral, and the whole of jabbing arms and kicking legs, Tib bunch were disgusted because their and I doing no real husky work, just usual honorarium of fish was not forth- staggering along. But as our players coming. Tib and I realized our lives became more infuriated, and paused depended on their keeping together. in the game to hold personal altercaand we both worked overtime to tickle | tions, I surrendered my last hope.

their vanity. But what saved us was "To accentuate our despair, just as the ball. Each nine-foot warrior had we had nearly come to a standstill and grows wild here, then there are ducks. geese, grouse, pheasants, deer, moose, elk and fish in abundance. I was over true blue to the last, all ranged up be is lots of fishing being done this wincrowd away. But they did not get side Rudolph, who, hugging the ball ter. I saw about a carload of white clear before Rudolph, angry at missing against his now brown breast, turned fish in one pile. I gave 25 cents for 56 pounds of fish. What do you think "And Tib, believing his players had of that, Brother Yankee? I think this ing like river-drivers. And in one off- lost tabs on whose turn it might be, is a fine place both to make money side play he gathered four of the ver- cried, 'Center!' for the second time, and to live. There was an old man up and, sure enough, Rudolph bowed his here visiting his brother-in-law. Now form and lunged ahead for another ir- this man owns land close to Des Moines, Iowa, and is in good circum stances, but he took a homestead and lay very still and their captain had to sight of the approaching boats, no says he will be contented if he can only put in the rest of his days in our great felicitation met us fair and Canada. He would get up in the mornand look out of the door and say: "Well, who wouldn't live in Canada?" "Got to keep moving, or they'll bag scrimmage of the game. I'll confess, Now I have been in 13 different states us yet,' bawled Tib. And our boys- | sir, the visitors played snappy ball and | in the United States, and I never saw now digging up a sulky streak, began showed lots of ginger; and as our the chance that there is here for a

> (Signed.) W. A. SPICE."

This is the temperature through November. I took it myself so I know it is right, in the shade: Morning at

Date	Morning at Sunrise	At Sulpet	Date	Morning at Suarise	At Suaset
1	27	37	16	28	35
2	36	40	17	12	20
3	26	37	13	12	29
4	29	34	19	20	33
5	27	36	20	12	24
c	20	99	-9.1	10	07

12

28

17

28

7

10

12

13

30

34

16

13

26

20

11

22

23

94

25

26

27

28

16

15

18

8

32

20

8

28

27

22

20

28

16

14

14

its way among the ice-floes like some aquatic bull dog. And such a buffeting! You see, the month was August and an off-shore wind was frisking the cut-glass out to the open, thus giving us our only chance of creeping in to the coast.

"The moment the Saucy Liz poked her head inside the cape four native whale boats put out to meet us, and the captain sighed his disappointment. 'For,' he explained, 'if Olfen's Innuit flock has returned he'll never leave them, and we've had our little jaunt for nothing.'

gloves briskly together, refused to entertain this unwholesome suggestion, and intimated that inasmuch as our cus went.

boss had spent enough money on the trip to buy carpet slippers for every barefooted owl in the country, we late it into the bear language,' he commust take back something, if only an manded. iceberg. "And nearly all day I fed him foot-

"The desire to trade kept the natives ball lore and grounded him in the sciabout the sealer, and we three, Tib, ence of the game. Then as the storm showed no symptoms of weakening the captain and I, slid in to shore alone. Then the captain hurried us he got to work with his pupils, he and inland several hundred yards to a low, I playing with them. For nine groundstone house banked high with dirt and gainers we certainly were clever. And plugged with moss, and called on the the bears enjoyed it immensely. Tib missionary to appear and welcome us. taught them to tote a deer-skin ball But the door remained closed. Father and go through three simple maneuv-Olfen!' he cried again. ers, not at all unlike the real article

"And then-great Scott, sir! but my "Minnie and Maude were at right heart certainly skipped seven throbs; and left ends respectively, and huge guessing for an hour, and then win for from around the corner of the hut Rudolph in the center. To call Minparaded seven of the biggest polars I nie's name meant for her to lead off, ever saw. And the whole outfit reared with the other six following in close with one accord and eyed us com- formation; and we styled it the placently. At our apparent concern burglar-proof wedge. And Maude's sir, and gazed lovingly into my sparkthe captain laughed and assured us name meant a similar play at left end. ling orbs. Then he lisped: 'My child, they were tame as kittens. Then he But our chef-d'auvre was when Ru- we'll start the first half now; and it's boldly advanced and said, 'Hello, Min- dolph threw back his flat-topped head our kick-off.' nie!' and stuck out his fist. And hang and in bruinese invited his companme, sir, if Minnile didn't return the ions to fill in the vacuums created by rabble, now garbed in a delirium chaste salute most amiably! the moving of his giant form. For pure tremens of bravado.

"Tib, you know, always had a hyp- realism in bucking the line his stunt notic way with animals, and he, too, at center had the other two combina- reminded my companion, as he betripped forward and slapped another tions plucked to a tawdry finish. We came absorbed in studying the dancing elf on the flank. Mr. Bruin stowly regretted while rejoicing; for it re- and advancing enemy. dropped to all-fours and rubbed his quired no prophet to see that only a massive white head lovingly against freight train could cause him and the article,' he murmured. 'They must be my patron's sealskin coat. nth power of energy in his wake to some half-caste people. The Simon-

'If I were younger I would stay, regardless of the risk; but I find my to spring the joke on the same college than a sage hen, except when tackling last days are suddenly filled with a twice.

desire to see the flowers, and I cannot "But, sir, for a picturesque effect it wait for you. If you come and my was purely supernal. It would have yelled; and the clamor for Nenook pets are still here, be kind to them. placed your heart three palpitations to | was now so uproarious that I had to "After the captain had slowly the good just to study them as they use my hands as a trumpet in order to spelled this out a scratching at the caught on to the varsity spirit and reach Tib's dull ear.

SPEEDY CURE FOR FITS

Out of Him.

of his successful treatment of fits.

ove, and it is time to marry." But

AND MAUD CARRIED ALONG WITH HER THE BUNCH OF DEERSKIN.

the timid spectators and then chal- number at least two-score. lenge college teams wherever the cir-"Tib sighed in a minor, but made no reply until he had scanned the ice-

"'Give me some pointers on that freckled wavelets with an ancient of smoke out von.'

> Saucy Liz! "'Only Lizzie knows naught of our ticklers.

embarrassment,' disheartened Tib, 'and is taking her time. The query is, can we hold out till she arrives?' "'Speaking of maidens,' I trembled, 'we have Minnie and Maude-' "'I'd forgotten 'em.' mused Tib. 'If gain the beach and keep the foe out.' "'An hour!' I cried. 'Just time for two halves!' "He grabbed me by my shoulders

"'Nenook! Nenook!' howled the

"'The smoke is thicker.' I joyously "'They can't be the regular Innuit a bear.'

"They're bunching for a rush!' lost his medicine.

state bureau could do nothing to re-

Agent Ransom went to the school and the boy was brought before him.

"But Tib, slapping his fox-skin mitts and muzzles, so as to reassure rush us solloquized, sullenly. 'They tought 'em to alternate, and we of paws cuffing at the sides to spoil gets nearer.'

"As the last word was barked, Kin- And I was overjoyed to see Maude deadly pleasantry and watch me trans- glass. Then he observed, 'If my old buck the line. But when it came to a hostile right tackle out of his wrung the captain's hand. eves dont' deceive me there's a thread plunging they were rotten: too light you know. And say, sir, they ought hooks. "I gave a hoot of joy. It was the to have been penalized 30 yards for sealer to the rescue. Hurrah for the treading on our center's toes and close-set ears with expressions of lar bunch of furs with a hatchet. The

> "'All ready!' howled Tib, reaching assailants and forgot for the moment and Liz.' between the center's feet to kick a they had been civilized. But that censtudy in oils on the nose. 'Maude!' we had to fetch it along to give the bruins their cue. Bless their old "But this play was attended by a men, that happened which Tib and I veil of snow.

beautiful melee, as we'd waited a few had feared from the start. The heath. "In another week we were back seconds too long, and as our guards ens began to open up, preparatory to again, but could find no bruins. had never lined up against even a running the ends and flirting with us "But up there somewhere in the the defensive. However, they man- was surely lost. You see, the dear, old I often see them in my mind's eye aged to break up the interference after furry idiots were again trying to re- stanchly standing off a gang of na-ed, we were one family again.

absorbed a pint of stimulus and I could inflamed full-backs sneaked in from derous energy the championship of see we were in for livelier doings. the left and as a unit nailed my the Arctic Circle. And do you know, The first two plays had foozled 'em a patron.

trifle, but now they were up and ready and very wise. So far they had club before a relay crew buckled on about that absurd wad of deer-skin; suffered no injury, thanks to our to me. Then I went to the mat, and and if, on pleasant days, they indulge hesitate even, and it would never do pure Innuit hasn't any more temerity teaching the bears to use but little the count had proceeded to nine be- in a little quiet practice in memoriam strength in anticipation of the college fore my leader could liberate his vocal of their first coach. At least, I know games to come. Ergo, they waxed con- organs sufficiently to gurgle, 'Down!' they are loyal to one another, and fident and decided that Nenook had And then Gertrude, bless her! a de- mayhap to-night are forming up for beach.

their spear-work had excited the home wheeled and nearly finished us with team and that our right guard's ugly, her zeal to eliminate our encum- gamely, with only a few yards to gain.

been taught to center his or her whole Rudolph, busy cuffing a native, refused soul on that trifle, and true to their to heed the signals, we lost our left training they obeyed orders and re- tackle, a promising young player, but fused to desert their colors. a bit hot-headed.

'They're coming!' I warned, as the "'Rudolph! Center!' again choked mob of round forms waddled to a Tib.

right-about face and cantered forward. "And dear dear! If the old sport "'Keep close to Rudolph,' cautioned didn't turn his red eyes, stop gunning Tib. And then, 'Center! 4-11-44!' The for pelts, grab up the ball and once numerals meant nothing, and were more begin to plow ahead. And the thrown in only for good measure. other four lovally fell in behind and

"But at the familiar call Rudolph swung through the big hole he had plunged forward to buck the advancing | made in the unsavory mass of alleged line with every other ounce of bear- humanity. Thus did we come to the flesh trailing on behind, with a fringe water's edge.

noodle that the other side was behav-

"And the enemy seeing the last half mustn't try the left end until the crowd interference, while Tib and I scuttled had been played scurried back to the along between the two bulky lines. boats somewhere up the coast.

"'How can we get these five lifeack's Prides were upon us, trying to emulate Rudolph's system and pluck preservers aboard?' panted Tib, as he clothes with one neat sweep of her "'Can't do it now bawled the can tain dancing in merriment as he "Tib and I tried to reach the brutes' nailed a retreating seven-hundred-dolthrusting at the guards with their praise, but they were well-nigh deaf- wind is again inshore, and we've not a ened by the hoarse clamor of their second to lose if we'd save our hides "So, after all, we had to leave the "And away they gambolled to the strenuous endower to the bears. But despite the scarcity of the strenuous endeavor to the background minutes, we dragged ourselves to each left in search of ten yards more of and, as Rudolph failed to remember and sorrowfully shook a paw in part leeway. And Maude carried with her, the confines of the corral, we ad- ing. As we gazed back from the sealer they can lend a helping hand we might sir, the bunch of deer-skin. You see, vanced to within 200 yards of the we saw them sitting in a row, the center still holding the ball and we "Then as we thought we were to watched them until their huge, white hearts! It was all a game to them. have a breather and time to quiet our coats melted slowly into the drifting scrub eleven before, and consequently bipeds. The first dash came so near eternal cold is a fraction of Alaska's were a bit dazed and rather punk on to netting Tib I decided the pennant first eleven, ready to face all comers.

a fashion, and finally, somewhat wind- member our mottoes and maintain a tives; and although their old trainer's life-lease on the leather; hence they voice will direct their plays no more.

"But the captain of the Kinackers | were but mildly curious when six rum- I can see them pegging down with ponsir, I've often wondered if in their

"I dented several fat faces with my wanderings they affectionately tote mure little lass of about twelve hun- the last game. And if, perchance, only "They didn't seem to realize that dred pounds, playing left guard, one of the rugged quintet remains, I have no doubt but he will go down

$100 Reward, $100.

S100 Reward, S100. The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarch. Hall's Catarch Cure is the only positive oure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarch being a constitutional disease, requires a constitu-tional treatment. Hall's Catarch Cure is taken tu-ternally, setting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the boundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by oulding up the constitution and assist-um and the its curative powers that they offer one Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Sond for list of testimonials. Attress F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. moth y all Druggists, Jac. Sold by all Druggists, 75c. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

He who gives pleasure meets with it; kindness is the bond of friendship. and the hook of love; he who sows not, reaps not.-Smiles.

Any 12 Year Old Girl

Can make those delicious Lemon, Choco-late and Custard pies as well as the more experienced cook if she uses "OUR-PIE" preparation, which is now sold by nearly all grocers at 19 cents per package. Just the proper ingredients in each package. "Put up by D-Zerta Co., Rochester, N.Y."

To refuse to yield to others when reason or a special cause require it is a mark of pride and stiffness .- Thomas a Kempis.

Public Land Opening.

Irrigated under "Carey Act." Low cost casy payments. Write for date of draw ing and full information, Irrigation De partment, 406 Home Ins. Bldg., Chicago

"Live and learn" is a good motto, but at the age of 30 the average man begins to live and unlearn.

ONLY ONE "BROMO QUININE" That is LAXATIVE BROMO QUININE. Look for the signature of E. W. GROVE. Used the World over to Cure a Cold in One Day. 25c.

Grapes are squeezed six times in making champagne, yielding wine of different qualities.

STRONG HINT FOR HUBBY Christmas. I wonder what he'll give Mrs. B.' should not have. I heard the other answer.

Wife Very Evidently Had No Intention day of a woman of this class. "She is a banker's wife, and the hard times straitened her husband's Miss Laurence Alma Tadema, the resources not a little. Hence the comfamous English painter's daughter, ing Christmas, with its costly gifttalked at a dinner in New York about giving, worried the poor man greatly. happiness. On this subject the bril-"At dinner he said to his wife with liant young lady is an authority. feigned unconcern:

"'Brownstone, I fancy, won't spend "They are not happy," said Miss Tadema, "who long for things they money at his accustomed rate this days each year.

"'I happen to know,' was the quick limousine car. You see,' said the lady

Many Russian Holidays.

significantly, 'Mr. Brownstone asked should like myself.""

Russia celebrates 86 general holi-

"'Do you? What is it, then?'

"'A set of Russian sables and a my advice, and I told him what I of Economizing.

net the elbow-length, small puff than 150,000 depositors and deposits ency of "roaring" especially is liable | business in the right way they could |

E. Ransom as doctor-in-chief, because account of his infirmity, and he intimated that it would be necessary to shamming because he "didn't want to

A few days ago a complaint was take a similar course in Denver if the go to school."

filed with the bureau by Prof. Louis When he learned the humane agent's Grab Boy by the Neck and Shake It P. Norvell, principal of the Washingidentity he promptly had a fit. ton school at Denver. It related to one The astute Ransom grabbed the boy of the pupils of the school, whose pen The Colorado state bureau of child chant for having fits at inopportune by the neck and shook him until the and animal protection is considering times was demoralizing the school. urchin gasped for breath. the advisability of adding a medical The lad, the professor stated, had been "Quit that, y-o-u!" he spluttered, " lieve the situation.

department to its work, with Agent A. turned out of the Pueblo schools on ain't goin' to have-n-o fit!" The boy confessed that he had been