This is the last week when we will be allowed by the Postoffice Department to continue on our list readers one year or more in arrears for their paper. This is obligatory and if you do not receive your Northwestern next week and thereafter it will be because of that fact or through some mistake in discontinuing your name in taking off others in arrears. As though we shall do our best to allow of no mistakes. We trust those so in arrears will come in speedily and renew. We want your continuance as readers and you can not afford to do without your county paper.

Little Harold Leininger celebrated his seventh birthday anniversary Monday afternoon of this week, some sixteen of his boy and girl friends being invited to celebrate the auspicious occasion with him. Dainty refreshments were served and childish games made most pleasant hours for all.

Housewives who did not get to the Hayhurst-Gallaway store before 8 o'clock last Saturday morning, either in person or by phone, "got left" on the granite ware bargains advertised last week, as all were gobbled up by that time and the proprietors could have disposed of ten times the amount had they had it in stock. Advertising sells, you see.

At a near date, not yet decided upon, the matrons of Loup City will hold an oratorical contest, there being perhaps a dozen ladies to enter the forensic arena. We have no doubt the male persuasion will have to look to their laurels or they will be the lesser half along those lines, as well as in a multitude of others. Look for the announcement of time and place in these columns next week.

Thanks to the following readers, new and renewing, since last report: Frank Wagner, A. Garstka, John Olsen, Milo Gilbert, for self, and Thos. Stevens, Ed. Kilpatrick.

At the Etic Moon yesterday entertained the ladies of the Entre Nous club with one of the most unique affairs of the season, at the residence of her sister, Mrs. Dr. Moon, representing the ladies' waiting room at a depot, with lunch counter and every detail faithfully carried out. So vivid was all that the members scarcely realized they had not actually taken a B. & M. or U. P. trip to the antipodes.

Rev. A. J. Stevens, who for the past number of years has been furnishing medicines to the farmers over Sherman and adjoining counties, with his wagon has needed the business and returned to the ministry. He is stationed at Amherst. Rev. Stevens was a retired minister for a number of years and now that he has returned to that devoted life his multitude of friends here and elsewhere will wish him abundant success and scores of souls for his hire.

The Presbyterian Brotherhood have made arrangements for a banquet and social and musical entertainment to be held in the church parlors on the evening of April 1st, to be exclusive for the members, their wives and sweethearts. The Brotherhood now numbers between 30 and 40 members and will thus make the attendance, including the speakers and those on the program for music and entertainment, in round numbers some seventy-five.

Appropos of the establishment of new rural routes, an examination of applicants for position of carrier was held in the high school room last Saturday forenoon under the supervision of Postmaster Owens, the following gentlemen taking the test: Clarence Sweetland, Clarence Arner, J. B. Draper, A. T. Conger, F. S. Robbins, Ernest B. Corning, Otis E. Hiser, F. F. Foster, Lewis Williams, all of Loup City, and William Garnett, Albert E. Lowery, George P. Heapy, Hugh E. Morgan and Fred B. Sutton, all of Litchfield, the latter five being candidates for a new route out from Litchfield, while the first nine were trying out for the new route running south from Loup City. The examination papers are sent to the postoffice department at Washington for final decision to the lucky ones.

Rev. D. W. James of Kansas City, Kas., filled the pulpit of the Baptist church last Sunday morning and evening, as was announced. Rev. James is an interesting speaker and a man of excellent qualities. A call has been extended to him to do pastoral work, and has been accepted. Bro. James himself will not be here until about June 1st, when he will finish a course in the Seminary at Kansas City. His parents will move here at once, his father being a deacon and having had considerable experience in pastoral work, will fill the pulpit till June 1st. The pulpit committee of the Baptist church have been earnestly seeking for some months past for a good Christian man to fill the place and we believe they have now found one who will stir up the sleeping cause of Christ here. Everybody is cordially invited to the services of our church.

The sudden and blinding windstorm yesterday evening was a fright. With the wind at hurricane pace, bonfires about town and in the streets, the buildings, and in Webster one at L. Domgaard's did escape, but was headed into the creek after ravaging ten or fifteen acres of F. A. Pinckney's pasture land and scaring the people of that section into seventeen kinds of fits. Just before the high wind an outbuilding belonging to F. S. Robbins caught fire from a sack of material therein and in burning endangered a barn near by but the fire laddies soon made short work of it. Had the fire been with the high wind the damage would have been the loss of a number of nearby homes.

Thanks—I am very thankful to the men who helped put out the fire at my place yesterday. We all hope it will be a lesson to the fredepartment fire boys, let's get out and drill.

F. S. ROBBINS.

Take Your Choice

Have you ever almost run into someone on the street, and then dodged from side to side for half a minute, vainly endeavoring to pass, while the other person by some strange fatality blocked your every move by trying to pass you in the same way?

Such was the recent experience of a young man in Portland, Maine. He and a strange young woman had been going through this performance for several seconds, when his unwilling visa-vivus staggered him by saying: "Well, hurry up! Which is it to be—a waltz or a two-step?"—Woman's Home Companion for April.

WHY DON'T YOU BUY REX FLINTKOTE ROOFING

NO Roofing has ever given satisfaction or service like Rex Flintkote Roofing. It is the result of years of labor, and is made of the best matted wool fibre treated by our own compounds. It is water-proof, fire-resisting, and is not affected by vapors of acids or alkalis. It costs less than shingles, and can be laid by anyone. Our book tells more about it, and will be sent free, with samples.

Leininger Lbr. Co
Rex Flintkote Roofing is used on thousands of buildings in the United States and Canada.
