Commencement Week.

The class of 1908 will give, as their class play, "Sweet Lavender". This popular production was first produced at Terry's Theater in London, on March 21, 1888 with Mr. Edward Terry playing the part of Dick Phenyl. It had a continuous run of six hundred and eighty-three nights, when Mr. Terry went on a trip to India. When he returned, nine months later it had another run at the same theater of fifty-four performances. Not only has it been popular in England but "Sweet Lavender" has been well received in America, India, Australia, Oxfords, 1.25 to 3.50 and South Africa. It has been trans lated into German and Italian and
