

He was born in Switzerland, while his father was attached to the European fleet in the 70's. September 6, 1894, he was appointed to the naval academy at large. Completing his four-years was graduated from that institution.

In April of that year, and just before the outbreak of the Spanish war, he was assigned to the battleship Massachusetts, commanded by Capt. Francis J. Higginson. He served on the Massachusetts through the war, taking part in the bombardment at Santiago, San Juan and in a number of engagements in Cuban waters. He remained on the Massachusetts until 1899, when he was transferred to the gunbcat Nashville. In 1900 he was assigned to the Brutus on the Asiatic station.

In 1904 he was assigned to President Roosevelt's yacht Sylph as her commanding officer and remained on her until the latter part of 1905, when he was ordered to Newport News for duty in connection with the fitting out of the new 16,000-ton battleship Louisiana. When she was commissioned in 1906 he was assigned to duty on her.

He made the trip on the Louisiana, when she took President Roosevelt to Panama, and also on the cruise from Hampton Roads to San Francisco. He was promoted to the grade of lieutenant on July 1, 1904.

"FIDDLER BOB" TAYLOR

Robert Love Taylor, better known throughout Tennessee as "Fiddler Bob," devoted his maiden speech in the United States senate recently to an attack upon the Republican party and the executive. Some of his similes were very effective, as when he compared the federal power and the states to the centripetal and centrifugal forces that rule the universe, and when he said this of the railways:

"They are only one string of the harp of a thousand strings upon which our modern Orpheus is playing the triumphal march of federalism."

Senator Taylor got his nickname of Fiddler Bob from the campaign he waged in 1889, for election to the United States congress. He had nothing to aid him but his wits and his fiddle, but being a mountaineer himself he knew how to reach the hearts of the people of the hills. He set out for the mountain regions carrying his fiddle and wherever he stopped he brought it out and a dance was organized right away. The young folks danced to his music while the older ones were won by his merry chatter. He was elected. His next ambition was to become United States senator and he made the run. He received a telegram that he had been elected by a majority of one, but later he received another that one of his supporters had changed his vote and elected his opponent. Taylor said nothing, but he made the run for governor of the state, this time having his own brother for an opponent, which gave to the contest the sobriquet of "War of the Roses." The ancient fiddle was effective and Bob was elected. He was twice re-elected. His opportunity to achieve his final ambition offered itself at last election and he ran for the senate once more, being triumphantly elected this time.

Senator Taylor was born in Happy Valley, Tenn., in July, 1850. He graduated from Pennington college and in 1878 was admitted to the bar. He was an elector-at-large on the Cleveland ticket in 1884 and again in 1892. After retiring from the office of chief executive Mr. Taylor entered the lecture field.

copper. New York .- Fulfilling the terms of the death sentence pronounced upon him on Monday, when he was told he must die before Thursday, Dr. Wil- a few minutes afterward he came back liam H. Marsh succumbed to hydrophobia Wednesday afternoon. His last hours were eased and rendered unconscious by opiates administered by his physician, while his family hoped against hope that science might for once be in error.

Not for a moment had Dr. Marsh however, deluded himself with false hopes. With the death warrant of the physicians of the Pasteur institute still ringing in his ears, he made his will, called his family and business associates into council and gave them explicit directions for the conduct of his business and personal affairs, after he should have gone from them, and calmly prepared to die, as he had lived, like a man. "You will die before Thursday noon.

No human power can save you." That was the dictum of Dr. William L. Wheeler of the Pasteur institute, delivered one Monday recently. It struck Dr. Marsh like a blow between the eyes, but he stood up to it man fashion.

"I have seen some pitiful sights, but I never have been so moved as I was She by the calm courage, the splendid heroism of Dr. Marsh when I told him there was no hope for him," said Dr.

Wheeler. Returning with his physician, Dr. H. M. Culihan, to his home in Brooklyn, Dr. Marsh immediately began to make plans for the future of those near and dear to him. Himself a graduate in medicine, he knew science had said its last word and his fate lay on the knees of the gods.

"I am not afraid to die. The past hides nothing that should make me ashamed to face the future," he said about the gills and called a waiting

The copper went to the streets as fast as his legs could carry him, and to the station with Edward Hardy, 25 years old. Mr. Hardy carried a bundle under his arm, a large bundle, and looked sheepishly toward the sergeant, who told him to open it.

Appeared at the Police Station.

A moment later the charges made over the telephone against Edward Hardy by his wife were substantiated. It was proved that he had left home and had taken every stit-every one, well-all of Mrs. Hardy's clothes course, she telephoned the sergeant to apprehend her husband, and then get | ial, and some strange images. the clothes back to her in as short a had to keep a dinner engagement in the middle of the village; nice china "I knew everything which was go-

Five minutes later a bicycle messenger delivered the clothes to Mrs. Hardy's door. Twenty minutes later -20, ladies, count 'em-she appeared at the police station, where her husband was still held. In another five she had refused his overtures for peace and domestic happiness and had with Mother Cat.

kittens, and fought stoutly for their

For the last two weeks the hen has tried in every way that her brain could possession with the mother cat.

London.-From a letter just received in this city from that adventure-loving Irish girl, Beatrice Grimshaw, who writes stories of the South Seas, it appears that she has been enjoying herself in her own peculiar way in and around New Guinea, which is to be the scene of the novel she is now writing. Her letter, which is dated from the Gulf of Papua is, in part, as follows:

"Day before yesterday we called at Goari-Bari, a notorious place, where Chalmers, the famous missionary, was eaten in 1902, and where a terrible fracas with natives occurred in 1904. resulting not long afterward in the suicide of Gov. Robinson. It is an island close to the mainland. Few white people have been there, and most of them were eaten-no one has ever stopped a night, and no white woman was ever there before myself. The governor, a friend of his, Col. Antill, two missionaries, the governor's secretary, myself and six armed police from Port Moresby (natives) were the landing party. The natives were extremely excited and jumpy; nervous, one would say. They received us quietly enough, and accepted presents of beads, etc., but when I and two others were in one of the houses, they came and held up a joint of cooked human flesh before me, laughing. It think it was ribs.

skulls in the river, and many skulls in on which his lips rested was warm. the houses. We were not attacked. His wife was alive. however, and we walked all through The man, dazed with joy and wonthe village, saw a general family der, sent at once for a doctor, who sleeping house 190 yards long, divided confirmed his hopes. The doctor orinto numberless compartments (the dered her to be removed at once to with him, and Mrs. Hardy just couldn't flat system, evidently)-human bodies the hospital. Her condition rapidly leave the house. That is why, of laid out in the brauches of trees to improved and she is now well on the decay, which is their method of bur- way to recovery.

time as possible. She said she just our boys make afternoon tea for us in nary.

her apparently dead after a few days' il!ness.

funeral; a coffin was brought and the "I can truly say that Lydia E. Pinkwoman was laid in it.

His Wife Was Alive!

looked horrid and smelt worse. I to be left alone with the body for a ink it was ribs. "There was also a cance full of kiss her for the last time. The cheek

The woman's story of her experi-"We stayed all afternoon, and made ence during the trance is extraordiing on around me," she said, "but I could not move. I could not even speak when I saw that they thought was dead.

Even when she was put in her coffin and it seemed almost certain that she would be buried alive she was unable utter a word to save herself. She

This woman says Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound saved her life. Read her letter. Mrs. T. C. Willadsen, of Manning,

All arrangements were made for the Iowa, writes to Mrs. Pinkham:

ham's Vegetable Compound saved my Then, just as the coffin was about life, and I cannot express my gratitude to be screwed down. Mr. Carton asked to you in words. For years I suffered with the worst forms of female com-plaints, continually doctoring and spending lots of money for medicine without help. I wrote you for advice, followed it as directed, and took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and it has restored me to perfect health. Had it not been for you I should have been in my grave to-day. I wish every suffering woman would try it."

FACTS FOR SICK WOMEN.

For thirty years Lydia E. Pink-ham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has positively cured thousands of women who have been troubled with displacements, inflammation, ulceration, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, that bearing-down feeling, flatulency, indigestion, dizziness, or nervous prostration. Why don't you try it?

Mrs. Pinkham invites all sick women to write her for advice. She has guided thousands to health. Address, Lynn, Mass.

Peerless Dried Beef

Unlike the ordinary dried beef-that sold in bulk-Libby's Peerless Dried Beef comes in a sealed glass jar in which it is packed the moment it is sliced into those delicious thin wafers.

None of the rich natural flavor or goodness escape or dries out. It reaches you fresh and with all the nutri-

Libby's Peerless Dried

Beef is only one of a Great number of high-grade, ready to serve, pure food products that are prepared in Libby's

Just try a package of any of these, such as Ox Tongue,

Vienna Sausage, Pickles,

Olives, etc., and see how delightfully different they are from others

you have eaten.

Libby, McNeill&

Libby, Chicago

Great White Kitchen.

ment retained.

clothes.

port me."

an uptown restaurant in half an hour.

He is an attorney by profession, and he is also editor of Bob Taylor's Magazine, a publication that reflects the character and the idiosyncrasies of the man.

OPPOSES REVOLVING DOORS

Louis Lepine, prefect of police, by issuing the ordinance forbidding the use of revolving doors in restaurants, hotels and other public buildings capable of holding more than 100 persons, on the ground that they are dangerous in case of fire or panic, has again demonstrated that he is the wielder of the "big stick" in Paris.

The order has aroused the indignation of those who have installed these doors at great expense, but the prefect is used to grumblings and mutterings. To use an American expression, he allows their complaints to go "in one ear and cut of the other."

That the edict will stand goes without saying, for the office of prefect is more important than that of a cabinet minister. He is appointed by fear was that the frightful convulthe president and is answerable neither to parliament nor to Paris.

M. Lepine is supported by a small army in carrying out his edicts. He controls 50,000 troops, 12,000 police and 8,000 guards. He is a gentleman, a scholar and brother to a great medical luminary, Prof. Raphael Lepine, of the faculty of Lyons, and editor of the Revue de Medicine. It is a family of what was called in other days "noblesse de robe," descending from generations of lawyers, doctors and government functionaries.

M. Lepine was born in Paris in 1846, became a lawyer and entered the "administration" in 1877 as sub-prefect, and has risen through all the grades to prefect, to which he was appointed in 1893. So well has he met the requirements of his strenuous office that every president since that time has reappointed him. He was in charge of Paris during the Dreyfus troubles, with its rioting and violent possibilities.

NEW PRESIDENT OF PERU

Senor Don Augusto B. Leguia, who was recently elected to succeed Dr. Pardo as president of Peru, is said to be one of the best friends the rences in detail. It was in the library United States ever has had in South America of his home that he had gathered The richness of Peru is proverbial, and for years Senor Leguia has maintained that every effort should be made to encourage the investment of American capital in enterprises intended to de velop and exploit the resources of his country His liking for American methods is probably partly due to the fact that the large part of his future of his children. early commercial training was acquired in the Spanish-American department of the New York Life Insurance Company. He was with this corporation for years, and when he resigned his place, in 1889, he had worked his way up from a clerkship to the man-

Scotland Less Overcrowded.

Overcrowding in Scotland is not so agement of all the interests of the New York Life in Peru. Since retiring from the insurance business Senor Leguia has been the managing director of the | the oldest of whom is a mechanical en-British Sugar Estates, Limited, which has several million dollars invested in sugar estates in different parts of Peru, and he is also the largest stockholder in six other important industrial and commercial enterprises.

Senor Legula entered political life in 1903 as minister of finance in President Candamo's government, of which the present president of Peru, Dr. Jose Pardo, was prime minister. President Candamo lived only six months after taking office, and when the vacancy caused by his death was filled by the election of President Pardo, Senor Leguia was made prime minister and intrusted with the forming of a new cabinet. He retired from this office only a few months ago, in accordance with a custom which requires a candidate for an elective public office to resign before opening a campaign.

Senor Leguia is 45 years old, having been born at Lambayeque, in the north of Peru, on February 19, 18º2.

Pleads for Barbers' "Tips."

August Lambrecht has been a "prac- is 'cheap' when he' leaves a shop withticing barber" for 40 years. He says out having given the barber a tip, and that in time he has had a good the barber himself does a lot of think-chance to study human nature and has ing every time he calls 'next' and has where the barbers were not allowed to bad as it used to be. The proportion take tips had succumbed and given living more than four per room fell notice that the "no tip" era was over. from 18.67 per cent., in 1861, to 9.56, come to the conclusion that the tip for nothing to show for his work."

the barber is good "all "ound." This statement was called forth by the report that a Broadway New York shop

"A gentleman," he said, "feels that he in 1901.

soothe.

peacefully.

the isthmus.

Fulfilling the Terms of the Death Sentence.

to his friends who called when the word went forth that one about to die was waiting for the end. His only he.e. has the maternal instinct so strongly developed that the other day, sions of the final stage of rabies might having failed to mother anything else. prove too harrowing for his family to she tried to adopt a nestful of young witness, the terrifying cries too heartrending for them to hear. So he asked Dr. Culihan to keep close when the period of delirium began and to be liberal with chloroform, opium or whatever might avail to stupefy and to suggest to nest on every egg she found, but Mauser did not want her to hatch and repeatedly threw her off Faithful to his trust, Dr. Culihan nests which she had made. He had hardly left the bedside of his patient a daily fight with her over the matter. and friend until the end. From early The hen discovered the other day Tuesday afternoon until he died Dr.

that the mother of a litter of kittens Marsh was in a state of almost comhad left them for a few moments, and plete unconsciousness, induced by she promptly took them for her own. sedatives. Death came gently and When the mother cat returned there was a battle until Mauser, attracted None of those who sat in conference with Dr. Marsh until nearly midnight by the noise, arrived and locked the hen in a coon. Monday would speak of the occur-

Girl Sleeps; Eyes Are Open.

them together-his wife, his sons and Muskogee, Okla .- Apparently sleeping with her eyes open, suffering no daughters, his son-in-law and his lawyer. There was the will to be drawn pain, but taking no nourishment and up, and that done, with the distribu- actually not sleeping, the case of Miss tion of his personal property arranged Dolly Smith, 18 years old, has baffled for, he turned his attention to the local physicians. She complained of feeling dizzy a week ago, and fall Dr. Marsh was 57 years old and had ing on her bed has not been able to lived in Flatbush nearly all his life. move since. She lapses into uncon He had traveled extensively in South sciousness and appears to be dead. America and was regarded as a genius The attending physicians have reof invention by his friends. He is sur- sorted to the old-time method of vived by a widow, two daughters, one bleeding, but no change in her conof whom is married, and three sons, dition is perceptible.

> Three Days in a Quicksand. Alton, Ill .- Buried to his waist in into a pond by three men, Tony Haas, Find Tomb of Early Apostle. 24 years old, stood in the water three In restoring the parish church at days, according to his statement when Fordington, Dorchester, England, there he was found wandering along an inwas found a slab of Purbeck marble terurban street car track half crazed. with a Roman inscription on it that is Early the other day some logs floated supposed to be part of the tombstone near him and he succeeded in dragof Aristobulus, the first recorded apos- ging himself from the sand. He could and silver and cakes. The cannibals crowded round in the wildest excitement. They were all unclothed, with good deal of paint and feathers, and had bows and spears and stone axes. They seemed frightened at the tea ceremonial, evidently thinking it was some piece of magic, which they believe in greatly. We went back to the ship quite peacefully and afterward the governor (Judge Murray) went ashore again and brought off the bones of Chalmers, the missionary,

"When we were on shore, we asked the people, through interpreters, how they cooked their cannibal food, and they said with native sage, and showed us some in rolls. Told by the gov ernor that they must give up these practices, they said it would be hard to do so, for human flesh tasted much better than pork or dog.

"I was down at Thursday Island last week, and went down in a diver's dress among the pearl shell beds. The place swarms with sharks and alligators, but I was told they could be scared off by loosening the wrist of the dress so as to let some air ont, hole. so I chanced it, and came up all right, after a good walk at the bottom of a coral reef."-

Boy Laid Low by Rooster.

rooster and so badly injured that he lies in a critical condition. Little Charles was taken into the hospital, where their wounds Entry fee in each case is $10.00. For pamph-liet, "Last Best West," particulars as to rates, routes, best time to go and where to locate,

Little Charles was taken into the chicken yard by an older brother, while the latter fed the fowls.

Simplicity Above All.

The supreme excellence is simpli-cerns me most."

The game bird attacked the boy with $11,000 was expended by the Salvation his wings and beak and knocked him Army at Toronto in relieving poverty, down, inflicting a deep scalp wound, this amount being turned over by the and then the rooster repeatedly city and the officers of the army gave plunged his spurs into the child's their whole time without expense to cheeks and face so that the little the distribution of the money, over 600 families receiving aid.

could not even speak to her husband as he bent over her. Only the touch of his lips on her cheek saved her.

SPENDS NIGHT OF TERROR.

Aged and Thinly Clad Woman Wanders Into Mountain Wilds.

Freeland, Pa .- A terrible experience fell to the lot of Mrs. John Klinger, an aged Freeland woman, who wandered from her home during a driving rain storm the other evening and spent the night in the mountains. A rescuing party, headed by Burgess

Hartman on horsehack followed the footpaths and main roads, and two members of the state constabulary joined the search. The weather was disappeared she wore only a light shawl over her house dress. The search was continued all night without finding the woman, who, it was then feared, had fallen into a mine cave. At eight o'clock in the morning the en-year-old grandson of Mrs. Klinger left his home in Jeddo to attend Sunday school at Freeland. He had no knowledge of his relative's disappear ance and was astonished to find her tottering on the railroad tracks near Drifton. She was then so far exhausted that a physician had to be summoned and she was conveyed to her home, where she now lies in a critical condition.

Rats Attack Two Babies.

Philadelphia .- Rats attacked Mamie and Issie Jaffin, babies, as they lay asleep at their home on South Second street early the other morning and bit them so badly that they were taken to the hospital. Mamie's foot Typical Farm Scen and hand were lacerated and Issie's WESTERN CAN

The children were in a back room Some of the choicest lands for grain growing, on the second floor of their house. Ma stock raising and mixed farming in the new dis-mie was in a crib and Issie in a go tricts of Saskatchewan and Alberta have re-tently been Opened for Settlement under the cart. The rats got in through a pipe hole. Louis Jaffin, the father, was awak ened by the screams of the children. conditions), by the father, mother, son, daugh-He sprang out of bed and ran to their room, expecting to find it ablaze. In each are thus now easily available in these stead he saw several rats attacking farming sections.

Revised Homestead Regulations

Pottsville, Pa.—Charles, the three-year-old son of Lincoln Horn of Don-aldson, was attacked by a game up the children and ran with them and railroads convenient to market.

apply to Large Sum Spent in Two Months.

Tommy-I'll bet you one thing."

Chinese Rice Paper.

of father's .- Harper's Weekly.

thin sheet of the pith of a tree.

Visitor-What?

W. V. BENNETT. In a little over two months over 801 New York Life Building. Omaha, Nebrasta.

effect until one night I thought I had by taking long deep breaths. What it week, and I'm sure you can't even NOTARIES and JUSTICES HANDLING

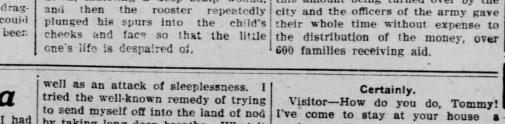

PENSION vouchers should write for cash offer to TABER & WHITMAN

WIDOWS'under NEW LAW obtained PENSIONS by JOHN W. MORRIS, Washington, D. C. Tommy-I'll bet you're no relation

If afflicted with Thompson's Eye Water

The rice paper upon which the Chinese do such charming drawing is a DEFIANCE STARCH eastest to work with and W. N. U., OMAHA, NO. 24, 1908.

Breathing Helped Him.

"I have been troubled with insomnia and practically hung the weight of my it did so is not of much consequence.

man, "and like most people similarly and it did the same thing for a few afflicted I have tried all the familiar times, when to my extreme disappointdodges to induce sleep. The results ment, I found it had ceased to work. were never particularly satisfactory I was as badly off as recently, until in the way of producing the desired one night, when I had a bad cough, as city .- Longfellow.

Found a Cure for Insomnia

One Sufferer Testifies That Deep actually found a sleep-inducer when did to me, and has done several times guess who I am."

I chanced to grasp one of the rods at since, was not to only send me to the head of my bed with both hands sleep, but to stop my cough. Just why all my life," remarked the nervous body on them. That sent me to sleep That it did so is the thing that con-tle to Britain and said to have been not ascribe a reason for having been one of the 70 ordained by Christ. thrown into the pool.

