Celebrate the ## Fourth of July

AT

Jenner's Park

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Pedler entertained at dinner Sunday the Messrs. and Mesdames Truelsen, Conhiser, Hansel, Arthur and Bennett.

Judge Wall will deliver the oration on the Fourth of July at Ravenna. We violate no confidence when we say Ravenna could not get a finer speaker in the middle west.

Mr. M. E. G. Cooper from Iowa, who has been visiting his brother, C. C. Cooper the past two weeks, left yesterday for Denver, Colo., to look after property interests in that state.

The regular meeting of the Presbyterian Brotherhood will be held next Sunday afternoon at 3:30. There will be an address by Brother C. Truelsen. All the men are wanted.

Dan DeWitt, a barber from Iowa, on Monday bought the barber shop of F. S. Robbins. Mr. Robbins left today for Greeley, where he has land holdings. He expects to move there in the near future.

Preaching service at the Presbyterian church next Sunday morning at 10:30. Children's Day Exercises will be held Sunday evening at 8 o'clock. All are cordially invited to attend.

Will Odendahl went up to Arcadia Monday morning in his auto and brought W. F. Mason down from that berg in 35 minutes. He took Mr. Mason up to Arcadia in the auto last Saturday on business.

The Baptist pastor and people extend a cordial invitation to all people not in the habit of going to church, and those who do not regularly attend the other churches, to worship with us. "Come with us and we will do thee good."

Mrs. McCray, the new teacher in our public schools, arrived from University Place Monday evening, accompanied by her two children and her mother, and are guests of Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Henry, until they commence housekeeping in one of the Charlton cottages.

Monday of next week comes school election.

See the balloon ascension in Loup City Saturday.

J. H. Froehlich returned last evening from his visit at Lincoln.

Charles Minshull visited at Kearney and Grand Island the past week.

Mrs. Ed Angier entertains the Entre Nous club tomorrow afternoon.

A baby girl was born last Sunday to Mr. and Mrs. Ira Daddow of Clay township.

Miss Minnie Kornrumpf came up Omaha last evening to nurse Grandma Rawson.

Mrs. Rawson was taken quite ill last Sunday but at present her condition is slightly improved.

Winnie and John Howe, children of Louis Howe of Council Bluffs, Iowa, visited with Miss Marie Pilger last week.

Miss Lillian Amick of St. Paul visited a few days this week with Miss Helma Froehlich, returning home today.

Clarence Sweetland, carrier on R. No. 2, has purchased a motor cycle and Monday made his first trip over the route on it.

Mrs. Myrtle Holloway, a sister of C. E. Lundy, who has been here several months, left for Topeka, Kansas, this morning.

The East Circle of the Methodist church will hold an exchange at Jeffords' store, Saturday, June 27. Everything good to eat.

E. G. Taylor entertained his Sunday school class last evening. Refreshments of ice cream and cake were served, and a fine time had.

Judge Moon returned last Saturday from his extended visit to the east, attending the old soldiers' reunion at Vicksburg and visiting old battle fields.

The heavy wind of Monday night moved a corncrib on the farm of Ignatz Janulewicz, east of town, also smashing a new wagon into kindling wood.

Messrs. Will and E. A. Draper assisted by J. F. Nicolson went to Ashton yesterday morning to do a job of plastering a few miles south of that village.

Wm. Engle will sell eight head of his milch cows on Saturday, June 27, 1908, at half past three o'clock at the Round Front barn. Will thought he could milk twenty head of cows, but finds he cannot stand so much work of that kind.

Clayton Mead left this morning with a car of household goods and stock to join his father at Fallon, Nevada, where he has purchased land. Misses Bertha and Marjorie Mead expect to leave Monday morning for Fallon, but we understand Mrs. Mead will not go till later.

We are promised a balloon ascension and parachute leap in Loup City on Saturday evening of this week. Prof. Jacobs of St. Paul will be here and make the ascension. The business men put up the money and it will be free for everybody. Farmers come to town Saturday and witness the ascension.

Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Jones, parents of Mrs. O. A. Hall of this city, have come to Loup City to spend the summer. Mr. Jones will be remembered by some of our citizens as spending some time here fourteen years ago in connection with a series of meetings held under the auspices of the Adventist church.

The usual Friday evening service at the Seventh-day Adventist church will be held in the future at 8:15 instead of 8 o'clock. The subjects considered at these services will be of interest and importance not only to the members of the church but to all. A cordial invitation is therefore extended to all to attend these services.

Messrs. John and Henry Ohlsen were called to Grand Island Wednesday morning to attend the funeral of Mr. Henry Thompson, a cousin of Mrs. Henry Ohlsen, who died from a stroke of paralysis on Monday. The death of Mr. Thompson was entirely unexpected as no word had been received of his illness, and indeed he had been comparatively well up to the time preceding the paralytic stroke.

A party of Loup City men started for Elko, Nevada, this noon to look at the country for possible investment. They were C. Truelsen, C. W. Conhiser, H. B. Musser and W. D. Zimmerman. For the past week a real estate promoter from that state, named Heather, has been here interesting our people in that country, and the gentlemen above were interested enough to make a trip to see the country.

L. E. Knapp was in Tuesday morning from his farm nine miles north and said the hail storm the night previous in his section was something fierce. Mammoth hail stones almost as large as a man's fist prevailed, pounding small grain to pieces and injuring corn to a considerable extent. Hail pounded a number of horses in a pasture belonging to Jud Ford, and running into the barbed wire fences five of his horses were badly injured and it was not known Tuesday morning whether any of the horses would live or not. Mr. Ford lost at least a thousand dollars' worth of wheat, mowing it to the ground. We have no word from others in that section, but it is probable many other farmers suffered equally as severe losses.
