

DR. RICH'S CATARRH REMEDY

Home Treatment Price $3.00

Dr. Rich, the well known Grand Island Specialist, has arranged a system of Home Treatment for Catarrh of the various organs of the body, and is now prepared to supply to any sufferer from this prevalent disease a course of remedies that will be found to be not only satisfactory in every respect, but at a price certainly reasonable, and within the reach of everybody. During the five years Dr. Rich has been in Grand Island he has carefully avoided the treatment of Catarrhal conditions of the body, not being prepared to take up a work requiring time from his already extensive office business. During the past year, however, Dr. Rich has perfected a method which he offers below, for treating Catarrh in the home, and feels not only assured of excellent results, but that he will make many new friends, which will assist in increasing his already large practice. A photograph below shows one of the $3.00 outfits, and should give a perfect idea of the value offered. Dr. Rich's treatment for Catarrh is a Home Treatment in every sense, and can be used without detention from business. A full month's treatment of these remedies will be sent for $3.00. You may order as often as you like at the same price, or have the treatment sent to your friends. As there will be a large demand from the many people familiar with Dr. Rich's reputation as a Skillful Specialist, you are kindly requested to order early and avoid delay.

and American alike pass from one citizenship to another with far less friction than an Englishman can be transplanted to either American or Canadian soil.—Atlantic Monthly.

Red-Haired Charmers.

"There are no red-haired old maids."

The speaker, a red-haired actress, lighted a fresh cigarette and went on:

"The red-haired have an excess of iron in their blood. This causes them to overflow with vitality, animal spirits, gaiety, wit, charm—but I must not boast, must I?"

She smiled, and, smoothing her ruddy locks with a silm white hand, she added:

"At any rate, it is a palpable fact that the red-haired girl never gets left. As a rule she is married at 20. A red-haired old maid is a greater rarity than a millionaire anarchist. Leap year brings with 1908, but we red-haired girls have no need of leap year."

Morgan Surmounted Difficulty.

"Tit-Bits tells how J. Pierpont Morgan succeeded in interviewing the pope and Queen Helena within half an hour. The queen fixed the appointment for 10:45 o'clock and the pope for 11:15 o'clock on the same morning. The difficulty of the task was increased owing to the fact that the queen's audience Mr. Morgan should appear in a frock coat with a fancy tie, and his daughter, who was to accompany him, should appear in a light colored walking gown, with an appropriate hat; while the etiquette of the Vatican prescribed for Mr. Morgan evening dress and a white tie, and for the lady a black gown and a black lace veil over her hair, both to be ungloried and unjeweled. A quick change artist might have made light of this matter. Even Mr. Morgan and his daughter effected the transformation in five minutes after a 20 minutes' interview with the queen, and a fast motor did the rest.

Can't Change Herself.

A woman can follow the style that makes herself a fright and which makes somebody else handsome. So long as it is the style, it goes. But she cannot change herself, and that is the thing over which the criticising man wants to rejoice.—Manchester Union.

Anything to Oblige.

Farmer—"Have you seen my bull?"
Golfer—"Gracious me! No! Where is he?"
Farmer—"That's just it; he's got loose, and we want to find him. So if you meet him, you might just keep on that there red coat o' your'n and run this way!"

Temple of Serpents.

The small town of Werda, in the kingdom of Dahomey, is celebrated for its temple of serpents, a long building in which the priests keep upward of 1,000 serpents of all sizes. These they feed with birds and frogs brought to them as offerings by the natives.

"Esq."

The term "esquire" is now at a discount among all men of rank and sense. Nobody seems to care a rushlight about it except barbers, tailors' apprentices and clerks on small salaries.

Tribute to Good Nature.

Good nature is worth more than knowledge, more than money, to the persons who possess it, and certainly to everybody who dwells with them, in so far as mere happiness is concerned.—Henry Ward Beecher.

Substitute for Bucket.

When it is necessary to carry water and a bucket is not available, take a basket and cover its interior with a piece of cheap table oilcloth. Not a drop of water will be wasted.

One Should Be Enough.

A scientist declares that the brain presents unanswerable problems. Not the least of these is the question why any man wants to be a bigamist.—Cleveland Leader.

Queer Idea of Happiness.

It is the misfortune of the bachelor that he has no one to tell him frankly his faults; but the husband has this happiness.—Jean Paul Richter.

Actions More Than Words.

Every man feels instinctively that all the beautiful sentiments in the world weigh less than a single lovely action.—Lowell.

Sin Against Light.

It is no disgrace to be mistaken; it is a crime to be a hypocrite. That is the sin against light—the worst of all.—John Oliver Hobbs.

Cum Grano Salis.

Never believe a man to be clever on the authority of any of his acquaintances. These reputed geniuses are nearly always blockheads.

Muskrat Coats.

The skin of muskrats is largely made use of in the manufacture of the cheaper grades of fur coats.

Tin from Malay States.

The federated Malay states produce 60 per cent of the world's production of tin.

Sadness In Memory.

Tennyson: Sorrow's crown of sorrow is remembering happier things.

The American in Canada

The American farmer is a practical man; there is no cleverer-headed citizen in the world, and moreover he is frankly honest. When he finds in Canada a system of jurisprudence under which law is everywhere respected, when he learns that Canada has never seen a lynching, that Canadian history tells of no Indian wars, he is very willing to acknowledge that there is little here he would wish to change. The fact is that in his general views and attitude toward life no one is more like a Canadian than an American. The fact that they are subjected to similar environment and to the same broad sweeping continental forces readily explains how by merely crossing north or south an imaginary boundary line Canadian
