Where Control Was Lacking

Pitcher All Right with the Ball, But Not in Other Respects.

A pitcher belonging to a professional baseball club, who thought he was not getting his share of the lime-light of publicity, went one day to the light and manager to make his captain and manager to make his "kick." Being of a somewhat choleric disposition, which had got him into trouble more than once, he spoke with feeling. "Cap," he said, "you're not giving me a square deal, and you know it." "What's the matter, Bill?" "You know what's the matter, cap. I haven't been in the box for three weeks. You know I can play ball. I've got every outcurve, inshoot, upshoot and drop there is in the business. I've got everything that any other pitcher has. I can put on speed, and I can send 'em slow. I can get 'em right over the plate every time I want to. Haven't I got as good control of the ball as any fellow you know of?" "Yes, Bill," said the captain, "you have. When you get as good control of your temper as you have of the ball I'll use you, all right. Don't you be uneasy about that, Bill." "Bill" went away deep in thought, and it was not very long after that conversation that he "got into the game" again.—Youth's Companion.

Conservative Russia.
Russia is the country that has made fewest changes in its stamps. In nearly 50 years Russia has brought out only eight distinctive designs. The most extravagant in the production of new designs are the Central American republics. For example, Salvador, with a population of $25,000 and an area smaller than that of New Jersey, issued a new and distinctive series of postage stamps each year between 1890 and 1900.

Men's Dress.

Men are dressed as they are chiefly because fewer of them look ridiculous so clothed than they would in any other costume. Modern dress is merciful to men; it gives no undue advantage to the well-built and handsome—indeed, it detracts from their appearance and modifies the figures of those not blessed with a fine physique.—Court Journal.

Your Responsibility.

No life is just the same after you have once touched it. Will you leave a ray of hope or one of despair, a flash of light or a somber cloud across some dark life each day? Will you by thoughtless cruelty deepen the shadow which hangs over the life, or will you by kindness dispel it altogether? No matter how you feel or what is disturbing your peace of mind never allow yourself to send out a discouraging, a cruel or an unkind word or thought.—Success Magazine.

The eastbound Burlington train No. 42 had a narrow escape from a serious accident at Birdsall, near Alliance, that was only avoided by the engineer being able to clearly see some ties and other obstruction that had been placed on the track. Few men in the country are more interested in the outcome of the presidential election than Min Foster, residing in Bluff precinct, Hamilton county. If Bryan is elected Mr. Foster will have his hair cut for the first time in twelve years. When Bryan was nominated at Chicago in 1898 for the first time Mr. Foster enthusiastically expressed his confidence that the great commoner would win.
