A special term of the district court was held here Tuesday of this week, his honor, Judge Hostetler presiding. The saloon cases of John Heesch, M. C. Mulick and T. Henry Elsner came up for hearing, being carried from the ruling of the city council by the anti-saloon league. Judge Hostetler overruled the contentions of the league and in favor of the action of the council in granting licenses to the above. It is understood that an appeal will be made to the supreme court. The two cases of the county against ex-County Clerk Gibson for certain moneys unaccounted for during his terms of office, came up for hearing on a demurrer from defendant, which was overruled by his honor and defendant given thirty days into which to file answer. The status of the cases are such that they will undoubtedly come to trial at the coming term of district court, which has been put off to November 17th. The judge advised counsel to submit the cases to a referee, instead of having trial by jury, which counsel for prosecution is willing to do but defense refuses. County Attorney Mathew will be assisted in these cases by Attorney R. J. Nightingale, while the defense has W. H. Thompson of Grand Island to assist its regular counsel, which will make a lively legal battle between the forces.

C. C. Cooper yesterday sold his mercantile establishment to Felix Makowski and W. G. McNulty. We have not heard Mr. Cooper's future intentions, though we understand he will not move from Loup City, at least for the present. It is possible Mr. Cooper may re-engage in business here at no distant day. The Northwestern wishes success to all parties.

Local Notes.

After traveling 800 miles Anton Budler returned home Sunday evening and says he killed a big rattler with 19 rattles and one button. He also visited Mr. Falk's and says they are doing fine, but Mrs. Falk's health is quite poor.

Charles Barnes' second boy was rendered unconscious for quite a while Wednesday from a severe fall.

Lena Younglund spent last Sunday at her home.

It seems good to see Jim Conger on the route again.

C. L. Arnett's are having lots of company. Frank Arnett, a cousin, is here and they are expecting their daughter Saturday.

Jim Gilbert is working for Charles Barnes.

Mr. and Mrs. Bauder and family from Phillips, a niece of Mr. Arnett, arrived Saturday evening on a visit, also to Mr. Clark's.

Mr. Kilpatrick's visited at the Foss home Sunday.

Chas. Siclick and family from Iowa visiting them.

Mr. A. Gunnarson of Aurora is here looking after his property.

While S. Younglund's were robbing their bees Friday several of the family were stung quite severely, Mrs. Younglund being quite ill from the effects.

S. Foss sold some cattle to Out-house Wednesday.

Mr. Clark's brother and family returned home to Aurora Saturday.

Haying has begun in fine shape and is of good quality.

Ross, Warlick and family, from Danneberg visited here over Sunday.

Mr. Olson's married son from Stromsburg is here and will locate if everything is suitable.

Mrs. Ling's sister returned home Monday morning.

We understand Fred Davenport has rented the Ransink farm and the old people are going to move to town.

Prof. A. M. Young is a new reader of the Northwestern. The professor is one of the able instructors of the Loup City schools.

Jack Brown's wheat has graded No. 1. This is due he claims to planting it with a Monitor drill bought of Jamrog & Son of Ashton.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Goodwin and infant daughter were here from Grand Island over last Sunday visiting Grandpa and Grandma Mulick.

Last week we made mention of the fact that the state board of equalization had reduced the assessed valuation in Sherman county 5 per cent. Later report has it that the state board did still better by reducing 10 per cent instead.

Dr. C. H. Longacre, a recent graduate of the medical school at Louisville, Ky., was here a few days last week on a visit to his brother, Dr. C. E. Longacre. We understand he will practice medicine at Louisville, where he graduated.

Lightning last Saturday night, striking the steeple of the new Catholic church, damaging it so severely that it will have to be rebuilt. The bolt struck just below the cross on the south side cutting the steeple as though severed with a knife, the damage being greatest on the inside of the steeple.

Misses Edna and Winnie Sullivan of Kearney and recent graduates of the Kearney state normal, arrived last Friday on a visit of a week or ten days to their sister, Mrs. Geo. Stork. Mrs. Stork was formerly a teacher and there are also two other sisters in the family who are teachers. A pretty good record of teacher fraternity in one family.

Mr. A. M. Lewis of Aurora is here looking after his farm a few miles southeast of the city. He has rented the same for another year, but will thereafter undoubtedly move on to and cultivate the same. He is a very pleasant gentleman and we will be pleased to announce his coming to Sherman county to take personal charge of his interests here.

C. J. Tracy and son, Milford, returned last Thursday evening from their extended visit to Mr. Tracy's good father at Ghent, New York. Mrs. Tracy will return next week, having stopped to visit friends in Illinois a few days. Mr. and Mrs. Tracy also visited a few weeks in Brooklyn and New York City, taking in Coney Island and the various sights of the big cities and pleasure resorts. They had the time of their lives.

Robt. Jenner arrived here from London, England, Monday, to assist his brother, Harry Jenner, at the park for the season. Mr. Jenner is a great traveler and sees about as much of the world as anyone. He left here last fall, going to California, later going from San Francisco to Panama, thence to New York City, thence to England, where he attended the great Olympic sports, and now returns to Loup City. He says the great athletic carnival in London was one of the greatest scenes he ever witnessed, and the English people were very highly pleased with the showing of the American athletes, and notwithstanding the reports received on this side of the water about so-called unfairness to America's contestants, every courtesy was extended them and the reports were without foundation in fact. Mr. Jenner is looking fine and claims he is feeling as well as his looks seem to indicate.
