The Northwestern regrets to announce the death last Sunday morning of Supervisor Andrew Garstka of Ashton, who has been ill for the past three months with typhoid fever at the home of Geo. Wasnicki in this city. The remains were taken to Ashton Sunday noon and on Monday the funeral took place at St. Francis Catholic church in that village, a number of Loup City friends attending. We are told the funeral was the most largely attended of any held in this county for years, attesting the esteem in which he was held. Andrew Garstka was born in Posen, Poland, March 19, 1861. He came to this country some twenty years ago and settled in Nebraska. He leaves four brothers in Poland, and two brothers and a sister in Wisconsin, besides a wife and nine children near Ashton, 4 boys and 5 girls, the oldest a son of 19 and the youngest a baby of 18 months. He was a member of the Modern Woodmen and Highways and of the Catholic Alliance of Ashton, under the auspices of which he was buried. At the time of his death he was a member of the county board of supervisors and has held numerous positions of trust in the county. He was sincerely mourned by a large circle of friends, besides a heartbroken wife and large family of children.

Sherman County's first Old Settler's Reunion held at Jenner's Park on Wednesday and Thursday, Sept. 9th and 10th. This event should be enjoyed by all, both old and new.

The most enterprising and prospering institution of Sherman county is the Loup City Park, which is conceded to be the finest of its size in the state for beauty and original amusements. The owner and builder, Henry Jenner, has spent a small fortune on the construction and has spared no pains in bringing it to the high state of perfection it is now.

For celebrations like the coming event of the 9th and 10th instant it cannot be beaten. Those who have once visited this beautiful park will be certain to come again; those who have not been cannot afford to miss it on Sept. 9 and 10.

On Sunday, August 30, 1908, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Chase in this city, Mr. Carl H. Johnson and Miss Fannie H. Sutton were happily united in wedlock by Rev. D. W. James. Mr. Johnson is a prosperous druggist of Ord, Nebr. Mrs. Johnson is the youngest daughter of Mr. A. Sutton, formerly a resident of Loup City, but now living at Ord. There were present only the immediate family of the bride and a brother of the groom, namely, Mr. Alonzo Sutton, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Chase, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Waite, Mr. and Mrs. Rowan Sutton, Grandma Waite, Miss Jennie Sutton, Mr. Frank Johnson and the little nephews and nieces of the bride. The house was prettily decorated in golden rod, which the many friends of the young couple hope is a prophecy of the wealth of happiness they will enjoy. Following the ceremony a sumptuous wedding dinner was served, which was greatly appreciated. Mr. and Mrs. Johnson will spend a week in Omaha and then return to Ord where they will make a home for the bride's father. The happy pair have the best wishes of a host of friends.
