A sad story of the burning to death of the six months old baby of John Parkhurst, living up in the sandhills, comes to us. It seems the family had been away visiting for the day, last Sunday, coming home late in the evening and lighting a lamp, placed the baby in bed and went out to do the milking and on coming back to the house found the lamp had exploded, setting the bed on fire and burning the baby so badly that it died two hours later. Mrs. Parkhurst is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Kilpatrick of Webster township, this county. The Northwestern extends deep sympathy to the afflicted family.

There is a movement on foot to take up a subscription paper to reimburse W. T. Gibson for moneys expended in making the bridges and ice breaks, for which the voters failed to vote a special levy at the late election. It is a good move and we hope will go through. We understand such men as Troy Hale, A. P. Culley, W. O. Brown and other men of money will start such a paper with at least $50 each, and a large number of us small fry will also give of our little to forward the movement. Let some friend of Taylor Gibson start the ball to rolling.

Rev. L. C. McEwen of the Presbyterian church in this city, last Sunday evening tendered his resignation as pastor of the church, to take effect about the first of December. Rev. McEwen has received and accepted a call to the First Presbyterian church at Kearney, a much larger and greater church and work than here, and an important advancement for him in his life work in the service of his Master. Rev. McEwen has done a great work for the church here, in fact a work almost unprecedented in the history of Presbyterianism in so small a town, having by tireless efforts and unflagging energy, built up a good membership, and secured the building of one of the finest church buildings in the state, which is a pride not only to the Presbyterians themselves, but also to every citizen of Loup City and Sherman county. The reverend has established a reputation as a pulpit orator that has brought calls to him not only from the one he has accepted, but from other and even larger cities, but failed to see his way clear to accept a call elsewhere until he had fulfilled his mission here and could feel satisfied as to the permanency and future success of the church in Loup City. This he feels is accomplished and he will be followed by his new field of labor by the best wishes of not only his own church people, but the kindest regards of our people at large.

The gentlemen were absent some three weeks and Mr. Hayhurst expresses himself as especially glad to be home and at business again after his enforced absence.

Friendship, Love and Truth

"My Boy, Jack," will probably be one of the most refined productions given at Pilger's opera house this season. There are no slum scenes, no heavy browed villains, no adventurers, no exaggerated climaxes or impossible situations, no monkey-faced comedians no impossible Hebrews and no short-skirted soubrettes, but there is plenty of fun, causing hearty whole-souled laughter; bright, witty dialogue, reasonable and logical complications and situations, set in an atmosphere of art, with a touch of life in Bohemia, and there is not one word which can offend the most sensitive nature. "My Boy, Jack," is a story of friendship, love and truth, and no greater sermon has ever been preached from any pulpit by the most eminent divines of the day, than can be drawn from the presentation of "My Boy, Jack." "Jack Paden," the hero, is the acme of young American manhood, he is true, loyal, chivalrous and self sacrificing, he is the kind of boy, that in time of trouble, goes to the front and dies for a principle, and in these days of hustle, worry, intrigue and selfishness, it is refreshing to come in contact with one of nature's noblemen, and such is Jack Paden, whose unconscious motto is, "Do unto others as you would have them do unto you," and yet he will make you laugh. Edwin Milton Royle is responsible for him, and he may well be proud of "My Boy, Jack." This production will be at Pilger's opera house, Loup City, Tuesday, Nov. 17.

In the District Court of Sherman county, Nebraska.
In the matter of the application of LeVina J. Sparks, guardian of the persons and estates of William A. Sparks, Walter E. Sparks, Bertie A. Sparks, Ray E. Sparks and Vernie Sparks, minor children of James A. Sparks, deceased, to sell the real estate of said minors. Order to show cause why license should not be granted to said guardian to sell real estate of her said wards, to raise funds for their maintenance and education.

On reading and filing the petition, duly verified of LeVina J. Sparks, guardian of the persons and estates of William A. Sparks, Walter E. Sparks, Bertie A. Sparks, Ray E. Sparks and Vernie Sparks, minors, for a license to sell the undivided five-eighths interest of said minors in the following described real estate situate in Sherman county, Nebraska, to-wit: the west half of the north-west quarter, and the north half of the south-west quarter of Section seven (7), in Township fourteen (14) north of Range sixteen (16), west of sixth principal meridian, for the purpose of raising funds for the maintenance and education of said minors, and it appearing from said petition that said real estate consists of unimproved land, from which very little income can be obtained and that it is necessary to sell the same for said purpose.

It is therefore ordered that the next of kind of said minors, and all persons interested in said estate appear before me at the court house in Loup City, Nebraska, on the 18th day of November, 1908, at the hour of nine o'clock in the forenoon to show cause why license should not be granted to the said LeVina J. And it is further ordered that a copy of this order be published once each week for three successive weeks in the Loup City Northwestern, a legal newspaper printed and published and of general circulation in said County of Sherman.

Mr. Lewis is well known throughout this section of the county, as he has been in the employ of that company for a number of years. He leaves a wife and six children, also an aged mother.

There was a wreck on the Hazard railroad yard Sunday afternoon, the train crew being detailed. The train crew from Ravenna and section men came to repair damages, as some of the cars were in rolling condition.
