GUARANTEE

STATE OF NEBRASKA, } ss.
Hall County.

Dr. Rich, being first duly sworn, deposes and says, that the illustration below is a true representation of the $3.00 catarrh outfit for catarrh of the head, nose and throat, herein advertised, and that any one ordering same and finding it not satisfactory may have his money returned upon demand.

DR. RICH.

Subscribed in my presence and sworn to before me this 25th day of February, 1908. JOHN ALLAN, Notary Public.
My Commission expires Jan. 5, 1912.

Guaranteed under the Pure Food and Drug Act of June 30, 1906. Serial Number No. 18752. The above outfits contain no Morphine, Opium, Cocaine, Heroin, Eucaine, Chloroform, Cannabis Indica, Chloral Hydrate, Acetaniline, or any of their derivatives.

Dr. Rich, the well known Grand Island Specialist, has arranged a system of Home Treatment for Catarrh of the various organs of the body, and is now prepared to supply to any sufferer from this prevalent disease a course of remedies that will be found to be not only satisfactory in every respect, but at a price certainly reasonable, and within the reach of everybody. During the five years Dr. Rich has been in Grand Island he has carefully avoided the treatment of Catarrhal conditions of the body, not being prepared to take up a work requiring time from his already extensive office business. During the past year, however, Dr. Rich has perfected a method which he offers below, for treating Catarrh in the home, and feels not only assured of excellent results, but that he will make many new friends, which will assist in increasing his already large practice. A photograph below shows one of the $3.00 outfits, and should give a perfect idea of the value offered. Dr. Rich's treatment for Catarrh is a Home Treatment in every sense, and can be used without detention from business. A full month's treatment of these remedies will be sent for $3.00. You may order as often as you like at the same price, or have the treatment sent to your friends. As there will be a large demand from the many people familiar with Dr. Rich's reputation as a Skillful Specialist, you are kindly requested to order early and avoid delay.

RESULT OF CHARITABLE ACT.

Indiana Man Suffers Through Extending the Helping Hand.

Joseph H. Barr of Bruceville, member of the Republican state committee from the Second district, comes to Indianapolis often. Committeeman Barr is sober and industrious and a farmer. While in Indianapolis Mr. Barr was telling his friends of the most embarrassing experience he ever had. It happened on account of his good nature and a willingness to do a kind act for a friend.

One night Mr. Barr ran across a neighbor who had been out with "the boys." The neighbor was feeling most jubilant and Barr decided that he ought to take him home.
The committeeman found he had a job on his hands, and it was very late when he arrived with his neighbor at the latter's door.
"Where in the world have you been?" demanded the neighbor's wife as he made his way upstairs.

"Well, you see, my dear," said the neighbor, unsteadily, "I have spent two hours taking Joe Barr home."
"It was but a few hours," said Barr, "until my family heard that I had to be taken home. I've been ever since trying to straighten that out with my wife. You see what an innocent man gets by doing a charitable act."

HIS SITUATION TO BE ENVIED.
Sheep Herder's Post is No Longer One of Isolation.
At the head of a deep, wooded canyon, a branch of Upper McKay creek, I came upon a sheep herder's tent the other day, and at sight of the camp there in the woods I moralized upon the fate of the sheep herder, and my heart went out in sympathy for him in his alleged "loneliness."
But upon visiting his camp that evening I "took back" what I said in sympathy for him and almost envied the entertaining versatility of his seclusion.
In one corner of his tent was a good phonograph and nearer it several choice records. For my delight he rendered two or three selections by Patti, Caruso, Schumann Helik and other singers, a speech by Bryan, a vandyke selection and an act from Shakespeare's "Julius Caesar."
Under the head of his bed were half a dozen of the best magazines (some of which I had not found time to read), and at the foot of the bed lay well thumbed copies of the latest novels.

I looked at this bronzed son of the hills in genuine envy. Here he may read, write, think, commune with nature, or be carried to the great conservatories of the artists, while the driven slaves of the city must bend over a desk day and night to meet the terrific competition of this soulless commercial age.—East Oregonian.
Life is short, yet sweet.—Euripides.
