Death of Mrs. Mulick's Father

After long weeks of suffering, Dennis Carey is at rest. Mr. Carey was born in the parish of Lough Lea, County Galway, Ireland, May 20, 1817. While a young man, Mr. Carey came to America and on Nov. 5, 1848, at Hartford, Conn., was married to Miss Mary Swift, of the parish of Kiltrent, County Galway, Ireland. Later Mr. and Mrs. Carey came to Juno county, Wis., to make their home, and 37 years ago they came to the farm near Chester, where they have since resided. Twelve children were born to them, 10 are living, all of whom were with their father in his last illness, viz: Mrs. Catherine Noonan, of Noonan, S. D.; William Carey, Albert Lea, Minn.; Mrs. Mary Ann Bagan, Estherville, Iowa; Mrs. Bridget Agnes Mulick, Loup City, Neb.; Mrs. Ellen Caspan, Red Lake Falls, Minn.; Mrs. Anne Doyle, Red Wing, Minn.; Miss Rosa Carey, Kilkenny, Minn.; Mrs. Margaret Martin, Fort Dodge, Iowa; Mrs. Elizabeth Granahan, Chester, John Dennis Carey, Chester, who with the aged wife and mother are left to mourn his death. There were also 75 grandchildren, of whom 64 are living, and 15 great-grandchildren, making a truly large family. Of direct descendants there being 102 people. Mr. Carey's life has been as an open book before the people here for 37 years, and he did not have an enemy. Though no one ever heard him say that he guided his life by the Golden Rule, yet no one ever doubted but what he followed the rule of doing by others as he would that they should do by him. He was always a kind neighbor and a true friend; he was proud of his large family, and they were proud of their beloved father. Mr. Carey died Feb. 19, 1909, and was buried at Albert Lea, Minn., Feb. 22nd, his pastor, Fr. O'Brien, of Riceville, had charge of the services at the home and on Monday morning accompanied the funeral party to the church of St. Theodore at Albert Lea, Minn., where high mass was celebrated at 10 o'clock by Rev. Fr. O'Brien, Rev. Fr. Carey, Rev. Fr. Matthew and Rev. Fr. Donevan, assisted by a highly trained choir, after which all that was mortal of Dennis Carey was deposited in the Carey lot beside his brothers, in the Calvary cemetery. The funeral was largely attended.—Chester (Ia.) Courier.

The Evangelistic Meetings.

When our town is getting something good we want everybody to know it and enjoy it with us. Especially is this true when the good we recommend is of the best and will leave no bad taste after it has been enjoyed. If you have not attended the meetings in the Presbyterian church where Mrs. McKinnin is singing as soloist and assisting the choir, and Rev. D. W. Montgomery, the new pastor, is preaching every night, you are missing it. The earnest appeals of song and sermon should reach many hearts. Even though one may fail to do all that is asked, yet there is the feeling that one is getting in line with the highest ideals simply in such services. We understand the meetings will be continued through next week at least. The Methodist and Baptist churches are uniting in the services. May great good come from this united effort.

M. E. Church Notes.

Rev. Clark Whitaker preached at Comstock last Sunday afternoon and evening to good congregations. Let all persons interested in the organization of a Sunday school at the Baillie school house please be present next Sunday at 3 p. m. The pastor of the M. E. church of Loup City will be present to preach and assist in the organization. Owing to the revival services at the Presbyterian church, there will be no evening sermon at the M. E. church Sunday evening. J. O. Hawk, Pastor.
