Last Thursday evening the drouth was broken here by a quarter of an inch of rain. It commenced with a severe wind, accompanied by hail, which subsided after a few moments, without doing damage to speak of.

You'll be blown into "smithereens" if you don't call at the bank and get Ira E. Williams to write a TOR-NADO policy. Why worry over every big storm when a very few dollars will insure you for five long years? Do it NOW.

The Christensen-Ferdinandt Furniture Co. is now nicely ensconced in their fine new store room in the Sweetland block. It is splendid quarters for this enterprising firm, and we believe the most showy and nicely appointed of any in the city. They are to be congratulated.

The High School Juniors entertained the Seniors and instructors at the home of Miss Elma Corning, last Thursday evening. The rooms were tastefully decorated in the class colors and pennants and carnations. Dainty refreshments was served and a most pleasant evening reported.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira E. Williams were made happy Friday by the arrival of their daughter, Mrs. Nellie Platz, and their infant granddaughter, from Fremont, who will visit here for a couple of weeks. Miss Emma Williams, who has been visiting at Fremont for a number of weeks, also returned home and will remain.

Deliver Your Own Cream

A long experience has convinced us that we receive the best cream and have the most satisfactory deal with our patrons when the patron delivers his own cream direct to the Creamery. Therefore, and as a matter of justice to the patron who will so deliver his cream, we have decided to pay two cents per pound of butter-fat extra to compensate the patron for the extra labor required, beginning May 1st, 1909.

Mrs. John Chipps died at her home on Davis Creek, Tuesday, May 11th, from the effects of a paralytic shock, which she suffered Saturday. She was born at Uniontown, Pa., March 20, 1842, and was married to John Chipps, March 1, 1885. In 1885, she with her family, moved from Iowa to Sherman county, onto the farm on which she died. She leaves to mourn her death a husband and seven children, besides a host of friends.

Funeral services were held from the house Wednesday, conducted by Rev. E. A. Wells of the Friends church, and the body was laid to rest in the North Loup cemetery.—North Loup Localist.

M. Nickolaus, Jr., who removed two years ago this spring from this county to a farm he purchased near Loup City, was in Aurora last Monday on the way home from a week's visit with relatives and friends in Farmers Valley precinct and his parents who live in Sutton. Mr. Nickolaus is very well pleased with his investments in Sherman county and thinks there is a great future for that part of the state. He sold the first farm he purchased up there and doubled his money on the deal. He immediately purchased another farm, rented it, and moved into town, and expects to make a nice thing on this deal.—Aurora Republican.
