

A Self-Evident Fact.

The fact that the business of this bank during the past nine months has increased more than thirty per cent is evidence of an increasing number of depositors, of satisfactory service and facilities, that the accommodations extended have fully met the demands of our patrons.

The First National Bank

of Loup City gets its charter from the government. It is under Government supervision and every reasonable precaution is taken by the Government to insure the safety of the funds deposited with us. If you do not at present possess a bank account, we give you a personal invitation to deposit your money in this bank.

A. P. CULLEY, President, L. HANSEN, Cashier,
IRA E. WILLIAMS, Vice Pres., O. E. ADAMS, Asst. Cashier

THE NORTHWESTERN

THURSDAY, JUNE 17, 1909

A Few Market Quotations.

Corn, per bu.	.62
Wheat, per bu.	1.15
Oats, per bu.	.45
Rye, per bu.	.70
Butter, per lb.	.18
Eggs, per doz.	.16
Hens, per lb.	.08
Spring chickens, per lb.	.12½

LOCAL NEWS.

FIRE! FIRE!! FIRE!!!

Patronize Nebraska Institutions. The Columbia and the State of Omaha are strictly first-class. Ira E. Williams, Resident Agent, at First National Bank.

For field seeds see T. M. Reed. Will Odenahl returned to Denver Tuesday.

3 on 62, Ashley Conger, the drayman. Get him.

Loans on real estate, call on John W. Long.

W. R. Mellor and wife came up from Lincoln last evening.

Try a sack of Loup City flour, for sale at your flour dealers.

Ashton will celebrate the Fourth this year on Sunday, the 3rd.

Protect your buildings with Lead & Zinc. Geo. Stork does the work.

I will guarantee 22c for butter fat I test and pay cash.—A. E. CHASE.

St. Paul will celebrate the glorious National day on Saturday, July 3rd.

If you want a dray in a hurry and get quick work, see Stewart Conger.

Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Reynolds drove to Litchfield, on Saturday of last week.

Have your house look like new with Lead & Zinc. Stork will give you prices.

A baby boy was born Tuesday of this week to Mr. and Mrs. Becker of Austin.

Lee Bros. will pay the highest market price in cash for your spring chickens.

Children's day services at the Baptist church this coming Sunday evening. A cordial invitation to all to be present.

You make no mistake in calling on the Stewart Conger drays when you want quick service.

Mr. John Ohlson of Route No. 2, became a reader of the Northwestern last Friday. Many thanks.

Mrs. J. M. O'Bryan and baby of St. Paul were here over last Sunday, visiting Grandpa and Grandma Swanson.

Windmills, Pumps and all kind of supplies. All kinds of work guaranteed. J. M. Czaplewski Phone 3-23 Davenport & Baker.

Mrs. Lina Rolla of Stockham Neb., who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. S. Foss, the past week left for her home Monday morning.

The Stewart Conger drays are on the rush from morning to night, but you will get the quickest kind of service on a hurry call. Try them.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Outhouse and the Misses Meroe and Emma Outhouse went to Arcadia last evening to attend the Fries-Lewin wedding reception.

Jenner's Park in their Fourth of July celebration on JULY FIFTH, have secured the Arcadia band to give the music, and it is a splendid musical aggregation, too.

L. G. Lofholm, A. E. Chase, Miss Jennie Sutton, S. N. Sweetland, O. F. Peterson and Leslie Sweetland went to Grand Island Monday to take cream tester's examination.

The Bon Ton Restaurant will serve regular dinners hereafter, instead of short orders, at noon time, for the benefit of its former patrons. Price, 25c. Mrs. Katie Burrows, Manager.

The Glorious Fourth will be observed at Jenner's Park on JULY FIFTH, with one of the biggest celebrations ever given in Loup City or the country roundabout. Make your arrangements to come in and celebrate with us on that day. Big Day, Big Times, Big Doings of all kinds. See small prog.

Farm Loans

At the First National Bank, Loup City. Cheap rates, quick action. Plenty of money the year round.

GROCERY DEPARTMENT

2 cans Columbia River Salmon for.	25c
1 lb. good Coffee.	15c
German-American Coffee	20c and 25c
3 boxes Corn Flake.	25c
3 boxes Egg O-See.	25c
2 cans of 25c Peaches.	35c
2 cans of 35c Apricots.	35c
2 cans Tomatoes.	25c
3 cans good Corn.	25c

We pay the highest market price for Butter and Eggs. Bring your Chickens to us, we pay 9c. Remember the Place, the Big Store.

Loup City Mercantile Co.

Leslie Sweetland returned home Tuesday evening. He has been spending a few days at Denver, since school ended.

Dr. Barr of Lincoln arrived here Tuesday evening, on a visit to his daughter, Mrs. H. B. Musser, and family.

Mr. John Kosch of Rockville town ship became a new reader of the Northwestern Wednesday. Many thanks.

H. B. Musser's good mother left for her home at Council Bluffs Monday, Miss Esther Musser accompanying her for a visit.

Champ and Forrest Larsen, sons of Wm. Larsen, went to Hampton, last Saturday for a two weeks' visit with their grandparents.

Rev. W. Fisher of Jensen Neb., will preach at the German Church Sunday forenoon at half past ten. Everybody invited.

Miss May Adams of Mason City and Miss E. C. Eckles of Columbus were guests of Miss Esther Musser a few days last week.

On Friday evening the west division of the M. E. aid society will give an ice cream social on the lawn at C. J. Tracy's. You should be there.

The good mother and sister of Dr. Marcy on Wednesday returned to their home at Sterling Ills., after a most pleasant two week's visit here.

Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Lindahl visited here from Kearney Tuesday of this week. They expect to take a trip to the Seattle Exposition after July 4th and visit various parts of California and the Pacific Coast.

Oscar Swanson returned to his studies at Creighton University Monday morning after a week's vacation at home. Oscar has two months yet of study before he graduates in a course of pharmacy. He has several offers of positions as pharmacist to choose from.

There will be a basket supper and social at school house No. 30, known as the Dead Horse school, on the evening of the 30th instant, the proceeds to go for the purchase of an organ for the school. A generous attendance and financial response is solicited.

At Jenner's Park, JULY FIFTH, one of the most interesting events of the Nation's Natal Birthday will be a basket ball game between the fine home team that won the prize Opening Day at the Park, and the "Has Beens," who think they can play. You don't want to miss it, JULY FIFTH.

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Nightingale and daughter, Miss Beatrice Nightingale, left Monday morning for their summer outing on Lake Washington, adjoining Seattle and the big exposition grounds. Mr. Nightingale expects to return in about a month, while the wife and daughter will remain tenting out for the greater part of the summer.

A wedding of two of our prominent Polish young people was celebrated from the Catholic church in this city, Tuesday morning at 9 o'clock, that of Mr. Ed. Januelwicz and Miss Bertha John. The church was crowded by friends of the happy couple. A wedding reception was given afterward at the home of the bride's parents, some seven miles west of Loup City. They will go to Seattle on a wedding trip and visit the Expo. The Northwestern tenders congratulations.

We are in receipt of the following interesting card: "Mr. and Mrs. Chas. H. Burleigh announce the marriage of their daughter Bertha May to Mr. Edward H. Zurcher on Tuesday, June 17th, 1909, Lakeside, Neb." The bride is the eldest daughter of the editor's brother, a favorite niece of our's and one of the best and most lovable girls in the world. We congratulate Mr. Zurcher over the capture of the heart of our lovely niece and wish for both a long and happy married life. Miss Bertha will be remembered by many of Loup City young people as visiting the Northwestern household about a year since.

If you want a good cream separator see T. M. Reed.

E. G. Taylor had business at Grand Island yesterday.

We are paying 22 cents cash for cream delivered at the creamery. RAVENNA CREAMERY CO.

The Loup City Mill is still running day and night. They loaded out four cars of flour in the past six days, sending a car today to Lorenzo, Neb.

Miss Josie Sullivan of University Place is visiting at the home of E. G. Taylor for a few days. She is also looking after her land south of Ashton.

John W. Long contemplates going to Kentucky next week, to join his wife and children, who are visiting Mrs. Long's mother and brother, and bring them home.

As will be noticed by the Austin news this week, Austin will celebrate the Glorious Fourth on Saturday, the 3rd. A fine program and big time is promised. Everybody invited.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hooper are here from Buffalo county visiting. Mr. Hooper has sold out down there and is looking around for a location, and may possibly come to Loup City.

Breeders will take notice that the noted stallion, Basco B., will be in Loup City the first three days of each week during the present season, with headquarters at McLaughlin's barn.

The many friends of Mrs. Tom Skibinski of Farwell, formerly Miss Bell Kalka of this city, will regret to learn of her death Wednesday of this week, leaving a baby only a week old.

Josef Musil, a young Bohemian farmer living south of Ravenna, suicided last Friday morning by the carbolic acid route. Ill-health and despondency arising therefrom caused the deed.

A. L. Ballman of Howard county, son-in-law of Sam Daddow, of this city, has purchased an automobile and we may expect to see Alfred and family sailing into Loup City in it in the near future.

Mrs. Viola Odendahl and Miss Earnie Odendahl went to Columbus last Saturday morning to witness the first communion of Mrs. Odendahl's little niece, Irene Comer, in the Catholic school there.

The many friends of T. S. Nightingale were much pleased, Tuesday, to greet that gentleman, who had just arrived from his home at Riverside, Calif., for a few days' visit and for the transaction of some matters of business here. Mr. Nightingale is looking fine and as he says feeling finer, showing that the climate of Sunny Southern California has rejuvenated and made a well, healthy and strong man out of him. No one was more pleased to see him so than the writer. He will be here several days and will dispose of his business properties on our main business thoroughfare, if he can find suitable purchasers, as his home in California is a little too far away to properly look after them, and will dispose of the same at very reasonable figures.

A 10-o'clock dinner party was given last Friday morning by Miss Elva Zimmerman, in honor of Miss Dorothy Montgomery, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. D. W. Montgomery, of the Presbyterian church, at the Zimmerman home. Some thirteen young ladies attended this most pleasant social affair, as follows: Ruby Charlton, Pearl Needham, Addie Leininger, Monroe and Emma Outhouse, Dorothy Montgomery, Emma Williams, Ella Taylor, Esther Musser, Pearl Keeler, Miss Ediles of Columbus, Miss Wait of Lincoln, and Miss May Adams of Mason City. A nice little menu of five courses was served. First, Orange; Second, Poached Eggs on Toast, Potato Chippis, Lettuce, Radishes and Pickles; Third, Strawberries on Rosettes and Cream; Fourth, Cocoa and Wafers; Fifth, After Dinner Mince. A buttonhole bouquet was placed at each plate to be worn in honor of the occasion. Miss Marie Cooper, Fay Galloway and Marcia Ver Valin served at the table. It was a very unique and tasty luncheon.

The Brotherhood of the Presbyterian church are arranging for a fine program for their meeting, Sunday afternoon, July 4th. Splendid music, addresses and a program especially appropriate for the day will be given. Program next week. Look for it.

Miss Dorothy Montgomery, eldest daughter of Rev. and Mrs. D. W. Montgomery of the First Presbyterian church of this city, arrived home last Friday evening from Worthfield, Mass., where she has just graduated from the Northfield Seminary.

A little 2-year-old daughter of J. H. Holycross, living up on Oak Creek, was drowned last Friday night by falling into a stock tank. She had been playing around and had only been missed about five minutes when found drowned as above.

Last Friday was the 20th marriage anniversary of Rev. and Mrs. D. W. Montgomery of the Presbyterian church of this city, and they smilingly acknowledged congratulations of their many friends over the return of that auspicious event.

While engaged in driving a green colt Tuesday, Frank Brewer received a cut on the head by the colt rearing up and striking him in the head with one of his forefeet. However, the injury was not of a very serious nature.

Mrs. Hawk, Lucy Grow, Hattie Hayhurst and Mable Depew went to Rosedale, Monday morning to attend the campmeeting. Over 300 people were present.

We understand Ed. Oltmann was hailed out yesterday for the second time this season. Tough on Ed.

E. G. Taylor had business at Grand Island yesterday.

We are paying 22 cents cash for cream delivered at the creamery. RAVENNA CREAMERY CO.

The Loup City Mill is still running day and night. They loaded out four cars of flour in the past six days, sending a car today to Lorenzo, Neb.

Miss Josie Sullivan of University Place is visiting at the home of E. G. Taylor for a few days. She is also looking after her land south of Ashton.

John W. Long contemplates going to Kentucky next week, to join his wife and children, who are visiting Mrs. Long's mother and brother, and bring them home.

As will be noticed by the Austin news this week, Austin will celebrate the Glorious Fourth on Saturday, the 3rd. A fine program and big time is promised. Everybody invited.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hooper are here from Buffalo county visiting. Mr. Hooper has sold out down there and is looking around for a location, and may possibly come to Loup City.

Breeders will take notice that the noted stallion, Basco B., will be in Loup City the first three days of each week during the present season, with headquarters at McLaughlin's barn.

The many friends of Mrs. Tom Skibinski of Farwell, formerly Miss Bell Kalka of this city, will regret to learn of her death Wednesday of this week, leaving a baby only a week old.

Josef Musil, a young Bohemian farmer living south of Ravenna, suicided last Friday morning by the carbolic acid route. Ill-health and despondency arising therefrom caused the deed.

A. L. Ballman of Howard county, son-in-law of Sam Daddow, of this city, has purchased an automobile and we may expect to see Alfred and family sailing into Loup City in it in the near future.

Mrs. Viola Odendahl and Miss Earnie Odendahl went to Columbus last Saturday morning to witness the first communion of Mrs. Odendahl's little niece, Irene Comer, in the Catholic school there.

The many friends of T. S. Nightingale were much pleased, Tuesday, to greet that gentleman, who had just arrived from his home at Riverside, Calif., for a few days' visit and for the transaction of some matters of business here. Mr. Nightingale is looking fine and as he says feeling finer, showing that the climate of Sunny Southern California has rejuvenated and made a well, healthy and strong man out of him. No one was more pleased to see him so than the writer. He will be here several days and will dispose of his business properties on our main business thoroughfare, if he can find suitable purchasers, as his home in California is a little too far away to properly look after them, and will dispose of the same at very reasonable figures.

A 10-o'clock dinner party was given last Friday morning by Miss Elva Zimmerman, in honor of Miss Dorothy Montgomery, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. D. W. Montgomery, of the Presbyterian church, at the Zimmerman home. Some thirteen young ladies attended this most pleasant social affair, as follows: Ruby Charlton, Pearl Needham, Addie Leininger, Monroe and Emma Outhouse, Dorothy Montgomery, Emma Williams, Ella Taylor, Esther Musser, Pearl Keeler, Miss Ediles of Columbus, Miss Wait of Lincoln, and Miss May Adams of Mason City. A nice little menu of five courses was served. First, Orange; Second, Poached Eggs on Toast, Potato Chippis, Lettuce, Radishes and Pickles; Third, Strawberries on Rosettes and Cream; Fourth, Cocoa and Wafers; Fifth, After Dinner Mince. A buttonhole bouquet was placed at each plate to be worn in honor of the occasion. Miss Marie Cooper, Fay Galloway and Marcia Ver Valin served at the table. It was a very unique and tasty luncheon.

The Brotherhood of the Presbyterian church are arranging for a fine program for their meeting, Sunday afternoon, July 4th. Splendid music, addresses and a program especially appropriate for the day will be given. Program next week. Look for it.

Miss Dorothy Montgomery, eldest daughter of Rev. and Mrs. D. W. Montgomery of the First Presbyterian church of this city, arrived home last Friday evening from Worthfield, Mass., where she has just graduated from the Northfield Seminary.

A little 2-year-old daughter of J. H. Holycross, living up on Oak Creek, was drowned last Friday night by falling into a stock tank. She had been playing around and had only been missed about five minutes when found drowned as above.

Last Friday was the 20th marriage anniversary of Rev. and Mrs. D. W. Montgomery of the Presbyterian church of this city, and they smilingly acknowledged congratulations of their many friends over the return of that auspicious event.

While engaged in driving a green colt Tuesday, Frank Brewer received a cut on the head by the colt rearing up and striking him in the head with one of his forefeet. However, the injury was not of a very serious nature.

Mrs. Hawk, Lucy Grow, Hattie Hayhurst and Mable Depew went to Rosedale, Monday morning to attend the campmeeting. Over 300 people were present.

We understand Ed. Oltmann was hailed out yesterday for the second time this season. Tough on Ed.

Tapering Waists! R. & G. Corsets

We suggest that you come and inspect the new Spring R. & G. models we are showing, before you order your new spring gowns. If you secure one of these models to have your gowns fitted over, you can rest assured they will possess the fashionable "Directoire" lines. Our stock includes sizes for all figures. Here is shown one of the latest models for medium figures--medium bust, flat hip, extra long back. Price in Coutil (B28) $1.50; same in Batiste (B29) $1.50. Every pair guaranteed. These Corsets in prices from 50c to $5.00

CONHISER'S

The old saying is, the farther east you go the cheaper you can buy your goods. Well, we are in the last building on Main street, so we must be the cheapest place in town. Call in and be convinced that we can sell you.....

Furniture, Rugs,

Lace Curtains

and in fact everything that is kept in a First-Class Furniture Store, and save you money.....

Christensen & Ferdinandt Furniture Company.

Christensen & Ferdinandt, Undertakers and Embalmers

E. G. TAYLOR, President. J. S. PEDLER, Vice President. C. C. CARLSON, Cashier

DIRECTORS

W. R. MELLOR, J. W. LONG, S. N. SWEETLAND

LOUP CITY STATE BANK

LOUP CITY, NEBRASKA.

Capital Stock, - - $25,000.00

Individual Liability, $250,000.00

SPECIAL SUMMER RATES

Excursion Rates East:--Daily low round trip rates with thirty days limit, in effect early June to New York, Jersey Coast Resorts, Boston, Montreal, Portland, Me., and other prominent eastern resorts. Somewhat higher round trip rates daily, with all Summer limits, to New England, St. Lawrence river, Atlantic Coast and New England resorts. Also desirable round trip rates to Wisconsin, Michigan, etc., including Lake Journeys from Chicago to Buffalo and return. Rates, details, destinations, etc., may be had of your nearest ticket agent.

Excursion Rates West:--Seattle Exposition, California, Pacific Coast Tours, Denver and Colorado Resorts, Black Hills; Big Horn Mountains, Utah, Yellowstone Park circuit through scenic Colorado and Yellowstone and Gardiner gateways. Homeseekers rates first and third Tuesdays. You can reach all western Summer resorts on very desirable rates this Summer. Call on nearest ticket agent for special publications covering any western tour.

J. A. DANIELSON, Ticket Agent, Loup City, Nebr., L. W. WAKELEY, G. P. A., Omaha.

This Dain 2-Wheel Sweep ONLY $16.50

I handle the Dain and Achme Sweeps and Stackers. Also carry a general line of Farm Machinery and Buggies and Wagons.

T. M. Reed The Implement Man

Low Round Trip Rates to the great Seattle Exposition

UNION PACIFIC

"The Safe Road to Travel" Electric Block Signals, Perfect track Get booklets and further information of E. L. LOMAX, G. P. A., UNION PACIFIC R. R. CO., OMAHA, NEBRASKA

