

SUPPLEMENT
The Northwestern

LOUP CITY, NEB., Sept. 9, 1909

Mrs. W. J. Fisher left for Fremont Tuesday morning.

E. E. Tracy left for Lincoln Tuesday morning to take in Fair week.

Miss Hazel Starr and Mr. Vern Starr returned home to Lincoln Tuesday.

Mrs. Geo. Scott of Council Bluffs arrived Monday evening on a visit to Grandma Scott.

Miss Doris Verling of Ashton visited the family of Jas. Bartunek last Thursday evening.

Carl Carlsen went to Lincoln last Friday to take charge of the treasurer's office during the state fair.

Mrs. Emil Cords, daughter and son, returned to Rockville Tuesday morning after a few days' visit with friends here.

Will Dolling resigned his position with the Jung bakery and with his wife Monday moved to Grand Island, where he has a good position in the bakery business.

Ed Jones brought to this office Tuesday a sample apple from Grand Junction, Colo., sent him by W. F. Cording, that measures 15 1/4 inches in circumference. It is a dandy.

J. I. Depew left for Lincoln last Friday morning, where he will have on exhibition during Fair week his improved disc sharpener. He was accompanied by his daughter, Miss Florence.

The Presbyterian Sunday school held a very successful picnic at Jenner's Park last Friday afternoon, but the heavy rain coming up about 8 o'clock put a stop to an evening's enjoyment.

Earl Thompson left Monday morning for a few days' visit at his old home at Kanorado, Kas., on the border of that state and Colorado, as the name indicates. He was accompanied by Master Karl Gasteyer.

Mr. L. B. Wilson, the genial telephone manager of the Grand Island district, was a visitor in Loup City Monday, he and W. S. Waite of our telephone company going that evening to Sargent, thence to Ord and other points on business.

Rev. L. C. McEwen returned from a month's visit in Boston, Prince Edward Island and Iowa on the return trip, last Friday morning. Mrs. McEwen and the children were left in Iowa to visit her relatives for a short time.—Kearney Democrat, Sept. 1st.

Jas. Mooney left Monday morning for his old home at Tingley, Iowa, and from there will go to Rochester, Minn., to have an operation for a long-standing case of rapture. He expects then to go to Los Angeles, Calif., to spend the winter with his mother and two brothers residing there.

We were in error last week in saying the funeral of Mr. Fred Thode was under the auspices of the Germania Verein, as he was not a member of that order. The mistake was made from the fact that prominent members of that order were active in showing their respect for their German friend and neighbor.

T. M. Reed and family, Will Hawk, J. W. Long, S. E. Gallaway, Sheriff Williams, Walter Woznick, Mrs. Will French and daughters, Kenneth and Will Kay, Fred Bock and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Goodwin were among those who took the Burlington, or whom the Burlington took, to the State Fair Tuesday morning.

W. C. T. U. Convention

The Sherman County W. C. T. U. met in the M. E. church Thursday, Sept. 2nd, meeting one day later than announced on account of the rain on the day previous. After the devotional exercises, the regular business was taken up until just before noon when Minnie Oltjenbruns, Iva Fross and Cecil Draper gave recitations, which were much enjoyed by the audience. A picnic dinner in the basement added to the pleasure of the day. In the afternoon Wiggle Creek delegation arrived with their president, Mrs. Alleman, and county vice president, Mrs. McFadden. The following officers were elected: president, Mrs. O. L. Fross; vice president, Mrs. Jessie McFadden; cor. secretary, Miss Carrie Douglas; rec. secretary, Mrs. W. T. Draper. The reports from the local organizations were encouraging and we look forward to a year of effective work.

In the evening a good audience listened to the fine recitations given by Miss Blanche Draper and Miss Slawson, the latter rendering the selection that had won for her the silver medal in Missouri. Miss Carrie Douglas in a few well chosen words extended welcome to all visitors. Some lively singing and an instructive and entertaining address by Mrs. Woodward closed a pleasant evening. On Friday Rockville was represented by Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Kittell. During the day various plans of work were taken up, discussed and provided for. Mrs. Woodward proved herself a good organizer and thorough instructor and both our local and county organizations have been benefited by her stay among us.

RESOLUTIONS:

Be it resolved by the members of the Sherman County W. C. T. U., in convention assembled: That we extend thanks to the pastors of the churches of Loup City for assistance rendered; to the trustees of the M. E. church for the use of their building; to the citizens of Loup City for their hospitality, and to the singers and the children for their entertainment.

MR. C. H. KITTELL,

Whew! How Is It, Cholly?

The Republican feels pretty proud of itself. Two weeks ago we wrote an article for the editorial column of this paper and headed it, "The Republican Ticket," and in it we made mention of the candidates who stand on the republican ticket before the people this fall. The week following the Sherman County Times-Independent printed an article concerning the fusion ticket of that county, and when we started to read it, we thought it sounded rather familiar somehow. We soon saw what it was, and found that the editor of that paper had taken our article of the week before, changing only the names and locations, and small details, and printed it as original matter, boosting for the fusion ticket of Sherman county. Don't you think it pretty good, when we write boosts well enough to make a pattern for democrats?—St Paul Republican.

Ex-Senator Fries of Arcadia, prominently mentioned as candidate for the republican nomination for governor, was in Loup City last Saturday for a few hours and gave these republican headquarters a social call. The senator and wife have just returned from an extensive trip to the Pacific Coast. As to politics, Mr. Fries admitted there was nothing doing of note as it was a little early for activities along that line. Senator Fries is well equipped in all ways to hold that important office and the republican party of Nebraska would be safely guided with him in the chair of chief executive.
