Of course, you want for sheriff a man who is true and tried as a peace officer, and has made one of the best sheriffs in the state. That man is Uncle Lou Williams, and there is none better.

If you want to perpetuate the reign of C. F. Beushausen in the county clerk's office, then you will vote for the fusion candidate for that office. If you don't, then vote for Walt Weare, the republican candidate.

Vote for Geo. Holmes, the farmer candidate for county judge on the republican ticket. You make no mistake in his selection. He is a clear-headed, logical, far-seeing man, and will make an ideal county judge.

Farmers, if you want one of your number in the county treasurer's office, and one of those who have lived here for a quarter of a century, and who is most well and favorably known vote for Jos. Daddow, republican candidate for county treasurer. You can do no better.

J. T. Campbell sold his farm this week that he bought of Mrs. Romsdal, known as the Engle farm, to W. D. Phillips of Waterloo, Neb., who intends to make it his home.

Dwight Jacoby, who is making mighty good with his farming interests in Sherman county, returned home yesterday after a week's visit with his parents in this city, and other Hamilton county relatives. Mrs. Jacoby and the children who were with him will make a longer visit.

Death of Grandma Scott
On Monday afternoon, Oct. 18, 1909, Mrs. Geo. H. Scott, one of the oldest residents of Loup City and Sherman county, departed this life at her home aged 82 years, 5 months and 15 days.

The funeral took place from the M. E. church, Wednesday afternoon, and the remains laid to rest in Evergreen cemetery. Elizabeth Hardy was born in Jordan, New York, May 3, 1827.

Her education was attained in a girls' seminary at Little Falls, N. Y. On April 6, 1852, she was united in marriage with George H. Scott, and their married life was mostly spent in frontier communities. Some three years after their wedding they emigrated to Illinois, locating on a farm near Dwight, where they made their home until 1880 when they moved to Nebraska and Sherman county, settling on a farm in Davis Creek precinct and in 1893 they came to Loup City, from which place each of them have now passed to the "Home where changes never come."

Mr. Scott departed this life on April 13, 1903. Their married life of one year and seven days over a half century, was made up of an intermingling of the joys and sorrows, the difficulties and successes that usually are experienced in the long and useful career which they passed. Nine children were born to them, two of whom died in childhood—a girl drowning in a well, and a boy dragged to death by a horse. Seven have grown to manhood and womanhood and remain to cherish the memory of the parents who bore them. They are as follows: J. R. Scott, Perry, Okl. Mrs. Kate Kettle and Mrs. Lucy Finch of North Loup, Neb., Geo. H. Scott, Council Bluffs, Iowa, L. G. Scott, Sebastopol, Cal., Mrs. Iona Sharp, Loup City, and Thaddeus M. Scott, Aurora, Neb., all of whom were present at the funeral except G. H. Scott, who is absent in the west on business and could not be found, and L. G. Scott, who was prevented from attending by illness. Mother Scott was raised in a Christian home and early in life united with the Methodist Episcopal church, her membership continuing therein until she has now been transferred to the Church Triumphant. Mr. and Mrs. Scott were active in the work of the church here, and after his death she was faithful in attendance upon services as her strength would permit. A few days ago she was seized with a cold, which suddenly became serious, and on Monday, Oct. 18, 1909, she ceased her labors on earth to enter upon the "Rest that remaineth to the people of God."

CARD OF THANKS.
We wish to extend to the neighbors and friends of our beloved mother, Mrs. G. H. Scott, our sincere and heartfelt thanks for the many acts of loving kindness towards her in her illness, and for the assistance during her last sickness and burial.

J. R. Scott, Mrs. Kate Kettle, Mrs. Lucy Finch, G. H. Scott, L. G. Scott, Mrs. Iona Sharp, T. M. Scott.

To the Voters of Sherman Co.
I do not intend to say any uncomplimentary things about any man, or number of men, but from what I have heard, I must say something, and that something will be said in as few words as possible, as I must pay for the publication. First, I want to impress this fact on the minds of the voters of Sherman county, that no man or combination of men own me. I do not ask, neither will I appreciate the assistance of any banking institution in Loup City, neither do I ask for the assistance of any lawyer or newspaper. If the combination which exists against me is to be broken, it can be broken only by the vote of the common people. 220 voters signed my petition demanding that my name be printed on the ballot. Such being the case, it makes me a free man. When I made up my mind to enter this race I did not think there could dwell in the mind and soul of any man so much deceit and deception as exists in the political make-up of one of Loup City's bankers. My friends, I am making the fight alone. I'm too poor to drive around the county and see you all. I have been offered teams free, but I can't lose the name. There may be a hard frost the 2nd of November, so I must keep on laying brick. Six children going to school say, "Work, old man." If you think I'm the right man for the common people vote for me, if not, turn me down. Goodbye. Yours, etc. F. B. ROWE, Candidate County Judge.

Since Beushausen of the Times admits every contention of the North-western—that he uses his office to feather his newspaper nest; that he is using his columns to defeat Weare for county clerk by prejudice; that he is simply dollar-crazy in his financial methods against the North-western, etc., there is no need of saying more on the subject. However, Charley will find the precedent set by him will not rebound to his credit nor to his bank account.
