Ha, ha! Ouch!
We do not feel like jubilating much.

Billy Jacobs was defeated for supervisor in No. 6 by Ed Kilpatrick. The Tammany tiger ate up the opposition in New York-Gaynor getting there by some seventy thousand.

We suppose that political wedding will have to take place. Charley will make a beautiful, charming and blushing bride.

And all the republicans could get out of the county political wreck was sheriff, coroner and two supervisors—Depew in No. 4 and Welty in No. 2. But then, we are truly thankful to get any pie at all.

West Side News.

Mrs. Ed Kilpatrick left Tuesday for the sandhills to visit her daughter, Mrs. Rose Parkhurst.

Frank Blaschke's, Sr., new block house that he is building on the Mrs. Hawk place, is near completion.

Will Draper finished Mr. Miller's plastering Monday, where Foss lives. F. O. Johnson and wife and Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Clark went to Aurora Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Henderson are visiting in Kansas. Will Henderson got husking corn and batching on the other place these days.

The Cleoria Aid Society will have a box social at Joe Kowalewski's next Wednesday evening.

At the social Saturday night at Chick Hatch's old Hallowsen got quite a joke on some of the boys, or buggies rather.

Sam Foss says his corn looked pretty good until he got to husking, but it went make half as much as last year.

S. Foss and family took dinner with Arnett's Sunday and prospected their new home, which will certainly be nice and handy when done.

Died

Hugh Haskins, son of J. Q. and M. L. Pray, Oct. 31st, 1909, aged 7 years, 5 months and 29 days. The little fellow was in failing health for several weeks, but was confined to his bed but two days. Funeral services at M. E. church Monday afternoon and the remains laid to rest in Evergreen cemetery. The many friends of the stricken family will deeply sympathize with them in their affliction.

CARD OF THANKS.

We extend our heartfelt thanks to the many friends who sympathized with and assisted us in our great bereavement.

J. Q. PRAY and FAMILY.

Fortunate Accident.

Herman Johanson and family met with what might be termed a lucky accident last Monday evening, while coming to town from their home east of town. While crossing a portion of the road being graded by Overseer Hancock, and the night being pitch dark, they drove into the ditching, overturning the buggy, with Mrs. Johanson underneath, but Herman catching the horse by the head immediately prevented his running away, thus saving the lady from what might have terminated seriously. No damage.
