Hearing upon the application for permanent injunction was set for March 24.

FEDERAL MEDIATION

HALTS FIREMEN'S STRIKE

Chairman Knapp and Commissioner Neil Are on Way to Chicago to Arbitrate Difficulty.

Chicago, Mar. 16.—After the hour for calling a strike of 27,000 railroad employees had been fixed W. S. Carter, president of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Engineers, announced that the railroad men would accept Commissioner Neil and Chairman Knapp as mediators.

He said, however, that the men would not countenance needless delay or sacrifice any of their rights.

Mediation by the federal authorities at Washington under the Edman act has been asked by representatives of all the railroads operating westward out of Chicago, in the trouble that has arisen between their firemen and themselves. This mediation will be granted, and it is hoped in this way to avoid a strike, which would involve nearly 20,000 men and tie up all of the big western roads.

Chairman Knapp of the Interstate Commerce commission, and Dr. Charles P. Neil, commissioner of labor, the federal mediators, will start for Chicago today to take up arbitration negotiations with the officials of the firemen's union.

The request for mediation covered wages, hours of labor and conditions of employment.

Among those on the platform were Gov. Eberhart, who is president of the congress, and a vice-president from each section of the state.

OIL CONTEST ENDS

IT MEANS LIFE OR DEATH

D. T. Watson and John G. Johnson Stand Closing Plea for Standard—Attorney General Wicksham Winds Up for Government.

Washington, Mar. 17.—The United States supreme court now has before it the completed case of the government against the Standard Oil corporation of New Jersey.

When that august body will render the momentous decision that will either perpetuate the great Rockefeller corporation or else dismember it is a matter that the court will make known at its own good pleasure.

CLOSING ARGUMENTS ARE BITTER.

The closing arguments in the case were bitter charges to be made in the presence of the supreme court—bitter upon the part of both the government and the corporation. Attorney General Wicksham, the highest law officer of the nation, besought the court to "root up this gigantic monopoly that threatens the very life of the nation," and to "tear from it the fruits of its fraud," while John G. Johnson, accounted the greatest corporation lawyer in the land, charged the government with the attempted confiscation of a great property built up by industry, energy and, he declared, with honesty.

TAX CASE ARGUMENT BEGUN

Oratorical Battle Is On Before United States Supreme Court on Tariff Law Provision.

Washington, Mar. 18.—The supreme court of the United States was the stage of another titanic legal contest when the fight over the constitutionality of the Payne-Aldrich tariff law was begun.

ALL WERE ADVANCED FOR AN EARLY HEARING AND CONSOLIDATED IN ORDER TO AVOID GIVING 15 DAYS TO THE SUBJECT, WHICH WOULD HAVE BEEN NECESSARY IF EACH CASE HAD BEEN HEARD SEPARATELY.

TAFT IS IN CHICAGO

PRESIDENT MAKES IMPORTANT ADDRESS ON CONSERVATION AND THE TARIFF.

IRISH CITIZENS HIS HOSTS

Visit of Chief Executive Occasion for Memorable Observance of St. Patrick's Day—Is Honored at Receptions and Banquets.

Chicago, Mar. 17.—With President Taft as a guest of the city, St. Patrick's day in Chicago will go down in the annals as one long to be remembered by the Irish Fellowship club which claimed the greater share of the chief executive's attention after his arrival at eight o'clock this morning.

President Taft came into the city on a private car attached to a Pennsylvania train. He left the car at the Thirty-third street station where a great crowd had gathered to greet him. As the president stepped to the platform of the car, the celebrated Taft smile showing, the crowd sent up a roaring cheer, which caused the smile to broaden. Old friends rushed forward to shake the presidential hand.

The police and soldiers quickly cleared a pathway for the president and members of his party, and they were led to waiting automobiles.

Bands Play Irish Airs.

The sons and daughters of old Erin have been planning for weeks their greeting to the president and all along the line of march to the hotel the president was greeted by bands playing Irish airs, waving of the stars and stripes and green flags and a display of shamrocks.

The Seventh regiment, Illinois National Guard, Chicago's crack Irish regiment, acted as the escort from the station to the Hotel La Salle.

The president's flag was waving from the hotel flag pole as the Taft auto drew up at the curb. Secret service men were everywhere, and scores of detectives were in the crowd that was held back by bluecoats and soldiers.

Talks on the Tariff.

The president rested in his apartments, received visits from personal friends, state, city and national officials, and at 12:30 was guest at a luncheon in the hotel, given by E. M. Hines, chairman of the presidential reception committee. In an address at the luncheon the president talked on the tariff.

Shortly before three he again entered an automobile and was whirled to the Auditorium, where he spoke to a crowd that jammed the great assembly hall. The president talked of conservation of the natural resources and his hearers were not long in discovering that the policy of Theodore Roosevelt on the great national question is still that of President Taft. The Ballinger-Pinchot quarrel, which resulted in the ousting of the latter and a congressional probe of the methods of the former gave the president opportunity of saying some pointed things about his plans for the future and what already has been done.

Receptions and Banquet.

Following his speech the president was hurried to the Hamilton club, where a reception in his honor was held.

Then he was whisked back to the Hotel La Salle in the big auto and the Irish Fellowship club of Chicago gave a reception for him. This was followed at six o'clock by a banquet at the hotel, given by the Irish Fellowship club. Here the president delivered another address.

Of the four women members of the board, three voted against their sisters.
