GORDON'S TESTIMONY PROVES INTERESTING

Charles W. Gordon, whose picture is given above, is agent for the Atlantic & Pacific Tea Company in Ogdensburg, N. Y., and resides at 78 King street, that city. In giving testimony regarding his own case, Mr. Gordon recently made the following statement:

"Some time ago, while suffering from stomach catarrh, I was advised to take Cooper's New Discovery, and did so, two bottles of the preparation putting my stomach into good condition. Previous to my taking the New Discovery I could not eat a meal without experiencing pain and discomfort afterward."

"I had been in this condition for a long time, although I had tried many different remedies in search of relief, and at last reached the conclusion that I had exhausted every available resource. Cooper's New Discovery was therefore to me almost a heaven-sent blessing, and the work of the medicine was so permanent and lasting that I have had no recurrence of my former trouble whatever."

"I can eat anything I care for without noticing any bad effects afterward. I have recommended Cooper's New Discovery to many persons of my acquaintance, and it never fails to give satisfactory results. It reaches the seat of stomach trouble in mighty short order."

Cooper's New Discovery is sold by all druggists. If your druggist cannot supply you, we will forward you the name of a druggist in your city who will. Don't accept "something just as good."—The Cooper Medicines Co., Dayton, Ohio.

The Right Spirit.

Appropos of Valentine's day, a passenger on the Bermudian said:

"Mark Twain once told us, in a little Valentine day speech on this boat, of an Irish wooer who had the right Valentine spirit. Acceptance or rejection he could take with equal grace."

"Will ye be my valentine?" he said, on February 14, to the girl he loved.

"No," she replied; "I am another's."

"He heaved a sigh and said:

"Sure, thin, darlin', I wish ye was twins, so that I could have at laste the half of ye."

Airing the Poodle.

The messenger boy towed the leading lady's pet poodle in front of the big ventilation fan and tied him.

"Great Scott, boy!" exclaimed a bystander, excitedly. "Do you want to blow that dog away? Why, that fan is worse than a cyclone."

"Naw!" snapped the messenger boy with a pout. "Let him stay there and get aired. That blooming actress hires me two hours every day to air her blooming kiddo, and I want him to get enough of it."

Desperate Remedy.

"Yes," said the musician in a reminiscent mood, "my wife fell in love with me and married me when I was 'learning to play the cornet.'"

"Are you sure," asked his friend, "that she married you because she loved you, or to make you stop practicing on the cornet?"

Easily Explained.

"Strange," murmured the editor, "that this anecdote of George Washington has never been in print before."

"Not at all," explained the occasional contributor. "I only thought of it last night."

The Point of View.

Newlywed.—What, $30 for a hat? Why, it's simply ridiculous, my dear Mrs. Newlywed.—That's what I thought, Harold; but you said it was all we could afford.—Lippincott's.

A LITTLE THING Changes the Home Feeling.

Coffee blots out the sunshine from many a home by making the mother, or some other member of the household, dyspeptic, nervous and irritable. There are thousands of cases where the proof is absolutely undeniable. Here is one.

A Wis. mother writes:

"I was taught to drink coffee at an early age, and also at an early age became a victim to headaches, and as I grew to womanhood these headaches became a part of me, as I was scarcely ever free from them."

"About five years ago a friend urged me to try Postum. I made the trial and the result was so satisfactory that we have used it ever since."

"My husband and little daughter were subject to bilious attacks, but they have both been entirely free from them since we began using Postum instead of coffee. I no longer have headaches and my health is perfect."

If some of these tired, nervous, irritable women would only leave off coffee absolutely and try Postum they would find a wonderful change in their life. It would then be filled with sunshine and happiness rather than weariness and discontent. And think what an effect it would have on the family, for the mood of the mother is largely responsible for the temper of the children.

BIG DAY FOR TAFT

ATTENDS TWO BANQUETS, A LUNCHEON AND RECEPTION.

ADDRESS ON WORLD'S PEACE

Expensive Armament, the President Says, is Working Toward Peace and Arbitration.

New York.—The president of the United States spoke in the cause of world peace before such a brilliant assemblage at the Hotel Astor that he described it as "superlative." He was the honor guest at a banquet of the Peace and Arbitration league and the principal speaker.

After leaving the peace gathering Mr. Taft appeared at a dinner in honor of Herbert Parsons who resigned recently as president of the republican county committee. At the peace banquet men prominent in the life of the nation, the state and the city, ambassadors and ministers of foreign countries, and special envoys, gathered to express their sentiment in the cause of peace.

Former Vice President Fairbanks, who returned recently after a trip around the world, was a conspicuous guest. Otto T. Barnard, late candidate for mayor of New York on the republican ticket, presided at the Parsons banquet. Places near him were reserved for the president and for Senator Elihu Root. Senator Root and Lloyd C. Griseom, chairman of the republican county committee, were among the speakers. The president addressed both gatherings.

International peace was the keynote of every address but no speaker advocated the immediate disarmament of nations. On the other hand all agreed that armies and navies were necessary until a more utopian universe shall have come about. On this point President Taft said:

"Because we are in favor of universal peace, and in favor of arbitration in order to secure it we stand together that we are not in favor of one country giving up that which we now use for the purpose of securing peace, to witness: Our armament and our army and our navy."

Tremendous applause greeted his declarations and he continued:

"I do not want to seem inconsistent in speaking so emphatically here in favor of peace by arbitration and in favor of every effort that I can bring to bear on congress to have two more battleships this year. I am hopeful that we may continue with that policy until the Panama canal is constructed so that then our naval force shall be doubled by reason of the connection between the two coasts and then we can stop and think whether we wish to go further. Perhaps by that time there shall be adopted a means of reducing armament. And when it comes I am sure we will not be the power to interfere with that general movement."

Strike is Breaking.

Philadelphia, Pa.—The first big break in the general strike came Wednesday when the journeymen bricklayers, numbering about 2,200 men, notified the master bricklayers that they were ready to return to work.

Governor Pardons Dead Man.

Nashville, Tenn.—Walter Dennis of Jackson county, a dead man, was pardoned by Governor Patterson. The object of the pardon was to relieve the family of the deceased of the necessity of paying a $50 fine which he had been sentenced to pay in July, 1905, for carrying a pistol.

FIREMEN'S DISPUTE SETTLED.

Differences Are Compromised with Western Railroad Managers.

Chicago.—All questions in dispute between the 27,000 firemen on western railroads and the railroad managers will be amicably settled, according to an arrangement reached through the aid of United States Commissioner of Labor C. P. Neill. It was agreed by W. S. Carter, president of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen, and his committee, and the general managers' committee, representing the forty-seven railroads involved, to settle the Death List Grows.

Marshalltown, Ia.—Identification of the dead, care of the injured and an attempt to place the responsibility for the disastrous wreck of the Rock Island "Twin City Express" occupied officials of the road, the Iowa board of railway commissioners and scores of volunteer assistants here Tuesday.

The list of the dead in the wreck has grown to forty-seven, several passengers having died as the result of injuries, while other deaths are expected hourly. Many of the injured have been taken to other cities.

Cudahy Case Is Dismissed.

Kansas City.—The case growing out of the assault made by J. P. Cudahy, the banker, on Jere Lillis, the banker, was dismissed in the municipal court here by Daniel Howell, assistant city attorney. Mr. Howell made no comment further than that the case should not have been brought in the municipal court. Underwood, the patrolman who was called to the Cudahy home the night Lillis was attacked, was the only witness to appear. The case has been continued twice before.

Commission for Chamberlain.

Chamberlain, S. D.—Chamberlain adopted the commission form of city government by a majority of fifty-five.

Vacations in Postoffices.

Washington.—Senator Burkett introduced an amendment which will urge to the general postoffice appropriation bill providing "that hereafter all employed in postoffices having city delivery shall be granted thirty days' leave of absence during each fiscal year with full pay."

MAY LOSE LICENSES

STATE AUDITOR'S WARNING TO INSURANCE COMPANIES.

THE TESTING OF SEED CORN

Superintendent Bishop Sending Out a Bulletin Advising as to How the Work Can Be Done.

State Auditor Barton recently published a letter in which he stated that if rate wars did not cease among fire insurance companies of this state he would revoke the licenses of companies that seek insurance for less money in one town than in another of the same class. His desk is stacked high with letters called forth by this statement and in it most of the insurance officials assert that they are always opposed to rate wars but they cannot control their agents. The replies are so nearly uniform that they have caused some little amusement at the auditor's office.

While the rate war may be justified by the necessities of competition in one town, says the auditor, it is evident that it works a discrimination against the other towns. Moreover, the auditor does not believe that fire insurance companies can afford to sell insurance as cheap as they frequently do and he thinks that the rule might work toward the conserving of life insurance funds.

Tests on Seed Corn.

Superintendent Bishop is now sending out a bulletin advising school superintendents and teachers how to test seed corn.

The school men are advised to get together classes that will handle the testing of seed corn. They are admonished to "be sure that the test is so accurate and thorough that the owner of the seed corn may rely upon the result as indication of the actual condition of his seed corn as to germinating power."

Blanks are enclosed, so that interested school men may send in notice of their needs in the way of copies of instruction.

Couldn't Speak.

They never speak as they pass by, they both keep mum; No need to ask the reason why—they're deaf and dumb.

A Big Shortage in Seeds.

From almost all sections comes the report of frightful shortages in seed corn; also in some varieties of seed barley, oats, rye, wheat, flax, clovers, and the early varieties of potatoes.

This is particularly noticeable in the great corn and oat and potato growing states.

Thus: The great states of Nebraska and Iowa are suffering from a dearth of seed corn as never before.

The wise-awake farmers in these and other states are placing their orders early for above seeds in order to be on the safe side, and we can but urge farmers to write at once to the John A. Salzer Seed Co., Box 122, La Crosse, Wis., for their fine seed and corn catalogues.

The magnitude of the business of this long established firm can be somewhat estimated when one knows that in ordinary years they sell:

- 50,000 bushels of elegant seed corn.
- 100,000 bushels of seed potatoes.
- 100,000 bushels of seed oats.
- 50,000 bushels of seed wheat.
- 100,000 bushels of pure clover and timothy seeds, together with an endless amount of other farm seeds and vegetable seeds, such as onions, radishes, carrots, peas, beans, lettuce, radishes, tomatoes, etc.

There is one thing about the Salzer firm they never disappoint. They always fill your order on account of the enormous stocks they carry.

His Sole Resting Place.

A precise Boston teacher spent a quarter of an hour in impressing upon her class the right pronunciation of the word vase.

Next day, hoping to reap the fruits of her labor, she asked: "Now, Johnnie, tell me! What do you see on the mantelpiece at home?"

And Johnnie piped forth: "Father's feet, ma'am."—Harper's Bazar.

GEORGE W. NORRIS

The Nebraska congressman who was central figure in the great revolutionary movement in congress. Unexpectedly to the regulars of the Republican organization, he put over a resolution of the highest constitutional privilege, changing the rules of the house so far as the composition of its committee on rules is concerned by creating a committee of fifteen to be selected from various geographical divisions among the membership and eliminating the speaker from the committee. The confusion and consternation which that resolution created is history.

Out for Senator.

William B. Price of Lincoln, a pronounced county optimist, has issued a formal statement announcing himself a candidate for the United States senate on the democratic and populist, or people's independent tickets.

Petition to the Governor.

Governor Shallenberger has received a petition for the removal of a house of ill repute which is said to be located half way between Wymore and Blue Springs. The petition is signed by fifty-two persons, many of them women.

Making Room in State House.

Bids from contractors will shortly be received by the state railway commission for putting the basement under the commission rooms in shape to house a part of the office force. The commission is now crowded and the physical valuation department, now housed on the second floor, must give up its quarters as soon as the next legislative meets. The basement under the commission rooms will be further excavated, a cement floor will be laid, the walls will be plastered and decorated.

Wants Suit Dismissed.

The Union Pacific has decided that it does not care to exchange transportation for advertising when this is done under pain of prosecution, but it does not care, if possible, to acknowledge that the act is illegal. Edson Rich, attorney for the Union Pacific, called on the state railway commission, hoping to have the suit dismissed. The commission conferred with Attorney General Thompson. It was decided that the case would not be dismissed at once.

Corn About Gathered.

Farmers coming to Lincoln from towns out in the state report that most of the corn caught by the early snows last winter has been gathered, or "picked" as they say. It is in bad condition. Huskers are compelled to sort the grain as they gather it, throwing into one part of the wagon the ears which have lain under the snow all winter, and into another part of the wagon those ears which stood up well. This latter part is marketable, but the "down" corn has to be fed to the stock.

Follow this advice.

Quaker Oats is the best of all foods; it is also the cheapest. When such men as Prof. Fisher of Yale University and Sir James Crichton Browne, LL.D., F.R.S. of London spend the best part of their lives in studying the great question of the nourishing and strengthening qualities of different foods, it is certain that their advice is absolutely safe to follow.

Professor Fisher found in his experiments for testing the strength and endurance of athletes that the meat eaters were exhausted long before the men who were fed on such food as Quaker Oats. The powers of endurance of the non-meat eaters were about eight times those of the meat eaters.

Sir James Crichton Browne says—eat more oatmeal, eat plenty of it and eat it frequently. 59

NEED LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S VEGETABLE COMPOUND

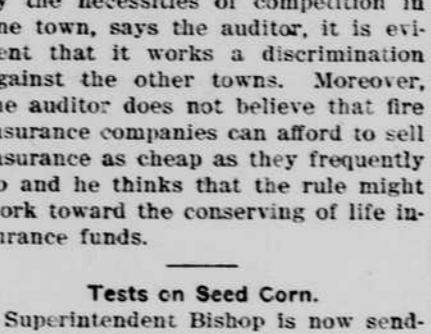

Brookfield, Mo.—"Two years ago I was unable to do any kind of work and only weighed 118 pounds. My trouble dates back to the time that when I got a bottle of Lydia E.
