A vast majority of cases can be cured by my system of home treatment, which is the most successful system ever devised. I make no charge for private counsel and give to each patient a legal contract in writing, backed by abundant capital, to hold for the promise. Physicians having stubborn cases to treat are cordially invited to send me several of old to consult with me. WOMEN womb and bladder disease, irregular menstruation, etc. Consultation, private home in the suburbs, before and during confinement. J. W. BURLINGH, Ed. and Pub
York voted out pool halls last week by a majority of 331.

And now it is claimed fish have cancers. Is this a scare gotten up by the farmer and beef combine?

Beatrice went dry this year, but the council is said to be in favor of making the license almost prohibitive by placing it at not less than $1800.

The Northwestern sends greetings to the few Socialists in Sherman county with the happy announcement to them that one of their believers has been elected mayor of Milwaukee.

Inmates of the Grand Island soldiers' home are complaining that their treatment is worse than that received at Andersonville. What? And under beneficent democratic rule at that?

It is claimed that if you get up early enough tomorrow (Friday) morning and keep your optics peeled wide enough you may see Halley's comet just before the sun rises and in line with Old Sol.

Uncle Joe Cannon made a talk the other day and said the insurgents did not dare join with the democrats and fire him from the speakership. The old fellow would be a little surprised were the challenge accepted.

Lincoln went dry at the election Monday of this week by the decisive majority of 935. Havelock voted dry a few days before, so last year's history making between Lincoln and Havelock will not have a repetition this coming year.

We believe if it were put to a vote of the people of the state to fire Rev. (1) Luther P. Ludden from the state normal committee, the ayes would have it by an overwhelming majority. Why in the world do they keep such old political barnacles in appointive positions in the state?

Jim Dahilan has undertaken the gigantic scheme of moving the state capital from Lincoln to the interior of the state. If Jim will locate the blame thing in Loup City we'll consider supporting him for governor, but if he don't, he can't expect a thing from us; so there.

While Gov. Shallenberger states he is not personally for county option, he says he wants the democratic renomination so badly he is willing to adopt the dry infant if the dems place it on their platform. With our democratic friends it has always been "anything for office," and the governor accepts that as his shibboleth.

W. D. Hayes of Alliance, was on Tuesday of this week elected by the state normal board as president of the Peru normal school, vice Crabtree kicked out at the instance of Rev. (1) Luther P. Ludden and his lieutenants. We do not know the new man, but all of the school interests of the state do know of Prof. Crabtree as one of the best educators in Nebraska.

Telegraphic dispatches are to the effect that President Taft and his cabinet have on their fighting togs and propose to read the insurgents out of the republican party unless they come into the regulars' camp instantly. Surely with the general uprising among the people over the misfit tariff and Cannon misrule, President Taft and his lieutenants have been misquoted.

Judge James E. Dean of Broken Bow has entered the list of democratic candidates for nomination to congress from the Big Sixth. If the democrats are wise they will see that Dean wins the nomination, though that does not say he will be elected by a long way. As Judge Oldham of Kearney was one of the signers of Judge Dean's petition, it is evidence that the former is out of the race.

The Swine Department of the 1910 State Fair, Sept. 5th to 9th, will contain a fine showing of Poland China, Berkshire, Duroc, Chester White, Hampshire, Large Yorkshire and Tamworth hogs. The prices now obtained for swine will make this show one of extreme value, and Superintendent G. A. Leonard of Pawnee City is busy assigning pens to those making early applications.

Romance of Mable Zink Former Loup City Girl

Love still continues to give the merry "haw-haw" to locksmiths, fond parents, etc. Clyde E. Beardsley, head usher at the Orpheum Theater, left the home of his mother, Mrs. E. H. Lunt, 515 Twenty-third avenue, about three months ago after telling his fond parent—who was endeavoring to prevent him enjoying the holy bonds of wedlock—that he was married to Miss Mable Zink, a petite young hairdresser of the Denver Dry Goods Company. It has now been discovered that the couple were not married until last Wednesday, when they quietly slipped to Golden and annexed a marriage license, were wed and returned to Denver the same day. The couple managed to keep the matter secret and even the close friends of the two did not know that they were married. Young Beardsley who is but 19 years old, while his bride is only 18, was formerly engaged to an actress of New York, Miss Kada Williams, but upon coming to Denver and meeting Miss Zink, he lost his admiration for the actress, it is said, and jilted her to marry Miss Zink. The two will not tell where they have set up house-keeping. Both still are employed at their former places. Miss Zink was formerly an Omaha girl and young Beardsley a Chicago boy.—Denver News.

BASE BALL DOPE

New Rules of the Game Adopted

The revised playing rules of baseball amended by the joint rules committee of the National and American league in Pittsburgh last January were given out recently. The most striking feature of the revised rules is the importance given to the powers and duties of the umpires. This season more than ever before in the history of the game the umpire will be the reigning power on the diamond.

The new rules establish a double umpire system for all games, with an umpire in chief behind the bat to judge balls and strikes and certain decisions at third base and a field umpire to judge base decisions. The umpire in chief will have full charge of the game and will alone have authority to declare a game forfeited. The field umpire has full authority in removing and fining players. The two officials must work in harmony, and in case a point is raised on a decision based on a point of rules one umpire may ask for information from the other, but one umpire will not interfere with another's decision unless asked to by his associate.

The players are prohibited from disputing the accuracy of the umpire's judgment, and not even the captain of the team can call the umpire's attention to what he believes to be a violation of the rules.

Hereafter when a player is ejected from the game for violation of the rules he will not be allowed to loiter about the grounds or grand stand, but is decisively banished to the clubhouse and must stay there or leave the grounds, and if he doesn't the umpire is given the power to forfeit the game. The umpire can also fine a player $5 for discoloring the ball, for refusing to be seated on the bench one minute after ordered to do so, if he violates the coaching rules and if the captain fails to notify the official of a change in lineup.

The revised rules give the umpire absolute power over the players on the bench and to do away with all the rowdiness which has started at this quarter in the past. The umpire is given power to fine substitute players for yelling disapproval from the bench $10, and if the unsolicited conversation continues he is given power to clear the bench and send the whole crew of substitutes to the clubhouse and have them come out only as they are needed.

The new code provides for several changes in relation to ground rules. In case of an overflow crowd if the captain of the home team and the umpire shall call the two captains together and lay down the law to them and must give them to understand that the rules are to be strictly and impartially enforced. The umpire must announce the batteries before the game and also announce any change in the lineup.

Under the amended rules if a fielder stops or catches a batted ball with his cap, glove or any part of his uniform the runner or runners on the bases will be entitled to three bases. If a thrown or pitched ball strikes the umpire on foul ground the ball shall be considered in play and the base runner shall be entitled to all the bases he can make. A base runner will be declared out if he passes a preceding base runner before such runner has been legally put out.

A new rule gives the base runner the privilege of turning either to the right or left after touching first base, where heretofore he was compelled to turn to the right. If, however, after running over first base he shall forfeit exemption from liability to be put out. Additions have also been made to the rule governing when a base runner may return to his base without liability of being declared out. In case the umpire declares an illegally batted ball he may go back; also if the umpire is struck by a fair hit ball before touching a fielder, in which case no base shall be run unless necessitated by the batsman becoming a base runner, and no run shall be scored unless all the bases are occupied. The runner may return to his base also if the umpire declares the batsman or another base runner out for interference.

A few slight changes are made in the scoring rules. A player will get an assist when he handles the ball in aiding in a run-out, even though he completes the play by making a put-out. Wild pitches and passed balls are exempt from the error column, as prior to the 1907 season. In the event of a double or triple steal, where either runner is thrown out, the other or others shall not be credited with a stolen base.

By dispatches in the dailies of yesterday it is learned that the Fairbanks expedition which left some months' since to scale Mt. McKinley to prove or disprove Dr. Cook's contention that he reached the top of that mountain, have found no evidence that he gained that distinction, nor verification of the fact. It is evident that Dr. Cook was most distinguished for what he did not do, and as a monumental liar has no equal.

The Northwestern has made a remarkable contract with the North American Accident Insurance Company whereby we are able to give any reader of the Northwestern over 16 years of age and under 65, a $1000 accident policy good for one year for only 50 cents. This looks like getting something for nothing almost, but when you understand that the proposition is one way of advertising this great company and is free from all commissions and is operative in the country where accidents are not so frequent as in the cities, and then the policy is figured down to cost, you will see why you are able to get this insurance from one of the best companies for this ridiculously low figure. Can you afford to carry your own accident insurance when you can get this at such a low price? Call in and see us about it. For only $1.50 you can have The Northwestern one year and one year's accident insurance for $1000. For the loss of life, both eyes, both hands, both feet you get $1000. For the loss of one hand or one foot you get $250 and for the loss of one eye you get $100. And all for only 50 cents. Only two policies can be taken by one person.

6,000 YEARS WITHOUT CHANGE.

People of Egypt Have Retained Physical Characteristics.

At a meeting of scientists in Dublin, Prof. G. Elliott Smith, the Egyptologist, said that the earliest known human remains found in the Nile valley, when compared with those of later times, demonstrated the fact that at a very remote period Egypt and Nubia were inhabited by the same race, which had persisted in Egypt with little or no change in physical characteristics throughout the intervening 6,000 years until the present day. They had been, and still were, a small people, the average height of the men being about five feet three inches at every period of their history.

Their hair was very dark brown or black, usually wavy, but not "woolly" or in any sense negro; their heads were long and narrow, usually oval or pentagonoid or "coffin-shaped," as the result of a frequent presence of a protuberant occiput. On the whole they shared those characteristics which distinguished the majority of the peoples fringing the Mediterranean.

HABIT THAT MEANS HAPPINESS.

Kindly Attitude of Mind is Above All Things Worldly.

A habit of holding a kindly attitude of mind toward everybody has a powerful influence upon the character. It lifts the mind above petty jealousies and meannesses; it enlarges and enlarges the whole life. Where we meet people, no matter if they are strangers, we feel a certain kinship with and friendliness for them, if we have formed the good-will habit.

In other words the kindly habit, the good-will habit, makes us feel more sympathy for everybody. And if we radiate this helpful, friendly feeling others will reflect it back to us.

On the other hand, if we go through life with a cold, selfish mental attitude, caring only for our own, always looking for the main chance, only thinking of what will further our own interest, our own comfort, totally indifferent to others, this attitude will, after a while, harden the feelings and the affections, and we shall become dry, pessimistic and uninteresting.

Dressing the Chicken.

One evening on the farm a little slum child was enjoying the first glimpse of pastoral life. On a little stool he sat, under a tree, bent with its load of ripe peaches, beside the cook, who was plucking a chicken. He watched that plucking operation gravely for some time. Then he said: "Do you take off their clothes every night, loidy?"

In Chicago, of Course.

A mother hid her $1,500 worth of jewels in her little daughter's slipper, forgot all about it and the next day threw the slipper into the garbage can. Of course, it happened in Chicago, says the New York Herald. Where else would a child's slipper hold all those gems?

New Railway to Alps' Peak.

An electric railway is being built on the Zugspitze, the highest peak in the Alps, on Bavarian territory. Its height is about 10,000 feet. The railway will run to the summit, while a hotel will be built at the 7,000-foot level.

City Would Buy Coal Mine.

The city of Vienna is now trying to secure control of mines in Moravia. The reasons given for the purchase are the high price of coal and the difficulty of securing a steady supply for the municipal gas and electric plants.

Bright in Land of Fog.

Although but a few miles from the mouth of the river Thames, noted for its fog, the atmosphere of Horne Bay, England, is rarely obscured.

The first four evenings of the State Fair, Sept. 5th to 8th, will be held one of the greatest fireworks spectacles ever witnessed in the West. Many new designs are contemplated which, together with the bombs, set pieces, sky battles, war balloons and such other designs of pyrotechnic art known to modern manufacturers, will furnish an enjoyable season of entertainment to State Fair visitors.
